From the Desk of Father Eugene TheisenPadre's Pen ~*Capital Campaign & Condition Reports

Again, I want to say "Thank You" to our whole parish for your support in the Capital Campaign. We did really well - considering the difficult year we have had in our country.

For St. Wenceslaus, if you are following our weekly updates in the bulletin for our parish debt you can see that it is going down at an excellent rate. We are making double payments again and when our fund goes up as people fulfill their pledges, we add an extra payment. This is an added bonus because anything over and above our regular monthly payment is not assessable by the Archdiocese, so we are saving on interest and on annual assessments from the Archdiocese.

Regarding the Churches of St. John and St. Scholastica, we engaged last September with a third-party engineering firm to do what is called a "Condition Report." This is a very thorough review by structural and architectural engineers. We received the final reports a couple of weeks ago along with engineering firm's prioritized list of items requiring attention. In the interest of transparency, I am putting these reports out on our website for parishioners to review. There weren't any real big surprises. These reports (along with the annual safety report from our insurance company, Catholic Mutual) are now the template for a way forward for repairs and regular maintenance.

You will notice in the prioritized list of items in the report that there are no cost estimates. We did remove those estimates because we are now going out for bids on some of the work outlined in the list. We thought it best to not have that information available for possible contractors to see and use in their estimating and bidding. If any parishioner would like to see those estimates, they may come see me at the parish office and I will make that information available.

It is my hope that we can begin work in the coming year for the top 5 priorities for St. John and the top 3 priorities for St. Scholastica. Much depends on the bids and our Capital Savings Accounts when we are ready to begin work. Again, my intent and hope are that we can take care of our maintenance requirements without going into debt. Your generosity in the Capital Campaign is giving us the opportunity to do that.

(to pray anytime you are unable to physically participate in Communion)

*My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.*

*Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.*

Introducing Flocknote:

We want to communicate more effectively with you. But we also want to make it easy for you to control what types of announcements you get from us and how you are notified when we make them. And in order to do this we are using a new, simple service called FLOCKNOTE. Like sending "notes" to your "flock".

We ♥ love
having you as part of our flock

Keep in touch with us via email & text

- Choose to get updates from groups you're interested in
- Unsubscribe anytime, no spam we promise

This is a great opportunity for you to get plugged in to the many wonderful things we have going on here. If you're having trouble, please talk to one of our helpers in the back. We'd be happy to help! Thank you for participating. This is really going to simplify communication and increase engagement here in our community. We are using Flocknote during Lent because there are great free opportunities for you to experience. Our bulletin email will be coming through Flocknote for now and Bishop Baron's complete library is available for free during Lent. Here is a link to sign up: <https://St-WenceslausChurch.flocknote.com/everyone> Questions: contact Pamela at pamela.sherlock@npcatholic.org or call: 952.758.0477

If you are not receiving the bulletin weekly via Flocknote, please call Lisa (952.758.3225) in the parish office to let her know. This email contains the bulletin, other information pertinent to our parish and "fun" things to check out.

This is such a special time in our church year to set aside unnecessary time zappers, ie: social media, tiresome TV, mindless movies. In its place we can fill our hearts, minds, and souls with spiritually uplifting books; podcasts; family faith activities; reading and studying scripture; various new forms of prayer; Father Mike Schmitz, Bible in a Year; Ascension Press Lenten Companion (still a few books available); The Wild Goose is Loose short videos. There is so much good material to fill our minds with ... wouldn't it be a refreshing change?

Complimentary March issues of the Magnificat are available in the back of each church site.

They are offering special 3-month trial subscriptions to Magnificat for just $10 and to MagnifiKid for just $5. These and other great offers are available at www.magnificat.com/ Orders processed in March will begin with the May issue.

Online Retreats for Lent

An online retreat may be a source of growth and peace for you during this time of Lent. They are very easy to do. Here is a link to to our online retreat page: <https://goodgroundpress.com/faith/retreats/>. You can browse through the retreats by clicking on a title. Read a little of the retreat to see if it is the one for you. When you choose a retreat set aside 20-30 minutes in your day. Come back to this email and click through to the retreat you selected. Ask the Holy Spirit to be with you and begin. God is waiting for your attention. If you wish, let us know which retreats have been helpful to you this Lent. You can reply to this email or call Lacy at 800-232-5533. We always like to hear from our customers and friends.

SCHOOL NEWS from SWS

Dear Parishioners, Dear Parents, Grandparents, and Friends of SWS,

When things get hard, think about Jesus carrying the cross for us. There are so many visuals out there showing the suffering Jesus endured, especially now during Lent. This week, I read St. Padre Pio's quote, "The greater the suffering, the closer you are to Jesus". We certainly do not want ourselves and others to suffer, but maybe this quote will help us keep from whining about the little things in life. We want to teach our students this important message too, which is why this Lenten season we will be focusing on The Way of the Cross".

