GOSPEL MEDITATION

The doors were locked, and the disciples were afraid. Yet Jesus came and stood among them, saying, “Peace be with you.” He did not wait for them to be ready or fearless—He came into their fear. This is Divine Mercy: Jesus meets us where we are, not where we think we should be.

Thomas doubted, and still Jesus invited him: “Put your hand here.” Mercy is not withdrawn because of doubt; it is offered more deeply. In our wounds, in our questions, Jesus draws near with patience and love.

Today, Jesus says to us: “Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe.” We may not see Him, but we experience Him through mercy—given and received. When we forgive, when we trust again, when we open the locked doors of our hearts, Christ is there.

Prayer:

Jesus, I trust in You. Enter the closed places of my heart and fill me with Your peace.

MEDITACION DEL EVANGELIO

Las puertas estaban cerradas y los discípulos tenían miedo. Sin embargo, Jesús vino y se puso en medio de ellos diciendo: “La paz esté con ustedes.” No esperó a que fueran valientes—entró en su miedo. Esto es la Divina Misericordia: Jesús nos encuentra donde estamos, no donde pensamos que deberíamos estar.

Tomás dudó, y aun así Jesús lo invitó: “Trae tu mano.” La misericordia no se retira por la duda; se ofrece más profundamente. En nuestras heridas y preguntas, Jesús se acerca con paciencia y amor.

Hoy Jesús nos dice: “Dichosos los que creen sin haber visto.” Tal vez no lo veamos, pero lo experimentamos en la misericordia—al darla y recibirla.

Cuando perdonamos, cuando volvemos a confiar, cuando abrimos las puertas cerradas de nuestro corazón, Cristo está allí.

Oración:

Jesús, en Ti confío. Entra en los lugares cerrados de mi corazón y lléname de Tu paz.
