From the Desk of Father Eugene TheisenPadre's Pen ~ A Look at Life from the Deer Stand Continued...

My brother and I purchased our deer hunting property in 2014 when I was still serving in the military. We had a farmer who rented the land and put in corn and soybeans on the tillable land. There were plenty of deer on the property; even with the terrible crops the land yielded. After a couple of years, we no longer rented the land, and it went fallow. We went into a major slump on bagging a deer.

After my retirement in 2018, we began in earnest transforming the environment on the tillable land. We have planted trees in some areas. This year we started a natural prairie grass area with Big Bluestem, Indian Grass, and Switchgrass. We have diversified our food plots. This year alone we have mixtures of corn, buckwheat, soybeans, sunflowers, sorghum, millet, beets, radishes, peas, winter wheat, and several other food sources. The result these last couple years... deer are always on the property, we have turkeys, pheasants, we have captured bobcats, coyotes, wolves, and bears on our cameras. I even saw an eastern hog-nosed snake this year and a timberdoodle (woodcock). It has taken time, effort, and money to see these positive results.

I suppose it's not unlike the life of faith. If we leave the acreage of our spiritual life go fallow, it may produce weeds, but it doesn't necessarily give us the outcome we look for. It takes time, effort, and money to keep the spiritual life alive and vibrant. Certainly, while our land up north lay fallow and we showed up for our annual hunt, we saw deer, but they were passing through quickly to get to more productive lands. So too, if all we are doing is just showing up, we will encounter Christ as he passes through. Jesus Christ is looking for the good soil and the productive spiritual lands to yield a bountiful harvest.

Our call is to work our spiritual acreage. We need to pick the rocks of sin. We need to pull the weeds of materialism. We need to plant the seed of God's Word. We need to fertilize the life of faith with the Sacraments. Doing so will yield a beautiful relationship with Christ and His Church and bring a bountiful harvest of eternal life!

And maybe, just maybe, I'll finally harvest the monster buck of my life. 😊

Fr. Theisen

Saint Alphonsus Liguori

(to pray anytime you are unable to physically participate in Communion)

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen

If the cost of the program is a burden, please let us know. The current session began Monday, September 13, 6:00-7:00 pm. Hybrid Zoom meeting available. For more information or to register call MaryCarol at St. Wenceslaus Church 952-758-3225 or email MaryCarol.Wolf@npcatholic.org

Serving Meals at the new SPOC: The Dorothy Day Center has been renamed and is now called St. Paul Opportunity Center (SPOC). Meals have continued to be prepared and served by volunteers from the New Prague area every second Saturday of the month. We now have been taking desserts to serve with our evening meal. If you would like to become a dessert provider or a volunteer who would help prepare and serve the meal in St. Paul, please give me a call, Norb Sticha 758.3888, and see if this is something you may want to experience. Thank You.

The 10:30 Mass at St. Wenceslaus on October 31, 2021, is the memorial Mass for the late Bishop Petre Esterka. The Bishop was at St. Wenceslaus three years ago to help celebrate Czech heritage anniversaries. He said the Mass in Czech. While his home diocese was Brno, Czech Republic, his territory included the entire United States. People attending the Mass are asked to dress in traditional Czech koje and vests in his honor. The Czech Heritage Club will be serving coffee, juice, and kolacky in the church basement after both Masses that Sunday.

All Souls Rosary: at home edition ~ Due to continuing concerns about COVID-19, there will be no in-person rosary at the cemetery chapel on November 2. Instead, we ask that you please pray your rosary at home. We wish we could gather as usual, but the size of the chapel does not allow for proper social distancing.

Annual St. Wenceslaus Handmade Market

Join us to shop the goods made by local artists, makers and craftsmen at St. Wenceslaus Parish Activities Center on Saturday, October 30, from 9:00 am-2:00 pm. This is an opportunity to get some Christmas gifts checked off your list. There will be a bistro onsite serving breakfast and lunch.

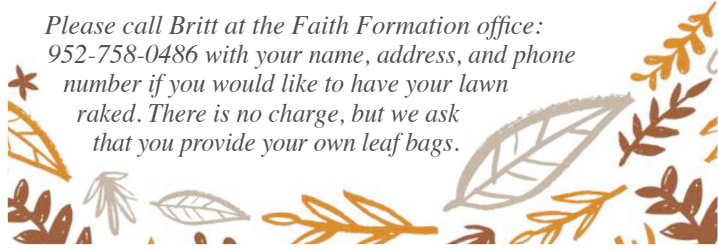

Due to the Royal Couple's stellar marriage, Pope St. John Paul II placed Bl. Karl's feast day on his wedding anniversary. The couple married 110 years ago on October 21, 1911. In honor of this feast day, we will have a little 'royal' treat at this week's Bl. Karl Mass.

Join us Wednesdays at 5:30 p.m. for our Bl. Karl Mass at St. John's. Latin rosary begins at 5:00p.m. .. Latin materials are provided. For more information email: bl.Karl.UnionHill@gmail.com or visit www.emperorcharles.org

SCHOOL NEWS from SWS

Dear Parishioners, Parents, Grandparents, Friends of SWS,

Our school offers a super craft show each year called the Handmade Market. There are more than 60 vendors with their handmade crafts. We ask you to spread the word about this event. The more attendees, the better each vendor does, and this will keep the craft show a positive event from year to year! SWS makes a profit for having a full slate of vendors — and yes, we did fill up this year with all 60 spots taken with handmade items.

