Gospel Summary

John: 6: 41-51

The crowds in last week's Gospel had faith in Jesus, and at the same time they doubted him. In today's Gospel, the Jews doubt that Jesus is who he says he is. They know that he is the son of Joseph and Mary, but they cannot explain – and therefore have a hard time believing – that he had come down from heaven.

Reflection for Families

Like the Jews in today's Gospel, most children and youth have a hard time believing and trusting what they cannot see. For example, they cannot see that a choice that seems easy and fun and good today will bear negative consequences for them in the future.

Like Jesus, we must remain consistent and persistent in saying what we know to be true. Our words may be met with doubt and resistance, but they serve to remind our children of the Gospel values and expectations we uphold. Today, take time to think about where you need to stand firm and remain consistent and persistent as a parent.

Bring the Gospel Into Your Family

Have a family meeting during which you discuss expectations. Begin with a simple open-ended statement such as, "I expect my parent(s) to ..." or "I expect my children to ..." As ideas are given, make a list for parents and a list for children. Review the lists with the family, then vote on the top five expectations on each list. Create two final lists to post on the family fridge or bulletin board. Let these serve as a reminder and as an invitation to family members to be consistent in honoring your family's values and expectations of one another.

A Stewardship Moment

The Letter to the Ephesians urges us to be mindful that part of our life together in the Eucharist means being kind to one another, compassionate and forgiving, just as Christ has forgiven us. What can we do this week to show our kindness, compassion and forgiving attitude toward others in our family of faith? How can we be even better stewards of our faith community as, what St. Paul refers to as "Imitators of God?"

Come Down to the River!

The Tenth Annual Eucharistic Boat Procession, born on the Bayou, this year will jump ship to the River! The solemn flotilla will embark on the Mighty Mississippi for a one-time only Blessing of the River and the Great State of Louisiana! No one should miss this once-in-a-lifetime cultural and religious event! The procession will begin on Wednesday, August 14, 8AM with Mass at the Cathedral of St. Joseph in Baton Rouge. With stops along the way the flotilla will arrive about 4:25PM Thursday, August 15 in the French Quarter and process into St. Louis Cathedral for a solemn Mass of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Find more information at www.fetedieuduteche.org or email fetedieuduteche@gmail.com. Companies who desire to register boats should contact Fr. Champagne, CJC at frchampagne@yahoo.com. Sorry, NO small crafts will be allowed this year.
