

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

February 14, 2021

Traditional Lenten Disciplines

Fasting & Abstinence: Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and all Fridays in Lent. In addition, on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, Catholics age 18 to 59 are to fast, limiting themselves to one full meal and two smaller meals each day.

Prayer: Catholics are encouraged to pray more during Lent, especially with Scripture. Lent is also an ideal time to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation in preparation for the celebration of Christ's Passion, Death, and Resurrection.

Almsgiving: Moved by the sacrifice of Christ, many Christians combine almsgiving with fasting, giving to the poor the money they saved by eating, drinking or buying less as they rely more upon God's abundant grace.

The Season of Lent consists of six Sundays and forty weekdays which are designed to prepare us for the high feast of Easter. Lent begins on Ash Wednesday and ends with the beginning of the Mass of the Lord's Supper in the evening on Holy Thursday.

Holy Week is a term that is still used even with the renewal of the Triduum. It refers to the week beginning with Palm (Passion) Sunday and ending with Holy Saturday. It includes the last days of Lent.

The Triduum, the ancient "Great Three Days," celebrate the heart of our Christian Faith. It begins with the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, continues through Good Friday and Holy Saturday, and culminates in the Easter Vigil. The Solemnity of Easter is celebrated not only on Easter Sunday, but on the next seven days as well.

From the Desk of Father Eugene Theisen*Padre's Pen ~*Be Recollected in the Lord

I pray that as we begin Lent this year that we will all come out the other side in a new resurrection both in the natural and supernatural sense. I hope that pandemics and COVID may start to be a fading memory and that the image of Christ in each one of us may be an ascending reality. While for the former it will probably be time and herd immunity that starts the fading process, for the latter it is God's grace with our cooperation that will bring us into greater conformity to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Our cooperation with God's grace can be hindered by a multitude of distractions. World, national, and local events can agitate us. People, both friends and foes, can impose on us. Desires, passions, fears, and cares can surround us and send our minds off down a million different rabbit trails. This is what is deemed as the battle of prayer.

Our Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us that "Prayer is both a gift of grace and a determined response on our part. It always presupposes effort." Lent is the time where we redouble our efforts and attempt to be more recollected in our life of prayer. It is a season of turning our hearts to our First and Last Love, the Alpha and Omega, to Jesus Christ. With our normal day to day activities, the emergent tasks/needs that always arise, and the interior emotions that assail us, it can be very hard to remain recollected in the presence of Christ.

I suggest that we all start small. Give to our Lord 10 minutes of recollected prayer a day (or whatever brief period you may choose). That means to drop everything and say, "Lord you have these next 10 minutes." Don't think about the mortgage, the bills, or the latest deadline. Don't ask for anything. Don't expect anything. Literally, just waste time for Christ (don't fall asleep either though you would be in good company with Peter, James, and John). Say with Samuel from the Bible, "Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening."

Do this for Lent and see what the Lord will do for you. I recommend that every able adult choose at least one penance from each of the areas of Prayer, Fasting, and Almsgiving and that you can go as high as three in each area in so far as the Spirit leads you. Do not be afraid. I have found over the years that once we get started in Lent with our penances, we find out how easy it can be. God gives us the grace needed to persevere and to do so joyfully.

Saint Alphonsus Liguori

(to pray anytime you are unable to physically participate in Communion)

*My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.*

*Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.*

We want to communicate more effectively with you. But we also want to make it easy for you to control what types of announcements you get from us and how you are notified when we make them. And in order to do this we are using a new, simple service called FLOCKNOTE. Like sending "notes" to your "flock".

This is a great opportunity for you to get plugged in to the many wonderful things we have going on here. If you're having trouble, please talk to one of our helpers in the back. We'd be happy to help! Thank you for participating. This is really going to simplify communication and increase engagement here in our community. We are using Flocknote during Lent because there are great free opportunities for you to experience. Our bulletin email will be coming through Flocknote for now and Bishop Baron's complete library is available for free during Lent. Here is a link to sign up: <https://StWenceslausChurch.flocknote.com/everyone>

Lenten Gospel study

It's not too late to pick up a Lenten Companion book in the back of church or to join a Zoom discussion group. We are excited to once again offer a quality program for the Lenten Journey. Lenten Companion: A Personal Encounter with the Power of the Gospel is available for individual or group use. It combines Scripture, contemplative meditations, sacred art, and inspirational prayer exercises to create a unique retreat experience that will help you experience Lent in a way you never have before. Powerful weekly videos with links complement the book and will lead you deeper into your relationship with Jesus.

Books are available for $5 in the back of church, with an envelope inserted with direction for payment. To join a group, contact Mary Higgins. mary.higgins@npcatholic.org or 952-240-1604.

New Year of News from The Catholic Spirit - for free! Be in-the-know with news from your Catholic community and the Church around the world. Get The Catholic Spirit, the award-winning newspaper of the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis, in your home. Free subscriptions for parishioners are available via each parish. Contact your parish office to be added to the mailing list.

Synod at Home: Tips and Tools for Growing in Faith New sessions February 18 – March 18

The Church is taking time to listen to one another, pray, and discuss in order to determine priorities. These steps are important for every household that wants to thrive. The Synod at Home series takes helpful videos, tips and tools for growing in faith, and pairs them with family-friendly activities based on four pillars: Prayer & Sacraments, Lifelong Learning, Generosity & Service, and Traditions & Fun. Individuals, couples and families will find their faith and relationships strengthened by Synod at Home. Find videos and materials at archspm.org/synod, sign up for emails (archspm.org/synod/updates) or access through the Synod app: text APP to 88202, then in the app search for Archdiocesan Synod.

Ignatian Lent Retreat - Starting February 17, eight-week retreat, via Zoom hosted Saint Thomas More Catholic Community, St. Paul: We invite you to make Lent special by participating in our virtual Ignatian Lent Retreat in Daily Life! We will provide you with daily readings, reflection questions, and teachings from Ignatian spirituality to help you enter fully into the season. In addition to daily personal prayer, you will attend facilitated weekly small group meetings, held virtually on Zoom, to share your prayer experience and ask questions. ## SCHOOL NEWS from SWS

Dear Parishioners, Dear Parents, Grandparents, and Friends of SWS,

Dear Parents, Grandparents, and Friends of SWS, we now turn our attention to enrolling students for next fall 2022, and we need everyone's help to do this. We have held our open house for preschool, are having our kindergarten preview this week, and we will be asking our current families to commit for the next school year by March 1. We also need everyone to pass the word on to others about enrollment.

The best form of marketing is through YOU! If you have had or are having a great experience with our school, share it with others. If you are a friend or a supporter of our school, reach out to families who live near you or your adult children with kids letting them know the benefits of a Catholic school.

SWS has something that no other school in town has. That one particular thing is our focus on God as our faith development is weaved throughout our school day. The One Holy One who gives us life, now and into eternity, is with us as we offer praise with prayer, adoration, practice, and study each day within the walls of our Catholic School.

Here we come 2021-22 school year!

Kim Doyle, Principal
