Padre's Pen – The Offertory of Holy Mass

In my wanderings around our church at St. Wenceslaus I have noticed that very few people sign up to bring the gifts of bread and wine forward at Mass. I also get feedback from our ushers that it is difficult to find people willing to present the gifts at Mass. So, let's look at this important part of the Mass and see what is really happening.

Since the very early days of the Church, the gifts of bread and wine were either made or acquired by members of the congregation and brought to the Church for sacred use. The author Nikolaus Gühr in his book "Holy Sacrifice of the Mass" explains it this way, "The bread and wine are withdrawn from common use, consecrated to God and previously sanctified, that they may be in a manner prepared and made fit for their unspeakably exalted destiny. We give up all claims to these earthly gifts and offer them to the Most High, with the intention and desire that He would change them in the course of the sacrifice into the most holy Body and Blood of Christ." The Presentation of the Gifts is both a sign and the reality of the faith we have in the action of that Church Christ founded to extend His presence through history in the most precious Blessed Sacrament.

Even more than the "giving up of earthly goods" the Presentation of the Gifts is the giving up of our hearts to the Lord (our hearts being the symbol of all our joys, sorrows, desires, prayers...our very lives). Thus, in the Preface Dialog after the Offertory the priest will say, "Lift up your hearts," and the people respond, "We lift them up to the Lord!"

Whether you sign up or are asked to bring the gifts forward, you are being asked a couple of things 1) Are you willing to overcome your personal reluctance to step forward in faith and give all to Christ in a public way? 2) Are you willing to be a representative of the whole people of God and place all their joys, sorrows, prayers, and lives (along with yours) on the Altar of Christ's Sacrifice?

Most of us wouldn't have any issue with getting up from anywhere in church and walking out if there was an urgent need to use the facilities or if we were feeling a bit faint. We should all have the same attitude of urgency to place our prayers and our lives on the altar with the gifts of bread and wine! I have hopeful expectation that our signup sheet in the back of church will fill up, and that if our ushers on occasion must ask someone to assist in this important ministry, they will never get "No" for an answer unless there is some physical disability that prevents them.

Finally, given the importance of this liturgical action, I'm wondering what our good parishioners at St. John and St. Scholastica think? Should we re-institute the Gift Procession as it was before COVID? And are they willing to volunteer on a regular basis to bring the gifts forward?

Ad Christum per Mariam,
Fr. Theisen

Many, many thanks to all who made the St. Wenceslaus Live Nativity successful this past weekend. We had rain, sleet, snow, and wind, and still nearly 500 people attended. We sincerely wish you the peace, happiness, and love that the true meaning of Christmas brings.

Advent Penitential Celebration with Individual Confessions will be held this Thursday, December 15 from 5:00 – 8:00 pm at St. Wenceslaus.

Archdiocesan Evangelization Prayer Holy Spirit, renew your wonders in our time, as though in a new Pentecost, and grant that this Archdiocese, united in prayer around Mary, the Mother of Jesus, and guided by St. Peter, may spread the Kingdom of the divine Savior, a Kingdom of truth, of justice, of love, and of peace. Amen. Saint Paul, our great missionary patron, pray for us!

Pies available! Do you need a pie for Christmas or any other celebration? The CCW still has a few ready to bake pies available for purchase: Cherry, Pumpkin, Apple, and Blueberry for $13. Contact Mary Wick for more information mary.wick@swsaints.org

Children and Teen Grief Support is coming soon. Have you experienced the death of a son/daughter, brother/sister, mother/father, or grandparent? If so, you understand grief and the huge changes a loss brings to every aspect of your life. Unfortunately, we have many children and teens in our community who have also suffered the loss of a loved one. We are starting a structured Grief Support Group for Children and Teens ages five to 18. It will begin in January 2023. We need YOUR support to make this a success. More information, including ways you can help, will be coming soon.

The Catholic Church dedicates the month of December to the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, with the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, which was celebrated last Thursday, December 8. "O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee." During these days of preparation, there are multiple feast days (some of which have come and gone) to help us along: Our Lady of Guadalupe on December 12, St. Lucy on December 13, St. John of the Cross on December 14, St. Peter Canisius on December 21, to name a few, with then some major feast days to be celebrated during the Christmas Octave. During these days of Advent, as we await the coming of our Lord, let us turn to Christ's mother and our heavenly mother, Mary, and try to emulate the model she is for us of prayerfulness, purity and whole-hearted submission to God's will. In Mary, we find the model of perfect preparation for the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ. "Hail Mary, Full of Grace, the Lord is with Thee."

The Giving Tree. St. John the Evangelist will again be sponsoring a Giving Tree this year. Please stop by and pick out a paper ornament(s) of your choice. We ask that you have your gifts topped with your selected paper ornament under the tree by December 14. These gifts will be delivered to Sharing and Caring Hands in Minneapolis. If you have any questions or need someone to pick up your gift(s), please contact Lori Huebl via phone (952) 492-3635 or email lori.huebl@gmail.com.

Great big Thank You to all our volunteers and guests at the St. Scholastica Country-Style Breakfast. Another great event in the books. See you on Palm Sunday for the next one!

Catholic calendars for 2023 are available in the back of all churches. These are great for in your home, for your college children, or grandparents. Displaying beautiful Catholic art and saint of the day, calendars are given to you by St. John Catholic United Financial.

All Catholic United Financial members are invited to join the Christmas meeting and party on Monday, December 12. Rosary at 7:45, meeting to follow in the office area at St. John Church.

Bl. Karl's Corner

Due to the British Blockade, the peoples of the Central Powers were starving. So, naturally, Germany and Karl's Minister of Foreign Affairs, Count Czernin, were more than happy to oblige the Ukrainians for food. The result of this was Poland felt betrayed by Karl and the Empire. Apparently, not all of Poland felt ill-will towards Karl, being Pope St. John Paul II was still named after him in 1920.

A note: This week, immediately after the Bl. Karl Mass, there will be practice for the Sunday, December 18, Christmas Pageant.

Join us Wednesdays at 5:30 p.m. for our Bl. Karl Mass at St. John's. Latin rosary begins at 5:00 p.m.. Latin materials are provided. For more information email: bl.Karl.UnionHill@gmail.com or visit www.emperorcharles.org. For those interested in saying a Latin rosary at home, Cardinal Burke leads the rosary in Latin on his Facebook page.

*A Blessed
Gaudete Sunday!*

Bl. Karl of Austria, Servant of God Zita, Pray for us!

The St. John Children's Pageant is next Sunday, December 18, at 9:30 am (before 10:00 am Mass); everyone is invited to join us for both the pageant and Mass. Pageant rehearsal is Wednesday, December 14 at 6 pm. Pizza will be served afterward during question-and-answer time. Parents are invited to stay during this hour to hour and a half practice. A special treat-sponsored by Catholic United Financial, will be given to every child following the 10:00 am Mass. See you at 9:30 am, Sunday, December 18.

Blankets Because We Care. Blanket, coat, and sock drive is well underway. Help those in need stay warm this winter. Bins are available for your donations in Martha's Corner at St. Wenceslaus Church.

Help aging religious today! Senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have devoted their lives to prayer, service, and works of mercy. Most ministered for little or no pay.
