THE LYRICS

Christmas is drawing near. And although I love every day of Advent as we prepare for Christmas, there is at least one thing I won't wait for Christmas to do. That's listening to Christmas carols. For me they are as much a part of Advent as "O Come O Come Emmanuel." (And I do love that Advent song, too - and other Advent songs as well.) But Christmas carols are just too beautiful to be listened to for only a few weeks of the Christmas season each year. So I begin listening them in Advent.

Those traditional carols are just so . . . classic. The melodies are never forgotten. So many of my earliest memories as a young boy are singing the carols at the school Christmas program and at the Christmas Masses and listening to them on the record players at home. "The Andy Williams Christmas Album." "The Nat King Cole Christmas Album." And who can forget the "Charlie Brown Christmas" soundtrack?

But . . . have you ever paid much attention to the lyrics? Of course we know most of them by heart - but have you paid much attention to them? The melodies of the carols can be so overpowering that although we "know" the words we may not pay attention to the meaning of the verses and the message they contain. Once in a while it's good to just read through the lyrics without the music - then you can see what the song is really all about. As an example, my favorite Christmas carol is "O Little Town of Bethlehem." Here's the lyrics - don't sing this as you go along - that's going to be hard to do - you'll find yourself starting to hum it as you read it - at least I do. But do your best to leave the music behind and pay attention to the words themselves.

*O little town of Bethlehem
How still we see thee lie
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting Light
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee tonight*

*For Christ is born of Mary
And gathered all above
While mortals sleep, the angels keep
Their watch of wondering love
O morning stars together
Proclaim the holy birth
And praises sing to God the King
And Peace to men on earth*

*How silently, how silently
The wondrous gift is given
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His heaven
No ear may hear His coming
But in this world of sin
Where meek souls will receive him still
The dear Christ enters in*

*O holy Child of Bethlehem
Descend to us, we pray
Cast out our sin and enter in
Be born to us today
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell
O come to us, abide with us
Our Lord Emmanuel*

What do you think? Beautiful, right? And then you add the carol melody and you got a perennial classic - it never ages, it's always fresh and new. Try this with your favorite carol. I'll bet you'll discover words and phrases there with meaning you never thought of before. Christmas is certainly one of the best times of the year, if not the best . . . and Christmas carols are certainly some of the best songs ever written - music and lyrics.

McChoir's Music Corner

“Gaudete!”

“Rejoice” is the name of today’s Sunday in Advent. On the 3rd Sunday of Advent, we anticipate our celebration of Christmas remembering the promise of our God. It is like we have been told something great is going to happen, and this week we start to realize in full the reality of what is coming: God. In the flesh. Come to save us and the whole world... WOW. I’ll draw attention to our closing song, “Father, We Praise You.” The first line sums it up right away: “Father we praise you, now the night is over, active and watchful, stand we all before you.” The “night” of our longing is to pass, and we are preparing ourselves actively to stand before Him when He comes.

Stewardship Moment

“Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God.” (PHILIPPIANS 4:6)

St. Paul reminds us that God is an abundant God – He is the ultimate giver of gifts. He promises to give us all that we need. Remember, that we are created in God’s image and likeness. We, too, are made to be generous with all of our gifts as well. Placing our trust in God frees us from being a slave to possessions. It allows us to gratefully and generously share ourselves and our goods with others.
