From the Desk of Father Eugene Theisen*Padre's Pen ~*Hope in the New Year

As we enter this New Year of 2021, we enter filled with hope and expectation. I hope to lose the little extra layer of “me” around the waistline. I hope for an end to the Coronavirus. I hope our parish and school will remain financially viable and grow in the practice of the faith. I hope our Capital Campaign projects will proceed apace. I hope the angst, bitterness, and hostility so prevalent in our culture today will subside. I hope I win the big buck contest again this year with my hunting crew.

We can make a whole host of hopes for the coming year because of our unique ability as rational beings to look to the future and see better prospects. We can compare our past with the present circumstances looking for ways to improve our lot in the days and years to come. This is but a small intimation of what hope really is about. Hope is about something much larger than the coming year or years. It is about eternity.

From our Catechism of the Catholic Church the definition of Hope is, “The theological virtue by which we desire and expect from God both eternal life and the grace we need to attain it.”

The desire to lose the little “chub” on my belly is a small intimation of the desire for perfection in being promised in heavenly glory. To be free of the Coronavirus is to be free from a fallen nature that became susceptible to disease. Financial viability and growth in faith looks to treasure in heavens perfection. Capital Campaign projects look to the Heavenly Jerusalem. Culture/political issues look to a time when we all will love our neighbor perfectly. Even a new big buck looks (in a very small way) forward to total fulfillment and happiness in heaven.

As Children of God, born into the divine family through our own baptisms, we give thanks on this day that Jesus Christ went down into the waters of Baptism on our behalf. He had no need of Baptism, but through him the waters were made holy and we were given the grace of becoming the sons and daughters of God. As sons and daughters, we are heirs to the Kingdom. And as heirs, our hope is not in the things of this world but in the promise of the world to come.

Should we hope for all the small things that come around in our lives? Yes, but remember that we hope not just for a better 2021 but hope for a final end in Jesus Christ. That is something to hope for.

GriefShare Support Group

Are you suffering after the death of a spouse, child, family member, or friend? You don't have to go through the process alone. GriefShare is designed to give encouragement and to help you rebuild your life. Facilitated small group discussions - GriefShare meets weekly.

GriefShare is a revolving 13-week program; you are welcome to start at any time. This group is open to the whole New Prague and surrounding area communities and will be held virtually by Zoom on Mondays, 6:00-7:00 pm, beginning January 11th to April 5th. There is a $15 cost for the workbook. If the cost is a burden, please let me know.

For more information or to register call MaryCarol at St. Wenceslaus Church 952-758-0463. Email: MaryCarol.Wolf@npcatholic.org.

"I feel more at peace now than ever and many of the lights have turned on spiritually; a good part of that was due to the GriefShare program. When I lost my wife of 38 years it was like hitting a brick wall at 90 miles an hour, I was dazed and hurting. Finding and attending GriefShare meetings was a real blessing. What I learned from GriefShare and the support I felt from others in the meetings was absolutely invaluable."

~John Bigelow

Would you like to be a Caring Companion for seniors or the homebound facing isolation?

We are looking for individuals who would be interested in buddying up with a senior or someone who is homebound that has been facing increased isolation and loneliness due to the pandemic. They may reside in one of our senior buildings or be a neighbor with no family in the area. This would require a weekly phone call and some card-sending to let them know how much they are thought about, cared, and prayed for. If interested in being a Caring Companion or if you are that person or know someone in the surrounding area who would benefit from this, please call MaryCarol at 952-758-0463 or email MaryCarol.Wolf@npcatholic.org.

Saint Alphonsus Liguori

(to pray anytime you are unable to physically participate in Communion)

*My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.*

There's more to the story...

We have shared the beautiful story of Jesus coming to earth throughout the season of Advent and Christmas, but we heard just a small part of the whole story. You are invited to spend some time reflecting on The Great Story of Jesus: the basic message of good news. Our parish will be offering 2 opportunities, either – Jan. 16 or 30 – to dig into the great story of our salvation in Jesus Christ, in nine acts. The day will present the Gospel in video format via Zoom with quiet time for individual reflection and small group discussion. There will be morning and afternoon sessions with a break for lunch. Please sign up by calling Mary in the Faith Formation office at 952-758-0464 or email mary.higgins@npcatholic.org. The suggested offering is $5 for materials.

