In Memory of Father DennyPadre's Pen ~ Parish Council

COVID lockdowns in 2020 really put a pinch on many of our processes moving forward, one of those that felt the pinch was the development/growth of our Parish Pastoral Council (PPC). I am pleased to announce that our PPC planning process is re-starting this month. We have a couple of returning members with experience in the process and several new members as well. We have 11 members on our PPC with eight representing the six ministry areas of our parish and three At Large Members. Our membership is as follows:

- Becky Malecha – At Large Member
- Peter Dietz – At Large Member
- Chad Wieskus – At Large Member
- Amy Lemke – Western Catholic Churches Representative
- Open Spot – Western Catholic Churches Representative
- Joe Weiers – St. Wenceslaus School Representative
- Megan Simon – St. Wenceslaus School Representative
- Mary Pieper – Pastoral Ministry Representative
- Mary Bender – Administration & Maintenance Representative
- Rose Simones – Faith Formation Representative
- Norb Sticha – Music Representative
- Kathy Giesen – Music Representative

I am deeply grateful to the above members who have said "Yes" to serving on the PPC. I really could use one more representative to make an even dozen and give our Western Churches more voice in our planning.

The PPC will be meeting twice later this month where each of our ministry areas (Administration & Maintenance, School, Pastoral Ministry, Faith Formation, Music, and Western Churches) give presentations on each of their areas and make suggestions for areas of emphasis/needs in the coming year. The PPC then reviews/votes/makes recommendations for the Finance Council to apply their budgetary expertise and obtain the pastor's approval.

This is a very brief overview of the planning process. I just want to assure the parishioners that our consultative processes that COVID lockdowns interrupted are restarting and with more representation than we had in my first planning year in 2019.

I pray you all have a great week, and I can report on a look at life from the deer stand with a full freezer after my week of deer hunting.

Saint Alphonsus Liguori

(to pray anytime you are unable to physically participate in Communion)

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen

Jim Wagner, the New Prague Knights of Columbus Grand Knight, spoke at the end of Mass two weeks ago asking for any Catholic Gentlemen 18 years or older to consider joining the NPKC council. The goal is to be able to continue all the wonderful things that the KC's do for years to come. A reminder that there will be a KC initiation after the 10:30 Mass on November 21 where family and friends can watch the entire ceremony, which takes around 30 minutes. For more information: Visit www.newpraguekc.org or contact Jim Wagner via email at npkc2023@gmail.com.

The New Prague Knights of Columbus are having a Fall Fish Dinner on Friday, November 19. It will feature four fish fillets, potato salad, coleslaw, dessert, and dinner roll. It will be for carry out as well as dine in options. The cost is $14, and it will be served from 4:30-7:00 pm or sold out. We welcome two new staff members: Lynn Sticha and Mary Bender!

Lynn Sticha is our new Administrative Assistant at St. Wenceslaus Catholic Parish. She grew up on a dairy farm outside of New Prague, attended St. Wenceslaus Catholic School, New Prague High School and graduated from St. Catherine's University in St. Paul. You may remember her as leading our Young Catholic Families group where she fell in love with church ministry. Lynn spent the next few years working at other local Catholic parishes and is thrilled to be back home and looks forward to getting to know and support you all.

Mary Bender is our new Accounting Assistant. She grew up in Wisconsin (yes –a Cheesehead!). After graduating from the University of Arizona in Tucson, Mary moved to Minnesota to begin a career in banking and has her MBA from the University of St. Thomas. Mary has been volunteering at the church for almost two years and is excited to be an official staff member. She looks forward to meeting you all.

Donut and Pie Sunday, November 20 & 21. Pie orders will be available for pick-up the weekend of 11/20 & 11/21. Pies will be available before and after Mass on Saturday. Donuts and coffee will be served on Sunday, after Masses at St. Wenceslaus until noon. See you there!

It is with great sadness that we say good-bye to another former staff member. Don Geiger, who was a dedicated caretaker of our church and school for 28 years, has passed on to his glory. Many will remember Don and his wife Dorothy as the faith-filled duo who joyfully kept our buildings in top-notch condition. Don served in this ministry from 1969-2002. Those of us who were blessed to be here during his tenure will remember Don as a man who

who make this bulletin possible by their advertising.

MICHAEL P. TRAXLER

There are always so many things going on inside of our school each week. The kids and teachers are very busy with all of our curriculum and projects that help them grow into confident learners and leaders. You might not see it with your own kids yet, but little by little these important skills are developing. Last week we had our conferences. You might have heard how your child could improve, work harder, or change in some way. What you heard from teachers is their passion in trying to guide your child along. There are so many areas where we want the kids to grow. We aim to develop the mind, body, spirit, and soul of each SWS student in preschool and beyond. We know that wholistic (whole person) education is worth it and that is exactly what Catholic education is and what our SWS school sets goals to do. Thank you for partnering with us in the formation of our students and your children.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The poor have a gift for you

Charity presupposes a giver and a receiver. Pope Francis reminds us this fifth annual World Day of the Poor. This division poses a spiritual danger: tempting the giver to view the poor as a "category" outside our community, to which we may choose to offer our generosity. This perception gratifies the giver and demeans the receiver. Francis observes that "the poor, always and everywhere, evangelize us"—revealing the suffering Christ to us. Charity is occasional and voluntary; mutual sharing, however, is enduring. The real invitation of the poor is this: to share the burden of Christ until we can alleviate it.

