From the Desk of Father TheisenPadre's Pen ~ Starry Night, Finish Strong, & Holy Week

Many, many thanks to our Starry Night Committee, volunteers, and benefactors. It was a fun and exciting evening of dinner, entertainment, and support for our Parish School. I don't know the final numbers but from what I have gleaned, the night was remarkably successful.

We are now at the fifth Sunday of Lent, and I hit the wall this past week on my Lenten disciplines. Every year I know the temptation to "fudge" on the disciplines a little bit is going to come. This year is no exception. I missed a bit of my weekly workouts and as I look at my little index card there are a couple of one-time actions that after 4 ½ weeks are still not accomplished.

Now is not the time to give up or despair. If we fall off the horse of our disciplines, we need to be disciplined enough to get right back up in the saddle and finish strong. We are preparing for the beautiful love of Christ to continue working in us through the power of the Resurrection and the gift of the Holy Spirit. Our disciplines for Lent make room in our spiritual lives to receive that grace, love, and power. And we must remember that it's not that we are the primary actors in this exchange of our Lenten disciplines and God's love in Christ. It is first and primarily God's Love that effects the positive changes in us. Allow Christ to work in you and He will lead you gently to a new resurrection in the coming Paschal Season.

Speaking of the Paschal Season, next weekend is Palm Sunday and the beginning of Holy Week. It also begins Spring Break for many of our students. I want to gently remind all that Spring Break does not mean taking a break from Jesus Christ, His Passion, and the Church's celebration of the actions of God for our salvation. If you go somewhere, please keep Christ and the Holy Triduum in your plans. If you stay in town, I look forward to seeing you in the celebration of our Holy Week Liturgies.

Please join us on Palm Sunday for St. Scholastica's Country Style Breakfast, back this year at St. Scholastica 8:30 am till 12:30 pm. There will be tasty, scrambled eggs with ham, pancakes, country-style fried potatoes, fried onions, danish, and a raffle for a quilt by Helen Weiers!

Finally, join us this Friday 7:00 pm at St. Scholastica for our weekly Stations of the Cross.

Saint Alphonsus Liguori

(To pray anytime you are unable to physically participate in Communion)

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen

April is the Month of the Holy Eucharist. Traditionally, according to our Church calendar, the month of April is dedicated to the Holy Eucharist: the source and summit of Christian life. The word "Eucharist" originates from the Greek word eucharistia, meaning thankfulness. This year, April also blesses us with the Sacred Triduum, the summit of our liturgical year, marking the end of the Lenten season, and leading us to the Mass of the Resurrection of Our Lord at the Holy Saturday Easter Vigil. Let us celebrate this month by seeking time in Adoration, by attending an additional Mass(es) during the weekdays, and by partaking in the Feasts of the Easter Triduum. Saint Mother Teresa of Calcutta said: "The time you spend with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the best time you will spend on earth. Each moment that you spend with Jesus will deepen your union with Him and make your soul everlastingly more glorious and beautiful in Heaven and will help bring about everlasting peace on earth."

Pillow cleaning for life. Extend the life of your feather pillows by getting them cleaned, sanitized, deodorized, and recovered. Carlson's Pillow Cleaning Service will be here on Saturday, April 9 from 7 am – 1 pm. Early drop off Friday, April 8, 6-8 pm. All proceeds to Alpha Women's Center to support moms and babies.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT/THIRD SCRUTINY OF THE ELECT

Pause and refresh

We rush through the hours checking items off a to-do list: work and chores, errands and meals, and more. The weekly Sabbath was designed as a pause from the maddening race of accomplishment. Pausing keeps us from making mistakes born of thoughtlessness. Jesus once asked religious elders to pause and consider their own errors before stoning a woman for hers. Father Edward Hayes (1931-2016) started a house of prayer in Kansas as a place of spiritual recollection. Pause and pray with Hayes: "May the work of my hands be part of the redemption of the world and its eternal springtime liberation."

TODAY'S READINGS: Year C: Isaiah 43:16-21; Philippians 3:8-14; John 8:1-11 (36). "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her."