From past participants: "Wonderful. I walked in with a heavy heart and came out renewed."

"Excellent...I loved the time to reflect. I took away a new appreciation for scripture that spoke to me on what I needed to hear today."

Thank-you! Thank-you to all who gave me cards, gifts and edible treats for Christmas. I appreciate your kindness. The New Prague Catholic Community is a wonderful, welcoming community of disciples of the Lord Jesus. I'm honored to celebrate Mass with you on Sundays. Let's hold one another in prayer in this New Year.

Register at ascendspo.org.

FAITH FORMATION AND YOUTH MINISTRY

Hello everyone and I hope you had a blessed, beautiful, awe-inspiring Christmas as we continue to celebrate the marvelous birth of our savior- Wow - God became man! Can you imagine a God, our God, humbling Himself and becoming man? That is love!

I've heard from some of you how much you are enjoying these lessons with your child, that they have sparked deeper faith conversations than you have had in the past; for this I say thank you! You are helping the faith to come alive in your children like no one else can. You are teaching them by word and action that their faith is an important part of who they are. I know God is with you as you work through these lessons with your child. Don't hesitate to ask the Holy Spirit to inspire you, give you the words to touch your child's mind, heart, and soul. Let your child hear you ask for this guidance, a great lesson in faith, trust, and hope.

SCHOOL NEWS from SWS

Happy 2021!

Let us have hope as we move into the second half of our school year. There is no doubt 2020 was difficult, but it also taught us many ways to be flexible, to be considerate, to look to the greater needs beyond our own, and to adapt quickly while moving one step at a time. I found the majority of our SWS people to be generous beyond words, appreciative for the things we do, trusting that the school is operating in the best interest of the children, and conscientious to protect and care for each other amid difficulties.

2021 requires that we incorporate even more cooperation as we battle the pandemic together. We will continue to teach skills of resilience, trust, hope, and most of all faith in God's plan. It is quite evident that our school community is important for each of us more than ever. It gives us an extension beyond our individual homes and is a place for each of us to call our own – our home. We are brought together by our faith and our desire to have our kids immersed in their faith while learning their academics.

Parents have chosen our school because of what we stand for and how we put our faith first and not simply because we are doing in-person learning. Supporters and donors believe in our school and want to help foster the continuation of our Catholic education despite our hardships due to COVID-19. Our friends and alumni are dedicated to our Christ-centered mission and know how important the formation of our children is to the future of our society and the successful growth of each soul as we grow close to our glory beyond our earthly life. For each and every one who has supported and helped SWS in 2020 and for many prior years, we could not be more thankful.

We ask that you continue to pray for our school with its dedicated staff and excellent students and their families. Pray for our continued success. Pray for our health and our safety. Pray for each of our supporters, donors, friends, and alumni. Pray for our families, parents of the past, present, and future, and for the grandparents who are the most loving of all! We ask God to bless us greatly and keep us focused on Him in 2021!

Preschool Open House

Registration for fall 2021 is taking place. We are offering a "live in-person" night when future preschool families can come to see our preschool hallway, classrooms, and meet all of our teachers.

Preschool registration forms can be dropped off on this night or mailed in. You are not obligated to attend the open house to register your child in the program. Our facility will accept four families per room at a time for social distancing (We have four rooms and can accept 16 visitors at a time). Tuesday, January 19. Stop in anytime between 5:00 pm and 7:00 pm. Park on Columbus Avenue and enter through the doors named "Preschool Entrance".

FEAST OF THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Do justice

We sometimes imagine it's about collecting sacraments. Or stockpiling mountains of prayers. Writing fat checks to charities. Or being nice to people we don't like. But the prophets relentlessly insist that what God desires from us is a just world. Where there's a privileged class, abominable wage gaps, racist systems, and deeply disproportionate outcomes for a nation's citizens, the peaceable reign of God can't gain a foothold. Contemplate categories of injustice—education, health care, employment opportunities, criminal justice—to name a few. Make one your special cause, learn all you can, and educate others about it.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 55:1-11 or Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7; 1 John 5:1-9 or Acts 10:34-38; Mark 1:7-11 (21). "A smoldering wick he shall not quench, until he establishes justice on the earth."

