From the Desk of Father Eugene Theisen*Padre's Pen ~ A Look at Life from the Deer Stand Part III...

Alas, no deer for the archery season, though the time up north was fun, warm, and relaxing. Now my brother and I step back for a couple of weeks before the firearms season. We don't mess with our stands, trails, or trail cameras (though we will go up briefly to load up the tractor and bring it home for winter storage). We expect that our food plots will draw more animals as the area farmers clear their fields. We also hope that a bit of time away will allow the deer to be very comfortable wandering our property so opening weekend can be successful.

Our Lord took breaks as well. We see him going off to pray on his own. We see him taking his disciples away as well to rest and pray. Then they get right back at the mission. While we never take a break from our life of faith in the Church. It is a good thing to take a break to increase that faith so we can bear greater fruit for the Kingdom. A good example of this is found in Canon Law for the life of priests. We are supposed to take annually "Canonical Retreat" where we focus on prayer, learning, and rest from the daily requirements of parish life. It is an on-going imitation of Christ and his routine of ministry and rest found in the Sacred Scriptures.

We so often take our annual vacations to rest from the routine of daily life, but often look forward to getting back to work so we can rest from the busy time we had on vacation. That is not the Christian retreat/rest that we need to grow in faith. Consider a retreat where the focus is prayer, Christ, learning about our faith and see if it bears fruit for a renewal from the Holy Spirit. It works for me and for many of our priests and people who do it.

I'll let you know in a couple of weeks if it works from the deer stand's perspective

On another note, we sadly say "Good-bye" to Lisa Leverson from our front desk in the office. She and her husband are moving out of state, and we will miss her very much. As we bring Lynn Sticha on board in the front office, we are changing the Main Office hours. The front office hours will now be 8:30 am to 3:00 pm Monday through Friday.

Saint Alphonsus Liguori

(to pray anytime you are unable to physically participate in Communion)

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen

Prayer of Remembrance Service. It is at this time of year when nature begins to enter its winter sleep that we are reminded of our loved ones who have died. On November 7, at 2:00 pm, in St. Wenceslaus Church, we will be remembering in prayer all those from our community who have died since last year's All Souls Day. We invite all who grieve the death of a loved one to pray with us that afternoon. Hospitality in the church basement will follow our prayer.

Bl. Karl's Corner

Princess Zita was the 17th of 23 children born to Robert, Duke of Parma. She was the fifth child of his second wife, Princess Maria Antonia of Braganza. His first wife, Princess Maria-Pia, had died after a happy marriage that welcomed 12 children, 9 of whom lived past infancy. Duke Robert married again and the couple welcomed an additional 11 children.

Unlike Bl. Karl's home life, Zita's parents were happily married and as a result, they had a happy household. The family split their time living in Italy and Austria. When the family was in Austria, Karl often enjoyed visiting the family and partaking in numerous activities with Zita's older brothers, Sixtus and Xavier.

Join us Wednesdays at 5:30 p.m. for our Bl. Karl Mass at St. John's. Latin rosary begins at 5:00 p.m.. Latin materials are provided. For more information email: bl.Karl.UnionHill@gmail.com or visit www.emperorcharles.org Bl. Karl of Austria, Pray for us!

SCHOOL NEWS from SWS

Dear Parishioners, Parents, Grandparents, Friends of SWS,

We are now seeking help from everyone in our school community. Spread the word about SWS for enrollment in the future. We are starting to think about how things look next fall, school year 2022-2023! Yup, we are thinking ahead! We have had a nice increase in our enrollment in the last two years. We treasure all of our solid returning families who have built the school to what it is and all of our new families. We welcome families who are faith-filled people involved in both the Catholic Church of St. Wenceslaus, other Catholic churches in the area and numerous Christian-based church communities. This year we have approximately 75% Catholic, 15% belonging to another faith congregation, and 10% uncommitted to a certain parish. There is a wonderful energy in the school with the mix of returning and new parents and all their children. Our staff is excellent with a great mix of experienced and new teachers. We hope to keep this momentum going into the future. Share your experience of SWS with friends, neighbors, and family. And if there is anything that SWS can do to help make your experience better, please reach out to us.

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Now and at the hour of our death

All Hallows' Evening (contracted to Hallowe'en) begins the liturgical period of All Hallowtide, when saints, martyrs, and the departed in general are kept in special memory. Hallowed means consecrated, as the souls of the dead are in God's hands. All of the holy and troubled souls who have gone before us—represented by trick-or-treaters dressed as superheroes or vampires among others—are worthy of our mindful recollection and prayers.