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 12:1-3; Hebrews 10:11-14, 18; Mark 13:24-32 (158). "Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away."

MEMORIAL OF ALBERT THE GREAT, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Head in the clouds but feet on the ground

Albert the Great was a Renaissance man—but he lived in the Middle Ages. He was a German theologian, but he also wrote voluminously about botany, zoology, music, astronomy, and law—to name just a few of his studies of interest. He never let his head full of knowledge go to his head, though, and one of the ways this Dominican friar and bishop stayed humble was by only traveling by foot. Are there lifestyle changes you can make or privileges you can shed to keep yourself down-to-earth?

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Maccabees 1:10-15, 41-43, 54-57, 62-63; Luke 18:35-43 (497). "When they saw this, all the people gave praise to God."

MEMORIAL OF GERTRUDE, MYSTIC

God's love conquers all

Orphaned during the Middle Ages, Gertrude the Great grew up in a Benedictine monastery and became a brilliant scholar. Like her teacher, Saint Mechtilde of Helfta, Gertrude also became well-known as a mystic, experiencing—and transcribing—vivid visions of God's boundless love. Let Gertrude's encounters with Divine Love calm any worries today: "Joy and gladness be to thee from that sweetest heart, my one refuge and shelter in my exile, from that heart so full of tender care for me, whose love is so set on me that it cannot rest till it hath received me into itself for evermore."

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Maccabees 6:18-31; Luke 19:1-10 (498). "But he could not see him because of the crowd."

Wednesday, Nov 17, 2021

MEMORIAL OF ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY, RELIGIOUS

Keep the faith under pressure

Faithfulness unto death is the great rallying cry of the Christian. Without this in mind, today's saint, Elizabeth of Hungary, might at first seem an odd pairing with the readings about martyrdom and divine retribution. With it, however, we see that Saint Elizabeth's firm resolve to serve the poor, despite being a princess with access to enormous privilege, is precisely the kind of behavior God wishes to see in his children. It is precisely the use of the "talents" to which Jesus referred in the parable from today's gospel. Remember, then, that whenever we die to ourselves and devote our lives to Christian charity, we become common martyrs and fulfill the law of God.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Maccabees 7:1, 20-31; Luke 19:11-28 (499). "He, in his mercy, will give you back both breath and life, because you now disregard yourselves for the sake of his law."

Thursday, Nov 18, 2021

MEMORIAL OF ROSE PHILIPPINE DUCHESNE

Perseverance please!

Life can sometimes beat a person down, and when that happens, the beautiful tradition of praying for saints to intercede for us can provide communion and solace. Today's saint, Philippine Duchesne, was a nun who survived the upheaval of the French Revolution and combined both a strong devotion to prayer and a passion for missionary life in the American frontier, with its many hardships. Because perseverance was a major theme in her life, she is a patron saint of perseverance in adversity. Saint Philippine, pray for us!

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Maccabees 2:15-29; Luke 19:41-44 (500). "If this day you only knew what makes for peace."

Friday, Nov 19, 2021Act on memory

Dedications in memory of fields where lives were lost or sacred places defiled have been a mainstay since biblical times. By remembering the horror of death and destruction, we hope to redeem the site and make it holy again. But as Abraham Lincoln stated on this day in 1863 in his Gettysburg Address, honoring a Civil War battlefield: "We cannot dedicate—we cannot consecrate—we cannot hallow—this ground . . . the living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it." Our role, says Lincoln, is "to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced." It is for us to "highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain." Lincoln's words echo Jesus' call to his disciples to "do this in memory of me." Become the body of Christ.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Maccabees 4:36-37, 52-59; Luke 19:45-48 (501). "The days of the dedication of the altar should be observed with joy and gladness."

Saturday, Nov 20, 2021

MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

God of the living

The Bible's Second Book of Maccabees, composed about a hundred years before Christ, introduced the ideas of resurrection from the dead, the intercession of the saints in heaven, and the responsibility of the living to offer prayers and sacrifices for the dead. The Sadducees of today's gospel episode rejected these ideas while Jesus obviously embraced them. Resurrection, praying for the souls in Purgatory, and the intercession of the saints all have become part of what the church believes. Every Saturday we honor the Blessed Virgin Mary, the greatest saint in heaven, and ask her intercession for the souls of our departed relatives and friends.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Maccabees 6:1-13; Luke 20:27-40 (502). "[God] is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive."