Saturday, October 30th – 9:00 AM to 2:00 PM

This takes place in our gym (Parish Activities Center). We will have breakfast treats and coffee for those coming early and a lunch packet for those who come later or shop all day – all food for sale and prepared in our kitchen. Masking is optional. Crowds are usually heavy at the beginning but get much lighter as the day goes on; so if you are trying to avoid too many people, we suggest that you come late morning or around noon.

Gather your family, bring your spouse, or make it a girls' morning out! It is so much fun!

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Come face-to-face with Jesus

Spiritual truths often sound mysterious and paradoxical. God is a Trinity; Jesus is human and divine; the last will be first. But not everything in the life of faith is a mystery. Take poverty. It's where Jesus said we'd always see him face to face. Poverty's roots are well understood: malnutrition, limited healthcare, unsafe housing, dangerous work conditions, unequal access to justice, and no political voice. In founding today's Poverty Eradication Day, French priest Joseph Wresinski dared us to rewrite these terms of modern civilization. Pray the Rosary's Sorrowful Mysteries and commit to undercutting poverty's roots.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 53:10-11; Hebrews 4:14-16; Mark 10:35-45 (146). "Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant."

FEAST OF LUKE, EVANGELIST

First in line for Marian devotion

As the author of the Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles, Luke the Evangelist penned over a quarter of the New Testament—more than anyone else. The Virgin Mary has a special place in his gospel—it is only here that we find the story of the Annunciation, her visit to Elizabeth, the Presentation of the infant Jesus in the temple, and the finding of the child Jesus preaching in the temple. In art, Luke is sometimes depicted painting images of Mary (and he is the patron saint of painters). Revisit the richness of what we know about Mary thanks to Luke by giving his gospel another good read.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Timothy 4:10-17b; Luke 10:1-9 (661). "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest."

MEMORIAL OF JOHN DE BRÉBEUF AND ISAAC JOGUES, PRIESTS, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

Learn the language of God's love

In 1642, Jesuit missionary John de Brébeuf penned "The Huron Carol." Drawing from the experience of indigenous Americans, it lauds a babe born into modest means—wrapped in a "ragged robe of rabbit skin." Instead of shepherds and Magi, Native American hunters and chiefs arrive to pay homage to "Jesus, your King." While the famous Canadian carol comes under some cultural scrutiny in modern times, it also gets credit for preserving the Huron/Wendat language it was written in. Mostly, it reminds us to speak other people's languages—figuratively, if not literally—when sharing the Good News.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 5:12, 15b, 17-19, 20b-21; Luke 12:35-38 (474). "Where sin increased, grace overflowed all the more."

MEMORIAL OF PAUL OF THE CROSS, PRIEST

Need some passion in your life?

"Passion" is a fiery word with various meanings, from an intense love relationship to an activity that we give our all to. Christians also have a unique understanding of "passion" as the suffering and death of Jesus. Saint Paul of the Cross was so fired up by this that he founded a religious community dedicated to the Passion of Jesus. But wait a minute, how did we get from intense love to suffering? Paul makes the connection for us—the Passion is about Jesus' great love, a love so great that he was willing to suffer and die for us. Take a moment to reflect anew what you live—or would die—passionately for.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 6:12-18; Luke 12:39-48 (475). "But thanks be to God that . . . you have become obedient from the heart."

Thursday, Oct 21, 2021God at work

Summer vacations are now a faded memory as workplaces and schools operate at full swing. The Catholic Church has a rich tradition of seeing work as more than a necessity and duty. Through work we transform nature—a creative act, just as God's ongoing creation of the world is a creative act. A job that contributes to well-being can also be a path toward personal fulfillment. Whatever your work involves today, offer it up to God and take note of how God is able to work through you.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 6:19-23; Luke 12:49-53 (476). "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing!"

MEMORIAL OF JOHN PAUL II, POPE

Reasonable faith

In this era of "alternative facts," it is challenging to find the truth. Saint John Paul II gave us good counsel on seeking truth. In the encyclical letter Fides et Ratio ("Faith and Reason") he wrote, ". . . believers do not surrender. They can continue on their way to the truth because they are certain that God has created them 'explorers,' whose mission it is to leave no stone unturned, though the temptation to doubt is always there. Leaning on God, they continue to reach out, always and everywhere, for all that is beautiful, good and true." How might you be an "explorer" in situations where truth is difficult to find?

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 7:18-25a; Luke 12:54-59 (477). "Why do you not judge for yourselves what is right?"

Saturday, Oct 23, 2021

MEMORIAL OF JOHN OF CAPISTRANO, PRIEST

You get as good as you give

Jesus, his disciples, and the early evangelists were all clear about one thing: "the wages of sin is death." Beyond physical death, the selfishness of sin cuts off our relationship with God and the opportunity for true peace and joy. Paying attention to the needs of others as well as yourself keeps us alive in Christ. Study after study shows that happiness comes from social connectedness and a spirit of generosity. Franciscan Saint John Capistrano says of the faithful: "The brightness of their wisdom must make them like the light of the world that brings light to others." Ponder the ways that you can acquire wisdom to share with others.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 8:1-11; Luke 13:1-9 (478). "The concern of the flesh is death, but the concern of the spirit is life and peace."
