From the Desk of Father Eugene Theisen*Padre's Pen ~*Sins Against Truth

Jesus proclaims in the Gospel according to John, "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life."

Truth is the fulcrum on which the Way and the Life of every Christian is balanced. In so far as we partake in and proclaim that which is true, we are in some way proclaiming Jesus Christ. When we commit offenses against the truth, we are then committing an offense against Jesus Christ. As we prepare ourselves to better celebrate Easter and the Resurrection of our Lord, we are asked to spend our Lent wisely in disciplines to better conform our life to Christ. We should also spend time in reflection looking at how we separate ourselves from Christ through offenses against Him.

One of the very prevalent offenses we are seeing in social media, media in general, and in our own lives can be described under the rubric of offenses against truth. I offer this short little examination so we can name what our shortcomings may be and thus by naming them to overcome them. The sins against truth are:

False witness – public statements contrary to the truth in a court.

Perjury – False witness under oath.

Rash Judgment – assuming as true, without sufficient foundation, the moral fault of a Neighbor.

Detraction – Disclosing another's faults or failings without an objectively valid reason to someone who did not know those faults or failings.

Calumny – Harming the reputation of another by making false statement about them thereby giving occasion for false judgment concerning them.

While most of us don't really have the opportunity to fall short in the first two above, it can be a great temptation to fall into the other three. It can be particularly easy in the age of social media where false and harmful statements can so easily be spread or where statements can be taken out of context and spread to the detriment of another's reputation.

When it comes to speaking or writing about others, I suggest a three-fold criteria to help in our discernment: 1) Is it verifiably true? 2) Is it charitable? 3) Is it helpful? We can all fail in this area so easily. When we do, we go to confession and make a firm purpose of amendment and ask for God's grace to go and do this no more.

(to pray anytime you are unable to physically participate in Communion)

*My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.*

*Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.*

Parenting Session with Dr. Jules – Peace of Mind

Parenting with Executive Functioning Skills in Mind:

Simple Strategies to Build Skill

Many children procrastinate, lack organization, have emotional outbursts, get “stuck” in their worries, are poor planners, or demonstrate other Executive Functioning difficulties. If your child frequently struggles in these areas, it might be impacting his/her school or social success. During this talk, parents will learn about the role of Executive Functioning in child and adolescent development. They will better understand the areas of Executive Functioning and take away simple, concrete parenting strategies to help their children develop lagging skills. Participants will also gain insight into their own EF skills and how the parent/child interactions can be improved through attention to these areas in ourselves and in others.

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

Doing the rite thing

Today, some of our neighbors are going to make a countercultural choice. They're going to sign the Book of the Elect, signaling their decision to be baptized, confirmed, and to receive First Eucharist at this year's Easter Vigil. These Elect have been studying for months or years to embrace the life of the church. Why would anyone make this choice in the 21st century? For some, it may have begun as intellectual curiosity. For others, it's a journey of the heart. For all, it's what they've seen in folks like us that make Catholic Christianity an inspiring choice. Let's help keep the inspiration going!

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 9:8-15; 1 Peter 3:18-22; Mark 1:12-15 (23). "The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel."

Monday, Feb 22, 2021

FEAST OF THE CHAIR OF PETER, APOSTLE

Recognize the chair

Jesus loved us so much that he entrusted us to someone he trusted deeply. In fact, in the Gospel of John, Jesus asked Peter three times if his devotion was assured. He named him "rock" so he would be a solid foundation upon which to build the church, and for 2,000 years Peter's successors have had the responsibility of tending his sheep. Today we celebrate the seat of the pope's authority as Christ's representative on Earth, the protector Jesus wanted for his flock. Ask the Holy Spirit to always guide the one who sits in Peter's chair.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Peter 5:1-4; Matthew 16:13-19 (535). "I will give you the keys to the Kingdom of heaven."

Tuesday, Feb 23, 2021

MEMORIAL OF POLYCARP, BISHOP, MARTYR

Words to live forever by

Polycarp's death in 155 is one of the first accounts of Christian martyrdom in a public arena. The elderly bishop was resolute and serene even as he was burned and stabbed before a frenzied crowd. Included in the accounts is the two hours of prayer Polycarp began upon his arrest, so powerful it unnerved his Roman guards. But Polycarp was also an Apostolic Father, specifically a disciple of Saint John the Evangelist. Thus, he had firsthand knowledge of John's words from Jesus: "Everyone who lives and believes in me will never die."

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 55:10-11; Matthew 6:7-15 (225). "Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven."

Wednesday, Feb 24, 2021

LENTEN WEEKDAY

A good day to make amends

We are one week into this Lenten season, so perhaps it is time to have a conversation with our Lord. Imagine you are walking with Jesus, side by side, and he asks you, "Is there any person you think of who you have hurt or judged, or any action that comes to mind that you know was wrong? Anything you repent?" You take a moment, and standing next to him, you feel his love for you. Regret and sorrow arise as you admit the mistakes that come to mind. You ask for the grace to make amends in whatever way possible. Find a way today to make something right.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jonah 3:1-10; Luke 11:29-32 (226). "At the preaching of Jonah they repented, and there is something greater than Jonah here."

Thursday, Feb 25, 2021

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Has prayer moved you?

It is tempting to think about prayer in a transactional way: I ask, therefore God gives. Today's gospel may even appear to encourage this form of thought: "Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find." But Catholic teaching urges us to see God's response to prayer broadly. Pope Francis explains: "Prayer always transforms reality: if things around us do not change, at least our hearts are changed. Jesus promised the gift of the Holy Spirit to every man and woman who prays." If you have a prayer that seems unanswered, consider how your heart was moved by the mere act of praying.

TODAY'S READINGS: Esther C:12, 14-16, 23-25; Matthew 7:7-12 (227). "For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds."

Friday, Feb 26, 2021

LENTEN WEEKDAY; DAY OF ABSTINENCE

The low rumble within

Anger is one of our human "passions," the Catechism of the Catholic Church instructs, neither good nor bad in and of itself. Anger can provide us with helpful information that we feel wronged by someone or something. It may be intense or a low rumble within. Lent is an opportunity to become still, listen to our anger, and examine its source. How might we invite God into these rough spaces for healing? Desiring healing does not disregard hurt or suffering; rather we seek to "unhook" from anger to live in peace. Unhooking might mean talking with a loved one who hurt us. It might mean protesting against injustice. It might mean forgiving ourselves. What might be rumbling within your heart?

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 18:21-28; Matthew 5:20-26 (228). "Go first and be reconciled."
