From the Desk of Father Eugene Theisen*Padre's Pen ~*Pentecost: Come Holy Spirit

In Jesus' Resurrection appearance to Mary Magdalene, He says to her, "Do not hold me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father..." The Holy Spirit is the promised gift of the Father and so Christ exhorts his followers (beginning with Mary Magdalene) relinquish clinging to that which is in this world. We are to focus on the power promised from on high through the Holy Spirit.

So, the Feast of Pentecost can be described as a feast of surrender to the Divine Will. It is giving permission to the Holy Spirit to have his way with us in every aspect of our lives; physically, emotionally, intellectually, spiritually. It is relinquishing the attachments of this world in favor of our attachment to the heavenly reality.

Pentecost is a good day to reflect and ask ourselves, "What are the wicked and unvirtuous things to which I cling?" Then we can renounce them and give them to the power of God through the gift of the Holy Spirit promised to us. Also, our reflection should include and ask, "What are the good things of this world to which I cling?" We also must renounce our attachments to the good things of this world. Certainly, Mary Magdalene's desire to grasp hold of the Resurrected Christ is understandable, but Christ Himself promises something better to come after the Incarnation. Why cling to what is good when the better is available to us? (please note: Christ Himself is the greatest of all goods along with the Father and the Holy Spirit. When He speaks of something better to come, it is something better in relation to humanity and how our salvation will be worked out through history with the Holy Spirit dwelling with and in us).

It is eternally better for us to hold lightly to the things of this world and cling to the heavenly reality of God's power in us through the Holy Spirit. If the things of this world are dead to us then the power, light, and grace of God can burn brightly in us and we will be fully alive in Christ Jesus! So, we can confidently pray, "Come, Holy Spirit, and have your way with me so that the way to Heaven can be opened to me for all eternity!"

Saint Alphonsus Liguori

(to pray anytime you are unable to physically participate in Communion)

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

God Bless the Newly Baptized

Welcome and congratulations to Madison Elizabeth Lambrecht, daughter of Anthony & Amanda Lambrecht. We rejoice with your family on this joyful occasion!

Extended Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament!

We would like to extend the hours of Adoration and are in need of people to cover the 6:00 to 7:00 pm and 7:00 to 8:00 pm hours. We will have two people scheduled for each time slot. Adoration takes place in the main church every Friday. Once we fill these hours, Adoration will extend to 9:00 pm ending with Benediction. This is a wonderful way to spend quiet time in prayer in front of the Blessed Sacrament. Please contact Ann Soderlund at 612-669-4014 or at annsoderlund@hotmail.com if you are interested. Thank you!

Is your heart open to bringing the Eucharist to our senior buildings' residents? We have returned to distributing Holy Communion to our community in senior housing. If you would love to give this most precious gift to those who have waited so long in isolation, please contact MaryCarol Wolf at 952-758-0463 or email MaryCarol.Wolf@npcatholic.org for more information.

An Invitation from the Green Team - 2021

We have many beautiful rain gardens, perennial gardens, annual gardens, and planters that beautify our campus buildings and parking lots. Help is needed from students, adults, and families to keep our plantings healthy and looking good all summer. Some gardens have been adopted for the summer: planters in front of the church – Joe and Carol Sticha family, the garden on the west side of the church – Sandy Eaton, lily garden – Anita Sirek, rose garden – Monica Kokes, flowerpots – JoAnn Zaun, walkway gardens – Wendy Fadden

We do need weekly helpers for the Mary Garden and other gardens around the school. Please select a week or more to help with watering and some deadheading:

1. the gardens around the school
2. the Mary Garden

SOLEMNITY OF PENTECOST

Sing a new church into being

Pentecost celebrates crowded places, multiple languages, and diverse people uniting in one Spirit. It's a hard feast to celebrate during a pandemic in an era clouded by social conflict. All the more reason to challenge ourselves by celebrating not only what makes us the same, but also what makes us different. God showers on the world "gifts that differ," as Benedictine hymnist Delores Dufner declares. So "Bring the hopes of every nation;/ bring the art of every race. /Weave a song of peace and justice;/ let it sound through time and space." And let the church say: Amen!

TODAY'S READINGS: Day: Acts 2:1-11; Galatians 5:16-25 or 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13; Sequence Veni Sancte Spiritus; John 20:19-23 (63). "There are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone."

MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, MOTHER OF THE CHURCH

The mother of all feasts

In 2018, Pope Francis created the new Marian memorial that the universal church celebrates today, the Monday after Pentecost. The title "Mother of the Church" was bestowed on Mary in 1964 by Pope Saint Paul VI at the closing of the Second Vatican Council. Her role as mother of the church goes back to when Jesus, on the cross, gave her and the beloved disciple to one another and to when she became the mother of Christ, whose body we are all members of. Not everyone has a mother figure to rely on—know that you can always rely on the mother of us all.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 3:9-15, 20 or Acts 1:12-14; John 19:25-34 (572A). "When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple there whom he loved, he said to his mother, 'Woman, behold, your son.'"

Tuesday, May 25, 2021

MEMORIAL OF MARY MAGDALENE DE' PAZZI, VIRGIN

A Spirit for the dry season

When Mary Magdalene de' Pazzi became a Carmelite nun in 1583, she couldn't foresee the great physical suffering from an unknown disease that would besiege her. Nor could she foresee having the same type of ecstatic religious visions—followed by years of "spiritual dryness"—as did another Carmelite saint, Teresa of Ávila. Magdalene's bout of spiritual dryness, so severe that she considered suicide, ended on Pentecost in 1590. With Pentecost 2021 so recently behind us, pray as she did: "Come, Holy Spirit . . . Come, as you descended on Mary, that the Word might become flesh and work in us through grace."

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 35:1-12; Mark 10:28-31 (348). "Give to the Most High as he has given to you, generously."

Wednesday, May 26, 2021

MEMORIAL OF PHILIP NERI, PRIEST

Now is the time to do good

In the middle of Rome in the 16th century lived a man whose joyful nature made him something of a people magnet for both the powerful and the poor. Saint Philip Neri was a deeply spiritual man who exuded natural warmth, listened well, and in loving generosity, led others to know God. This spiritual director, priest, and confessor was known to ask, "Well, when shall we begin to do good?" It is no surprise that Neri, known as the "Apostle of Rome," inspired followers to join him in caring for the sick and the poor. Where can you do some good today?

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 36:1, 4-5a, 10-17; Mark 10:32-45 (349). "For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve."

Thursday, May 27, 2021

MEMORIAL OF AUGUSTINE OF CANTERBURY, BISHOP

Can't win them all

Augustine of Canterbury, memorialized today, is remembered as a major figure in evangelizing England. The renowned Canterbury Cathedral was built on the site of a church and monastery he built around the end of the sixth century. In spite of his stature now as "Apostle of the English," he met with bitter disappointment, too. His efforts to bring the English bishops in line with Rome were roundly rebuffed, a disappointment he took to his death. Can you let go of your failures, knowing that, like Augustine, they do not define your life?

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 42:15-25, Mark 10:46-52 (350). "He began to cry out and say, 'Jesus, son of David, have pity on me.'"

Friday, May 28, 2021*Give a fig!

Figs are a popular fruit in the Bible, from Genesis with Eve and Adam wearing fig leaves clear through the Book of Revelation's apocalyptic falling of winter figs. Why so many figs? The fig itself is sweet and has lots of dietary fiber, calcium, and various minerals and vitamins. It is a great source of energy and flavor. Perhaps because it is so plentiful, delicious, and nutritious, the fig is also rich in symbolism for health and abundance. In the gospels, Jesus expects us to be like figs—to be "nutritious" to others and abundant in our presence and giving. Let us go forth to nurture the world!

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 44:1, 9-13; Mark 11:11-26 (351). "As they were leaving Bethany Jesus was hungry. Seeing from a distance a fig tree in leaf, he went over to see if he could find anything on it."

Saturday, May 29, 2021

MEMORIAL OF PAUL VI, POPE

A Pentecostal pope

The ecumenical movement received a much-needed boost during the papacy of Saint Pope Paul VI (1963-78). After the Second Vatican Council in the mid-1960s, Pope Paul went out of his way to promote ecumenical dialogue and partnership. When asked by a cardinal for permission to initiate a joint Catholic-Protestant translation of the Bible, Paul is said to have responded, "I am totally in favor!" He issued formal approval later that year on Pentecost Sunday, our recently celebrated feast commemorating the moment when the Holy Spirit allowed believers of all backgrounds and languages to truly understand each other. Come, Holy Spirit!

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 51:12cd-20; Mark 11:27-33 (352). "By what authority are you doing these things?"

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