Monday, Jan 11, 2021

FIRST WEEK IN ORDINARY TIME

Nothing ordinary about the reign of God

Today is the first weekday of Ordinary Time—that period in the church's liturgical year after the close of the Christmas season that stretches until Ash Wednesday (and then picks up after Pentecost until Advent begins again). This time after the holidays can indeed seem "ordinary," when all the commotion dies down and all the decorations are put away. Some people, especially those who live with long, cold winters, might even feel a little blue. But while sacred seasons are important, getting down to business is too. After all, there's a reign of God to help build. Think about everything Jesus did between the bookends of his life that we celebrate—and roll up your sleeves for some extraordinary work.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 1:1-6; Mark 1:14-20 (305). "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men."

Tuesday, Jan 12, 2021*The power of a name

The Holy Name of Jesus is a devotion that was championed by Saint Bernardino of Siena in the 1400s—with the Holy Name Society dating to the 1200s. As a feast day, it's been celebrated during the first week of January by various Christian denominations and by Catholic religious orders, most notably the Jesuits, who use a monogram of the name (IHS) as their emblem. For Catholics, the entire month of January is dedicated to the Holy Name of Jesus. Pray the Litany of the Holy Name of Jesus today, recalling how even the unclean spirits of Jesus' day recognized his name.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 2:5-12; Mark 1:21-28 (306). "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth?"

Wednesday, Jan 13, 2021

OPTIONAL MEMORIAL OF HILARY, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Be gracious in your disagreements

Catholics of the 21st century profess the belief that Jesus is both human and divine every time we recite the Nicene Creed at Mass. However, that profession of faith was challenged mightily in the fourth century when followers of Arius argued that Jesus was a great man—but not God. The conflict involved bishops and emperors on both sides and it went on for years. Hilary of Poitiers converted to Christianity at the age of 35 and was elected a bishop three years later. Hilary was a friendly and courteous man who persistently championed belief in Jesus' divinity. Even exile did not silence his voice. In our own times of conflict and division, Saint Hilary, guide us to God's grace.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 2:14-18; Mark 1:29-39 (307). "For this purpose have I come."

Thursday, Jan 14, 2021*Reach out and touch an outcast

Jesus heals a leper in today's gospel. Leprosy is relatively rare now in most regions of the world, so it's hard to understand the fear and revulsion that people with this disease triggered at one time. Even someone as close to God as Saint Francis struggled to be comfortable with touching a leper. Every age has its outcasts, and the Christian challenge has always been to learn to accept those others find unacceptable, love those others find unlovable. Prisoners, poor people, those with dark skin or foreign accents, the homeless—the list of modern lepers is long. Who do you avoid? Acknowledging your aversion is a step toward acceptance.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 3:7-14; Mark 1:40-45 (308). "He . . . touched the leper, and said to him, 'I do will it. Be made clean.'"

Friday, Jan 15, 2021*Color blind no more

Today in Guatemala, a major religious procession honors an image of Christ on the cross carved from dark wood and renowned throughout the region as the "Black Christ of Esquipulas." The statue was commissioned by Spanish colonial leaders looking to convert the indigenous people who worshipped a dark-skinned deity. Today the image affirms the fact that in Latin America there has been a certain "fluidity between races through inter-marriage and more blending of cultures and religions when compared to the experience of Native Americans and African Americans," as El Paso Bishop Mark J. Seitz wrote in a remarkable pastoral letter on the history of racism, Night Will Be No More. Today would be a good day to dip into this document for insights into the history and persistence of racism, regionwide. May the Black Christ be a symbol of hope!

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 4:1-5, 11; Mark 2:1-12 (309). "They were all astounded and glorified God, saying, 'We have never seen anything like this.'"

Saturday, Jan 16, 2021

OPTIONAL MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Be present to the Presence

The great paradox of God's kingdom is often expressed in the teachings of Jesus: The blind see, the lame walk, the deaf hear, the last are first, the dead live. The first and most profound paradox is that the Virgin conceives. Our Blessed Mother experienced the coming Kingdom in her own body. She shares that experience with us in our communion with the Lord. We carry the Real Presence of the Savior in our own bodies. The ongoing paradox is that the Lord calls us, who are sinners, to be the vessels of his presence in the world. Express that presence today by lifting up the lowly.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 4:12-16; Mark 2:13-17 (310). "I did not come to call the righteous but sinners."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
