From the Desk of Father Eugene Theisen*Padre's Pen ~*Spiritual Maintenance

A few years ago, I was driving through the Dallas/Fort Worth area and got caught in a huge traffic jam due to all the construction on I-35. In a complete stop, I looked up at a billboard that read something like this, "You may hate I-35 now, but you will love it some day!"

We have been inconvenienced with the Main Street construction. Our own parking lot was resurfaced and repainted. We have construction going on at St. John and St. Scholastica. There always seems to be something that inconveniences us as we go about our daily lives in both our religious and secular lives. Here is the good news... it means our community and church are alive and building for the future!

Some day we are going to love Main Street (hopefully in time for Dozinky Day). Our parking lot should be in great shape for another five years. Our Churches to the west will be waterproofed and secure. We will have new boilers at St. Wenceslaus and St. Scholastica to keep us warm in the winter. The maintenance of our facilities and building up of our outward structures are but a metaphor for what should be happening in our inward/supernatural structures.

Our life of faith needs maintenance. Christ is the rock foundation of our faith, but we hold this treasure of faith in earthen vessels. The Sacrament of Reconciliation repairs the broken and deteriorating spiritual structures when we sin. The life of prayer and participation in the Sacred Liturgy strengthens and maintains those structures. The life of Christian virtue in the world promotes the spread of the Gospel, the spread of the Kingdom, and the salvation of souls.

Yes, it can be inconvenient to live the life of faith, but it does keep us spiritually healthy and makes the road to heaven smoother than our Main Street or new tuck-pointed brick churches will ever be.

Fr. Theisen

Saint Alphonsus Liguori

(to pray anytime you are unable to physically participate in Communion)

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,

come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

God Bless the Newly Baptized

Bl, Karl's Corner

Bl. Karl was eight years old when Mother Vincentia, an Ursuline visionary and mystic, urged, "That the young Archduke should be enveloped in prayers because he would be Emperor, have to suffer greatly, and be a target of Hell." This was a surprising statement, as the youthful Archduke was far down the line from the crown. Still, a number of nobles formed a prayer group for Karl.

1916 saw 29-year-old Karl Hapsburg become emperor of Austria, Hungary, and Bohemia. Being it was wartime, only Hungary gave an official coronation, crowning him with St. Stephen's crown. Bohemia planned to crown him with St. Wenceslaus's crown after the war. Sadly, there was no 'after the war', as the prophetic warnings of Mother Vincentia revealed themselves...

Join us Wednesdays at 5:30 p.m. for our Bl. Karl Mass at St. John's. Latin rosary begins at 5:00 p.m.. Latin materials are provided. For more information, email: bl.Karl.UnionHill@gmail.com or visit www.emperorcharles.org

Returning to Mass: July 1 Marked the End of Dispensation in Minnesota. The COVID-19 pandemic has been a painful time of separation that necessitated the dispensation from the Sunday obligation to attend Mass. Now, as the pandemic subsides, and public gathering restrictions and safety protocols are lifted, it is time to gather as the Body of Christ once again. Therefore, the bishops and diocesan administrators of the Minnesota Catholic Conference have decided to reinstate the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation beginning the weekend of July 3-4, 2021. Learn more at backtomassmn.org.

FAITH FORMATION AND YOUTH MINISTRY

We are so excited! Our Archdiocese listened to what you and 35,000 other Catholics stated as important issues for our Archdiocese moving forward. From the listening sessions, three focus areas were determined to be addressed this fall. We will be offering six sessions on Thursday afternoons from 3-5 pm and evening sessions from 6:30-8:30 pm to address these issues. We will learn, we will discuss, and we will be heard. Be a part of making our Archdiocese a great and vibrant place to be! Invite other Catholics to join in too!

SCHOOL NEWS from SWS

Dear Parishioners, Dear Parents, Grandparents, Friends of SWS,

Things are hopping around SWS this summer. It is so nice to be in operation with “back to normal” standards. It almost feels odd to have a visitor and I reach for my mask and it no longer drapes my neck waiting to be pulled up again so I can speak to the person in front of me.

I have faith that this is how we will open in fall – normal with a few tweaks of the good things we learned along the way in 20-21!

We have our preschool open for the first time running a summer preschool program. It is full and our staff is providing an amazing program for these little kids. Our Club House is also moving full blast with so many fun adventures and fun times for the students who attend. Our maintenance staff is working full speed ahead getting everything all shiny again. Mrs. Hartman and Mrs. May are working behind the scenes to get all details for a new year set and to make sure our technology is in the best condition for a great school year. Ms. McNamara (retired teacher) has also been sneaking into the STEM lab to replenish supplies. Need-less-to-say, our place is active and busy this summer.

Reading below, you will see that we are getting ready for fall 2021. There are a few items of interest for all, including the new staff members who will join us. For incoming families, there are some links to follow!

Summer is a time to take a break from school, but I also want to keep you in the loop!

Take care and enjoy the sun!

