Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time September 18, 2022

God . . . wills everyone to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth.

— 1 Timothy 2:4

Priorities

Make a choice. God or money, material things, earthly pleasure. This is what Jesus asks us to do in today's Gospel. The Pharisees and scribes, and many people, want it both ways. God and wealth. But Jesus knows that "no servant can serve two masters." It is not that wealth is inherently bad, but the pursuit of it to the exclusion of what is good and righteous is. Our faith is meant to guide and shape the way we live. If we are followers of Jesus Christ, we will treat others, especially the poor and vulnerable, fairly and justly. We will live with devotion to God and let our lives speak the truth of God's love for all. We will put first things first, or more precisely, put God and God's ways first, assured that when we do, everything else will fall into place.

Teachers Needed

We are happy this year to have a so many children attending our Faith Formation program, grades 1st-5th. But that means we need a couple more teachers. If you love children and would like to pass on your faith, please contact the parish office. The lessons are already planned out for you. All you have to do is present them to the children in a loving and caring manner.
