PASTOR'S LETTER

Good People of Holy Cross,

Parents know how to prepare children for the realities of life. The world is not totally safe, and everyone's motives are not pure, nor are their words always true. So, parents train their children how to remain trusting and honest, but not be naïve and vulnerable to those who do not share the same values. A good physician warns the patient beginning chemotherapy about the side effects, the hair loss, the vulnerability to infection, and the sickness, so the patient is not ambushed by these effects when they come. It is difficult enough to suffer, but it is doubly difficult when it comes by surprise inspiring an extra dose of fear and anxiety. We wish Jesus had offered us a simple and safe path through life, protected from all danger and illness and suffering, but that is not what Jesus does, because that is not the real experience of life. This is the type of mission Jesus invites us to take, and the best part of all, Jesus promises that God will be with us. The success of the Kingdom of God rests upon the willingness of imperfect souls like us, to trust in a perfect and sufficient God, a God who knows us and loves us so much that God has counted every hair of our heads, like a new mother pouring loving attention over her newborn, memorizing every square inch of that baby's body, every wrinkle, every mole, every feature. That is how God cares for us, except infinitely more! We are truly blessed!

Fr. Jude Michael

CARTA DE NUESTRO PÁRROCO

Gente Buena de Holy Cross,

Los padres saben cómo preparar a los niños para las realidades de la vida. El mundo no es totalmente seguro, y las intenciones de todos no son puras, ni sus palabras son siempre verdaderas. Entonces, los padres enseñan a sus hijos cómo permanecer confiados y honestos, pero no ser ingenuos y vulnerables ante aquellos que no comparten los mismos valores. El médico advierte al paciente que comienza la quimioterapia sobre los efectos secundarios, la pérdida de cabello, la vulnerabilidad a la infección y la enfermedad, para que el paciente no sea sorprendido por estos efectos cuando lleguen. Ya es bastante difícil sufrir, pero es doblemente difícil cuando llega por sorpresa inspirando una dosis extra de miedo y ansiedad. Desearíamos que Jesús nos hubiera ofrecido un camino sencillo y seguro por la vida, protegido de todo peligro, enfermedad y sufrimiento, pero eso no es lo que Jesús hace, porque esa no es la verdadera experiencia de la vida. Este es el tipo de misión que Jesús nos invita a tomar, y lo mejor de todo, Jesús promete que Dios estará con nosotros. El éxito del Reino de Dios descansa en la voluntad de almas imperfectas como nosotros, a confiar en un Dios perfecto y suficiente, un Dios que nos conoce y nos ama tanto que ha contado cada cabello de nuestra cabeza, como una nueva Madre prestando atención amorosa a su recién nacido, memorizando cada centímetro cuadrado del cuerpo de ese bebé, cada arruga, cada lunar, cada rasgo. Así es como Dios se preocupa por nosotros, ¡excepto infinitamente más! ¡Somos verdaderamente bendecidos!

Padre Jude Michael