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Get Jesus right and get right with Jesus

With so many Christian "brands" out there—Catholic and Protestant, evangelical and contemplative, high church or pop church—it's easy to wonder who's got Jesus right. Interpreting his significance is key to the church's mission. Still, Jesus' identity has been debated since his own generation. Mark's gospel, the earliest written, betrays a perceived shadow on Jesus' paternity: He's identified as Mary's son rather than the son of Joseph, as would have been customary. Later gospels replace what was seen at the time as a less-than-honorable reference by calling Jesus the "carpenter's son." The question remains: Is Jesus more than a human sage? Is he Lord of your life?

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 2:2-5; 2 Corinthians 12:7-10; Mark 6:1-6a (101). "Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon?"

MEMORIAL OF ELIZABETH OF PORTUGAL

Seek the common ground of reconciliation

The world is rife with conflict. Many friends, family, coworkers, and neighbors are at odds over politics, racial strife, and pandemic behavior and vaccines. After all this, it can be hard to ever feel the same way about certain people in our lives. But we're called to be peacemakers nonetheless—and that starts with our personal relationships. Saint Elizabeth of Portugal brokered peace in her family to stop civil war. We've never needed her brand of reconciliation more.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 28:10-22a; Matthew 9:18-26 (383). "Courage, daughter! Your faith has saved you."

Tuesday, Jul 06, 2021

MEMORIAL OF MARIA GORETTI, VIRGIN, MARTYR

A mission of mercy

Pope Francis proclaimed an extraordinary Year of Mercy in 2015, but it was one of the Catholic Church's youngest saints—11-year-old Maria Goretti—who took the message abroad. The Pilgrimage of Mercy, featuring Maria's major relics, traveled across the United States that year, attracting multitudes to veneration, prayer, and the sacrament of Reconciliation. Canonized a modern-day "virgin martyr," dying at the hands of a would-be rapist in 1902, this humble Italian girl became "The Little Saint of Great Mercy" for forgiving her murderer upon her deathbed. Who do you need to forgive? Let Maria's example be a reminder of what is possible.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 32:23-33; Matthew 9:32-38 (384). "His heart was moved with pity for them."

Wednesday, Jul 07, 2021*Harden not your heart

In 2018, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) issued a pastoral letter against racism: Open Wide Our Hearts: The Enduring Call to Love. In that letter, the bishops remind us that as a nation "we have never sufficiently contended with the impact of racism." In a week when the United States honors the founding principles of this country and that all are created equal, people of faith are called to examine their own perceptions and practices and do their part to ensure equality for all people. Embrace the bishops' invitation to fight the evil of racism and take time this week to read and reflect on their letter:

Open Wide Our Hearts: The Enduring Call to Love.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 41:55-57; 42:5-7a, 17-24a; Matthew 10:1-7 (385). "As you go, make this proclamation: 'The Kingdom of heaven is at hand.'"

Thursday, Jul 08, 2021*Sometimes the miracle is endurance

The gospel for today refers to the amazing powers Jesus conferred upon his followers to cure and revive. But we know many people in Jesus' day and today do not experience a miracle cure but instead must bear a cross. Our faith gives us the wisdom to know how and when to bear suffering when a solution is absent and when to struggle against injustice; both can be paths to God. Indeed, miracles themselves, the church teaches, are not merely wondrous events; they are meant to transform us and bring us closer to God. Which way are you being called right now? To struggle against suffering and injustice? Or to bow to a cross in your life? Over a lifetime, we may be called to both paths.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 44:18-21, 23b-29; 45:1-5; Matthew 10:7-15 (386). "Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, drive out demons."

Friday, Jul 09, 2021*Hang in there

Each of us will be put to the test when it comes to our faith. How we react to tragedy, scorn, injustice, boredom, betrayal, illness, and loss will present moments of truth for us. Will our faith endure? Saint Paul tells the Romans that "tribulation brings about perseverance; and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope." Paul knew a thing or two about perseverance. His lengthy missionizing sea journeys covered something on the magnitude of 10,000 miles and many months on often rough seas. When you feel tested, turn to Paul for inspiration. Stay the course!

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 46:1-7, 28-30; Matthew 10:16-23 (387). "Whoever endures to the end will be saved."

Saturday, Jul 10, 2021

OPTIONAL MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Ever Virgin, ever esteemed

It is ironic but true that the Blessed Virgin Mary is mentioned more times in Islam's Qur'an than in the Christian New Testament. Parts of two chapters of the Qur'an are devoted to Mary. Much like in the gospel of Luke, one chapter tells the story of the events leading up to the birth of Jesus. The other speculates about Mary's family, her parents and siblings, making linguistic parallels to the family of Moses. As in Catholic tradition, Islam considers the Mother of Jesus the greatest of all women of faith. The spiritual influence of the Virgin Mary transcends even religious differences.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 49:29-32; 50:15-26a; Matthew 10:24-33 (388). "Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, nor secret that will not be known."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
