Padre's Pen – SWS Marathon, St. Wenceslaus Solemnity, & a New Seminarian

It is Marathon Week for our School and that means we have our Parish Solemn Feast Day of St. Wenceslaus. The Solemnity falls on Wednesday of this week, so our Solemn celebration will be at the School Mass on Wednesday morning.

A quick reminder that a patron saint is not a mediator between God and humanity. Jesus Christ is the Mediator between God and humanity. Rather, patron saints are intercessors before God on our behalf. The Sacred Scriptures urge us to pray for each other. If we can do so on earth, think of how much more will a soul already in heaven be able to pray for us. The saints in heaven can pray unceasingly and with perfect intention. With St. Wenceslaus as our patron here, we can be assured from the earliest inkling and founding of our parish there have been unceasing prayers and intercession on our behalf before the throne of God. We take this coming Wednesday to honor our older brother in the faith, St. Wenceslaus, and ask for continued intercession for the good of our whole parish and for any particular intentions we may have.

St. Wenceslaus, and all the saints, are living testimonies in heaven to the saving power of Jesus Christ to raise us up from a fallen nature to the glory of being sons and daughters of God. Join us on Wednesday, if you are able to Celebrate the Solemn Feast Day... and if you are willing and able to sponsor your pastor for the School Marathon Walk (so I can proudly walk next to Ron McBroom who will probably crush me in donations again this year).

Also, many people may have noticed the other gentleman in clerical garb walking in the parade this past weekend. It is my pleasure to announce that we have another seminarian assigned to our parish for mentoring/training in the pastoral life. Garrett Aberle is our seminarian's name. He is studying for the Diocese of Fargo and is in his 1st year of graduate level theology. Please keep him in your prayers and when he is here with us (once or twice a month), don't hesitate to say "Hello" and introduce yourselves.

The current total we have raised for the St. John Matching Grant is $40,475.54. October 21st is the deadline to reach our goal of $50,000.

Ad Christum per Mariam,
Fr. Theisen

Saint Alphonsus Liguori

(To pray anytime you are unable to physically participate in Communion)

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
 I love You above all things,
 and I desire to receive You into my soul.
 Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
 I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
 Never permit me to be separated from You.
 Amen

Bless the Newly Baptized

Eugene Karl Theus, son of Kristjan & Lisa Theus. We rejoice with your families on this joyful occasion!

Feast of Saint Wenceslaus, September 28 Let's fill the pews for the 8:00 a.m. Mass at St. Wenceslaus on Wednesday, September 28, in celebration of the Feast Day of our parish patron, St. Wenceslaus. On this Patronal Feast Day, all who attend Mass at a church named after the saint can gain a plenary indulgence under the usual conditions (sacramental Confession, Holy Communion, prayer for our Holy Father, detachment from all sin, including venial, within 20 days before or after), along with the recitation of the Our Father and Apostle's Creed on that day. A plenary indulgence is a favor granted by the Church through the merits of Jesus Who removes completely the temporal punishment remaining for sins that have been forgiven in Confession. "St. Wenceslaus, thou wert an intelligent and peaceable ruler, pious and forgiving of wrongs. Pray for all our leaders today, that they may be compassionate and kind, shrewd but noble, and that they may follow the morality of the Christian religion. St. Wenceslaus, thou wert declared a martyr and a saint immediately upon thine death. Pray for all persecuted Christians, that they may persevere in the faith until their death. St. Wenceslaus, thou now reign with Christ forever in heaven. Please intercede for us in the matters we bring before thee this day. Amen." St. Wenceslaus, pray for us.

Bl. Karl's Corner

One of Karl's favorite saints to pray to was his predecessor, our Parish patron, St. Wenceslaus.

SCHOOL NEWS from SWS

Dear Parishioners, Parents, Grandparents, Friends of SWS, Toddler Tuesdays Beginning – Tuesday, September 20th and every Tuesday after. (On days when school is in session) 8:00

AM -10:00 AM. Come when you can and bring your friends and neighbors who also have toddlers ages 1-4/5. Kids can run around in the gym. Our PE teacher, Mrs. Turner, will be there too and provide some of the school equipment for even more fun. Park in the school parking lot and enter through the main doors near the gym. Someone will be there to let you in. If the door is locked, just wait in the lobby. We will find you! I am so proud of our school staff this year. In the past few weeks we have worked hard as a staff to gel together and learn with and from each other. We have quite a number of new teachers in our school and we have an equal number of staff members who are mentoring and guiding. We are living out what we preach. This is a spirit of collaboration, acceptance, patience, and teamwork. One of the special things we are gifted with in teaching/working in a Catholic school is our focus on our own spirituality. We learn so that we can teach. We practice so that that we can model. We pray and worship so that we are authentic in our love for God.

Sunday, Sep 25, 2022Blessed are the wanderers

Biblical prophets warn the comfortable not to overlook the suffering of those less fortunate. Today on World Day of Migrants and Refugees, we support the church's solidarity with uprooted people since the Second World War. A mass exodus to the West of Soviet bloc refugees prompted Pope Pius XII, future Pope Paul VI, and layman James Norris to form the International Catholic Migration Commission. The ICMC continued its response to the "boat people" of Vietnam, Bosnian Muslims, Afghani refugees, and more. Their efforts restore dignity, inspire change, and companion the displaced. Welcome the stranger.