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 6:2-6; Hebrews 7:23-28; Mark 12:28b-34 (152). "Hear, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD alone!"

Monday, Nov 01, 2021

SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

Keep on marching

There are more than 10,000 saints venerated by the Catholic Church. (The exact number is a little unclear since some early saints may be more legendary than historical.) A lot of them are fairly new—Pope John Paul II (himself a saint) canonized more saints than all the popes in the previous 500 years combined. What does it mean to be a saint? A saint is anyone in heaven, whether canonized or not, and could include your own late family and friends. It doesn't mean they were perfect in life, but that they kept trying to live a holy life. Saints form the "great cloud of witnesses" and they're all cheering for you as you strive to be a saint, too.

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14; 1 John 3:1-3; Matthew 5:1-12a (667). "Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven."

Tuesday, Nov 02, 2021

COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED (ALL SOULS' DAY)

Knock, knock, knockin' on heaven's door

From the earliest days of Christianity—as believers shared Eucharist in the catacombs, alongside the dead—we Catholics have woven prayers for our dearly departed into many observances: every celebration of the Mass, praying the Rosary, annual parish-wide remembrances of the dead throughout November—even incorporating elements of Día de los Muertos from Latino tradition. We pray so that all souls who've been detoured through purgatory might, with our prayerful help, enjoy triumphant entry into heaven. As you remember your own dearly departed today, celebrate in Día de los Muertos style: Pray with their photos, visit their graves, enjoy their favorite foods.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 3:1-9; Romans 5:5-11 or Romans 6:3-9; John 6:37-40 (668). "Everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life."

MEMORIAL OF MARTIN DE PORRES, RELIGIOUS

United in our diversity

Born in colonial Peru in 1579 to a mix of Spanish, African, and indigenous ancestors, Martin de Porres was barred from full membership in a religious order in his racially stratified society. Martin was not deterred, however, and his gifts as a healer and spiritual leader elevated him to a position of great renown and respect within the Dominican order and Peruvian society. Today, there is a 61 percent chance that two people selected at random in the United States will be of different racial or ethnic backgrounds, according to the 2020 Census. As patron saint of race relations and those of diverse racial and ethnic backgrounds, Martin offers inspiration to all of us to work for social justice in our increasingly diverse nation.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 13:8-10; Luke 14:25-33 (487).

"Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple."

Thursday, Nov 04, 2021

MEMORIAL OF CHARLES BORROMEO, BISHOP

Times that try our souls

It's a tricky business to take stock of the "signs of the times," as Vatican II urged us to do. One person who was good at assessing the strengths and flaws of his culture was Saint Charles Borromeo (1538-84), a reformer who used his education and power as bishop to heal and repair the church. Pray that the Holy Spirit give us wisdom to perceive how God is present today, and to help bring about that presence where it seems to be lacking.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 14:7-12; Luke 15:1-10 (488). "There will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people."

Friday, Nov 05, 2021*What would Jesus not do?

It's easy to understand why evangelism is so compelling. We can't wait to share the awesome news of finding our heart's treasure in Jesus the Christ and the Catholic faith. But we must also take great care in evangelism so that we do not end up "colonizing" others, that is, assuming there is nothing good or godly in another person or group and imposing our own "enlightened" ways upon them. Jesus certainly does not do this. Instead, he shows by his own life the love of God and he looks where God already is in the world and in people's lives. In what ways can we safeguard respect for others and God in our own call to be evangelists?

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 15:14-21; Luke 16:1-8 (489). "I will not dare to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me."

Saturday, Nov 06, 2021*Inspiration knows no bounds

Jesus' life and ministry broke open the "old wineskins" of religious and social customs. Inspired by his example, the early church was remarkably diverse and creative, and women played key roles every step of the way. Priscilla (or Prisca, her formal name), along with her husband, Aquila, were companions of Saint Paul and prominent leaders in the early church—and Priscilla's name usually appears first when they are mentioned in the New Testament, a hint of her esteemed position. She instructed the learned Apollos, and some commentators think she may have had a hand in authoring the epistle to the Hebrews. Raise a glass to new wineskins—may they continue to pour out the Spirit!

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 16:3-9, 16, 22-27; Luke 16:9-15 (490).

"Greet Prisca and Aquila, my co-workers in Christ Jesus, who risked their necks for my life."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