MEMORIAL OF ISIDORE OF SEVILLE, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

The original Wikipedia

Why would Pope John Paul II name a Spanish bishop who lived 1,400 years ago the patron saint of the internet? Because Saint Isidore of Seville was the equivalent of the internet in his day. A "walking encyclopedia" you might call him. He, in fact, wrote an encyclopedia, which was used as a textbook for 900 years, as well as a dictionary and a history of the world. And like the World Wide Web, he spread information everywhere he could—founding schools and requiring seminaries in every diocese. Knowledge is power—pass it on!

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 13:1-9, 15-17, 19-30, 33-62; John 8:12-20 (251). "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness but will have the light of life."

MEMORIAL OF VINCENT FERRER, PRIEST

Charity is good medicine

Vincent Ferrer brought healing to a suffering church and world in the early 1400s. The Dominican-order priest used his massive popularity to end a three-way power struggle over the church's legitimate pope. People loved Vincent, not just for his preaching but for thousands of miracles attributed to him—right as Europe was ravaged by war, plague, and famine. "If you truly want to help the soul of your neighbor," Vincent preached, "you should approach God first with all your heart. Ask him simply to fill you with charity, the greatest of all virtues; with it you can accomplish what you desire."

TODAY'S READINGS: Numbers 21:4-9; John 8:21-30 (252). "The people came to Moses and said, 'We have sinned in complaining against the LORD and you.'"

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Answer your call, no matter the cost

On this day in 1830, James Augustine Healy was born to Michael Healy, an Irish-Catholic immigrant, and Eliza Smith, a mixed-race African-American enslaved person, in central Georgia. Raised as a free person, James was sent to the North for school and later decided to pursue the priesthood. Though most of his peers likely did not know he was black—and James did not announce it—he became the earliest-known African American to be ordained in the Catholic Church, following seminary in Canada and Europe. He also became the first black bishop and ordinary in the United States when he was named to the Diocese of Portland (Maine) in 1875. He was named a bishop-assistant to the papal throne two months before his death in the year 1900 and remains an example to all of faithful service to the church.

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 3:14-20, 91-92, 95; John 8:31-42 (253).

"So if the Son frees you, then you will truly be free."

MEMORIAL OF JEAN-BAPTISTE DE LA SALLE, PRIEST

Be the change

In the late 1600s Frenchman Jean-Baptiste de La Salle founded the De La Salle Brothers, whose communities and schools are now worldwide. De La Salle's innovative vision emphasized the inherent dignity of the student. He believed that "not only is God so good as to have created us, but God desires all of us to come to the knowledge of the truth." Early on, de La Salle battled opponents to his reforms. He never lived to receive official approval for his congregation of teaching brothers, which came nearly six years after his death. Are you called to uplift a reform or innovation that others oppose? You have a friend in Saint Jean-Baptiste de La Salle. May he pray for us!

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 17:3-9; John 8:51-59 (254). "Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever keeps my word will never see death."

LENTEN WEEKDAY; DAY OF ABSTINENCE

Tap into a higher power

"The most common way people give up their power is by thinking they don't have any." That insight comes from author Alice Walker but certainly has its roots in scripture. Prophets and evangelists all spoke of the power available to each of us, if only we would access it. But we often make the mistake of looking for power in money, might, or celebrity, where we eventually find our paths blocked or our dominance fleeting. True and lasting power comes from love—love that is God. As we come to comprehend the breadth and depth of this love, Saint Paul tells us, we will be "filled with all the fullness of God" (Eph. 3:19). The ultimate renewable energy—straight from its divine source—is ours for the taking.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 20:10-13; John 10:31-42 (255). "For he has rescued the life of the poor from the power of the wicked!"

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Remember those who gave all

Dietrich Bonhoeffer was executed by the Nazis on this date in 1945. He was a Lutheran pastor and theologian best known for his book The Cost of Discipleship, which has become a Christian classic. Ardent in his resistance of the Nazis, he became a target for harassment by the Gestapo. He fled to safety in the United States but soon returned "to share the trials of this time with my people." He was arrested, imprisoned, and hanged. A gallery of 20th-century martyrs in Westminster Abbey features Bonhoeffer along with Martin Luther King Jr. and Father Óscar Romero. Few of us are called to the ultimate sacrifice, but all of us are called to remember and revere those who answered that call.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 37:21-28; John 11:45-56 (256). "It is better for you that one man should die instead of the people, so that the whole nation may not perish."
