Our Mission

We are a vibrant, historically established Catholic Parish with deep, strong roots in the wider community. Our mission is to provide a welcoming, peaceful spiritual environment in adherence to the values and beliefs of the Catholic Church while emphasizing Christian growth in the community.

Our Core Values

We joyfully celebrate the Gospel through the liturgy and the sacraments. In the spirit of our patron saint, we reach out in love and serve the poor, the needy, the elderly and the sick. We embrace children and youth as our future and value their contribution and formation. We honor the history and cultures of New Mexico.

WHY DO CATHOLICS DO THAT...?

Ruth . . . .

Breakthrough!: Your story is kind of a sad one, isn't it, Ruth?

Ruth: Oh, I wouldn't say so. I mean, it started out sad; my husband, my father-in-law, and my brother-in-law had all died. My mother-in-law, Naomi, my sister-in-law, Orpah, and I were all widows. In my time widows didn't have any way to support themselves; that's why Naomi decided to go back to her own home. She had come to my country, Moab, when there was a famine in Bethlehem.

B: Didn't Naomi tell you and Orpah to go back to your own families?

Ruth: She did, but when it came time to say good-bye, I just couldn't leave her. We had become so close. I love her. She taught me about life and about God. She is my family now.

B: People say that you were pretty clever. You and Naomi returned to her hometown, and all of sudden you were married to one of the wealthiest men in town.

Ruth: I guess you could say I'm clever. Naomi gave me good advice, though, and Boaz was so kind; he really looked out for me. Boaz was my dead husband's relative, and that made it easier to approach him. But he really didn't have to marry me—because I was a foreign woman and all.

B: So would you say you're a "glass half full" kind of person?

Ruth: Well I've always tried to see the good in any situation. It really helped to learn that the God of the Israelites cared for me, too—a foreign woman. Can you believe that King David, the greatest king of the Israelites, was one of my descendants!