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

Go all in

Erin became a Roman Catholic in midlife. When asked why, she says she tried fiercely to make life work according to her plan. Erin told God many times how it should go, attempting to persuade the powers that be to see it her way. Then one day God replied: My plan for you is so beautiful, wonderful, elegant. Why not try it instead? When Erin celebrated the Rites for Candidates for Full Communion on a Lenten Sunday just like this one, she found the joy she was missing. Pray for this year's candidates—and for candidates for years to come.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18; Romans 8:31b-34; Mark 9:2-10 (26). "If God is for us, who can be against us?"

Monday, Mar 01, 2021

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Mercy me!

Pope Francis called mercy the "beating heart of the gospel." Mercy is forbearance, divine favor, compassionate treatment of the distressed and undeserving. It's another word for God's love. Consider showing devotion to it by reciting the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, a rosary-based prayer that was received by Saint Faustina, a Polish nun in the 1930s, through visions of Jesus. Divine Mercy Sunday is celebrated the week after Easter, but many make the Chaplet part of their regular Lenten practice by reciting it every day at 3 p.m. (the traditional hour of Christ's death). You can find the Chaplet on the USCCB website.

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 9:4b-10; Luke 6:36-38 (230). "Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful."

Tuesday, Mar 02, 2021

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Celebrate humble history

Women's History Month celebrates well-known women but also unsung heroines. How appropriate, then, that today is the feast of Agnes of Bohemia, a lesser-known saint. First cousin of Elizabeth of Hungary—and descendant of Good King Wenceslaus—Agnes came upon her vocation naturally. She built a hospital for the poor, a Franciscan friary, and a monastery for Poor Clare nuns. When she also became a nun and was urged to become abbess, she referred to herself only as "senior sister." She continued to cook for her sisters and mend the clothing of lepers rather than live a royal life. Celebrate the unsung heroines in your life.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 1:10, 16-20; Matthew 23:1-12 (231). "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

Wednesday, Mar 03, 2021

MEMORIAL OF KATHARINE DREXEL, RELIGIOUS FOUNDER

We have work to do

Katharine Drexel (1858-1955) is a saint for our time. Born into a successful Philadelphia banking family, she used her wealth to improve the lives of others. Her Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament devoted their lives to education of Native and African Americans, building more than 100 schools in cities, rural areas, and on reservations. Though Katharine and her sisters at times faced criticism, endured racist taunts, and were threatened by the Ku Klux Klan, they remained steadfast in their mission. Patron saint of racial justice and philanthropy, Saint Katharine epitomizes the sacrifice of the Blessed Sacrament. How will you commit your own life to making the world more just?

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 18:18-20; Matthew 20:17-28 (232).

"Can you drink the chalice that I am going to drink?"

Thursday, Mar 04, 2021

MEMORIAL OF CASIMIR

Grace under pressure

Saint Casimir seemed destined for riches and power, but this patron saint of Poland, called the Peacemaker, took a different path. Born in 1458 to the king and queen of Poland, he was a devout, ascetic child. At age 14 his father had him lead an army to install himself as king of Hungary, but with an overpowering enemy and troops beginning to desert, Casimir instead returned home. His furious father exiled him, but Casimir would never again take up arms. Rejecting violence when those around you embrace it can take great inner strength. Cultivate an inner compass that can pursue peace despite pressure.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 17:5-10; Luke 16:19-31 (233).

"Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, whose hope is the LORD."

Friday, Mar 05, 2021

LENTEN WEEKDAY; DAY OF ABSTINENCE

Pray for besieged people everywhere

Prayer is our life with God. Sometimes we carve out a particular time during the day, and sometimes there are specific words, images, or experiences that help us be more aware of or express our relationship with God. And so of course during Lent prayer is one of the pillars, along with fasting and almsgiving, that help us turn to God. On today's 2021 World Day of Prayer, an ecumenical observance, we are invited to "Build on a strong foundation." This theme comes from the women of Vanuatu, an island hit by Cyclone Harold in 2020. Despite the perils they faced—and we've all faced in a year of pandemic—the message of today's prayer is one of confidence in God's steadfastness and the rock of faith. Unite in prayer for healing and recovery.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 37:3-4, 12-13a, 17b-28a; Matthew 21:33-43, 45-46 (234). "The kingdom of God will be . . . given to a people that will produce its fruit."

Saturday, Mar 06, 2021

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Sibling rivalry of biblical proportions

The Parable of the Prodigal Son could as easily be called the Parable of the Bitter Brother. The story might have ended with the celebration at the return of the repentant prodigal. But instead we are left to ponder the feelings of the "good son," the obedient one who followed all the rules but never got a party thrown in his honor. It's a very human story, reenacted in nearly every family in one form or another. "Mother always liked you best." "You were Dad's favorite." "All we ever did was bail you out of trouble." Will the bitter brother in the gospel story reconcile? Has bitterness or division in your own family been reconciled? Consider being the reconciler who brings it about.

TODAY'S READINGS: Micah 7:14-15, 18-20; Luke 15:1-3, 11-32 (235). "Look, all these years I served you and not once did I disobey your orders; yet you never gave me even a young goat to feast on with my friends."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
