Electing a new Pope

On May 7, 2025, the Cardinal electors entered the Sistine Chapel to begin the conclave to elect the next pope. The gathering began with a “Mass for the Election of the Roman Pontiff” in St. Peter’s Basilica that morning after which the Cardinals proceeded in a solemn procession to the Sistine chapel. Each Cardinal elector takes an oath of secrecy and commits, if elected, to faithfully fulfill the Petrine Ministry as Pastor of the Universal Church.

There are currently 135 cardinals eligible to vote for the next pope, but at least two of them will not be present due to personal reasons. To validly elect a new Pope, a two-thirds majority of the electors present is required. If voting begins on the afternoon of the first day, there is only one ballot; on subsequent days, two ballots will be held in the morning and two in the afternoon.

Once votes are counted, all ballots are burned. If the ballot is inconclusive, the chimney positioned over the Sistine Chapel emits black smoke. When a cardinal receives the necessary votes, he is asked if he accepts his election. If he accepts, he chooses a papal name and is dressed in papal vestments before processing out to the balcony of St. Peter’s Basilica. The ballots from the final round are burned with chemicals producing white smoke to signal to the world the election of a new pope.

The senior cardinal deacon announces from the balcony of St. Peter’s “Habemus Papam” - “We have a pope” before the new pope processes out and imparts his blessing on the city of Rome and the entire world.

Please consider becoming trained as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion for our Parishioners who are homebound or hospitalized. There are many in our community who are unable to attend Mass. Receiving weekly communion is sometimes their primary connection to the Church.

Contact the Parish Office to find out what you can do to become trained.

Novena Prayer for the Sacred College of Cardinals gathered for the Conclave to elect the Roman Pontiff

April 26-May 5, 2025

I kneel before you, O Virgin Mother of God, Our Lady of Guadalupe, the compassionate mother of all who love you, cry to you, seek you, and trust in you. I plead for the Church at a time of great trial and danger for her. As you came to the rescue of the Church at Tepeyac in 1531, please intercede for the Sacred College of Cardinals gathered in Rome to elect the Successor of Saint Peter, Vicar of Christ, Shepherd of the Universal Church.

At this tumultuous time for the Church and for the world, plead with your Divine Son that the Cardinals of the Holy Roman Church, His Mystical Body, will humbly obey the promptings of the Holy Spirit.

Through your intercession, may they choose the most worthy man to be Christ's Vicar on earth. With you, I place all my trust in Him Who alone is our help and salvation. Amen.

Heart of Jesus, salvation of those who trust in Thee, have mercy upon us!

Our Lady of Guadalupe, Virgin Mother of God and Mother of Divine Grace, pray for us!

Today many people believe that it is impossible to love another person “forever”. “This fear of ‘forever’ is cured by entrusting oneself day by day to the Lord Jesus in a life that becomes a daily spiritual path of common growth, step by step. Because ‘forever’ is not simply a question of duration! A marriage does not succeed just because it lasts; its quality is also important.”