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Amos 6:1a, 4-7; 1 Timothy 6:11-16; Luke 16:19-31 (138). "Thus says the LORD the God of hosts: Woe to the complacent in Zion!"

Monday, Sep 26, 2022Give them a healer's welcome

Believed to have been twin brothers, Cosmas and Damian were third-century Christian Syrian physicians who accepted no payment for caring for the sick—and made many converts as a result of their selfless service. They were eventually martyred by the Romans. Many of us know "saints" in the healthcare profession who work physically and emotionally demanding jobs, make personal sacrifices (including endangering their own health during the pandemic), and have a seemingly endless supply of compassion despite it all. The next time you or someone you love needs medical help, ask Cosmas and Damian to support the professionals coming to your aid.

MEMORIAL OF COSMAS AND DAMIAN, MARTYRS

TODAY'S READINGS: Job 1:6-22; Luke 9:46-50 (455). "Whoever receives me receives the one who sent me."

Tuesday, Sep 27, 2022Enrich the faith of others

Before co-founding the Daughters of Charity—serving the "poorest of the poor"—Saint Vincent de Paul began the Congregation of the Mission in 1625. Priests who joined had three requirements: to live in imitation of Christ, to take the gospel to the rural poor, and to educate fellow priests in the practical matters of being a priest. When he realized peasants knew so little about the faith and that local priests were poorly trained in administering the sacrament of Penance, Vincent preached such a stirring parish mission that priests from a nearby town had to be called in to help him hear confessions. How can you help others practice their faith?

MEMORIAL OF VINCENT DE PAUL, PRIEST, FOUNDER

TODAY'S READINGS: Job 3:1-3, 11-17, 20-23; Luke 9:51-56 (456). "He resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem."

Wednesday, Sep 28, 2022Carry on the work of the dead among the living

At the time of Jesus, the Jewish custom was to bury a person in the family burial cave the same day they died. The body was left for a year while the family mourned, the first seven days in shivah, followed by a less intense 30-day period of shloshim. The burial rite was not complete, however, as the family would return to the cave a year later for the "second burial," the collection of remains to be placed with the bones of other ancestors in the family ossuary. It is theorized that when Jesus commented, "Let the dead bury their dead," he may have been referring to this second burial, suggesting to his disciples that there was more urgent work to be done among the living. Pray for the dead but serve the living!

TODAY'S READINGS: Job 9:1-12, 14-16; Luke 9:57-62 (457). "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the Kingdom of God."

Thursday, Sep 29, 2022Angels watching over us

Today we honor the only three angels in scripture who have names. Michael is cited in the books of Daniel and Revelation and is known for being a protector. Gabriel is most famously a messenger, having relayed information to Daniel, but best known for giving Mary the news that she would be mother to our Savior. Raphael is associated with healing and appears in a series of adventures in the Book of Tobit, including his cure of Tobit's blindness. At various times, each of us needs protection, a message from God, or healing. May these three archangels lift our prayers when we and our communities most need these things.

FEAST OF MICHAEL, GABRIEL, AND RAPHAEL, ARCHANGELS

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14 or Revelation 12:7-12a; John 1:47-51 (647). "Amen, amen, I say to you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

Friday, Sep 30, 2022Get to know the word

If you are a fan of scripture, then right next to your Bible should be The Jerome Biblical Commentary. The 2,000-plus-page book is a treasure trove of insight about the Bible written by Roman Catholic scholars from across the globe. It is a great resource for helping people to engage more deeply with scripture through study and reflection. The book is named after Saint Jerome, who is best known for his biblical commentaries and translations. Jerome believed that "Ignorance of scripture is ignorance of Christ." It's never too late to increase your knowledge. What would be the first scripture passage you'd look up if you had the book in hand? Why?

MEMORIAL OF JEROME, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Job 38:1, 12-21; 40:3-5; Luke 10:13-16 (459). "Whoever listens to you listens to me."

Saturday, Oct 01, 2022In loving color

Though she only lived 24 brief years, Thérèse of Lisieux, the "little flower," was so spiritually mature she was asked to guide novices who were entering her Carmelite order. She used vivid metaphors, comparing the Trinity to a kaleidoscope because the three mirrors transform simple images into colorful designs. She wrote: "As long as our actions, even the smallest, do not fall away from the focus of Divine Love, the Holy Trinity, symbolized by the three mirrors, allows them to reflect wonderful beauty. Jesus . . . always sees beauty in everything we do."

MEMORIAL OF THÉRÈSE OF THE CHILD JESUS, CARMELITE NUN, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Job 42:1-3, 5-6, 12-17; Luke 10:17-24 (460).

"Turning to the disciples in private he said, 'Blessed are the eyes that see what you see.'"

SAFE ENVIRONMENT

Saint Wenceslaus facilitates a safe environment for minors and vulnerable adults by requiring all employees, as well as volunteers, who have regular or unsupervised interaction with minors or vulnerable adults, to be Essential 3 qualified (background check, Code of Conduct, and Safe Environment Training). For more information, contact laura.schoenecker@npcatholic.org

If you or someone you know has been abused, exploited, or harassed by a clergy member, religious brother, or sister, lay employee or volunteer of a parish or Catholic school, your first call should be to law enforcement. You are also encouraged to contact the archdiocese's Victim Assistance Program at 651-291-4475.
