

The Most Holy Trinity

*B*ut when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth...He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you.

St. Matthew the Evangelist Parish
June 15, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

The Easter Season has now come to a close with our joyful celebration of Pentecost last weekend. If you attend daily Mass, you've seen the vestments return to green for Ordinary Time. But for our Sunday liturgies, we pause Ordinary Time for two great solemnities, both celebrated in white: today's Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, and next week's Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ—Corpus Christi.

Each year on Trinity Sunday, I'm reminded of a beautiful stained-glass window that once graced St. Laurence O'Toole Church in Lawrence, where I grew up. That window, which now hangs in St. Augustine's Chapel (part of Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish in Lawrence and Methuen, where I was previously assigned), depicts a memorable scene from the life of St. Augustine.

The image shows St. Augustine walking along the seashore, deep in thought, trying to understand and explain the mystery of the Holy Trinity. Along the way, he encounters a little boy running back and forth between the ocean and a small hole in the sand. The child is using a seashell to carry water from the sea and pour it into the hole. Curious, Augustine asks, "What are you doing, little one?" The child replies, "I'm putting the ocean into this hole." Augustine gently responds, "That's impossible—the ocean is too vast for such a small hole." The child then says, "And yet it is easier for me to put the whole ocean into this hole than for you to fit the mystery of the Trinity into your little mind." And with that, the boy vanished.

This story, often depicted in Christian art—including a painting by Alessandro Botticelli titled The Vision of St. Augustine—offers a profound lesson. We may never fully comprehend the Trinity, but we are invited to know the Trinity. To know God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—is the heart of the Christian life.

to fill it with the sea!

May the love of the Father, the grace of the Son, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you always.

God bless,

Fr. Chris

Supporting the Sisters of Good News

Many of you have asked how you can help the Sisters as they continue settling into their new convent home. After some prayerful discernment, the Sisters have shared a list of household needs. To support them, we invite parishioners to participate in a special collection effort.

Here's How You Can Help:

1. Choose a Category to Support:

- Kitchen Items (small & large)
- Linens
- Toiletries
- Household Items
- Cleaning Supplies
- Technology (Computer with Windows 11 & Printer)

2. Make a Monetary Contribution Please contribute financially toward the category you've selected. This will help avoid duplicate items and ensure all needs are met.

3. How to Donate:

- At Mass – Use the colored envelopes labeled “Sisters of Good News” available at the church doors. Be sure to note the category you are supporting.
- By Mail – Send your donation to the parish office with a note indicating it's for the Sisters of Good News and include the chosen category.
- Online Giving – Visit our parish website and select the donation option for the Sisters of Good News. Don't forget to specify the category in the memo/note section.

Transportation Help:

The Sisters do not yet drive and are preparing to take their learner's permit test. We are looking for parishioners who would be willing to drive them to and from The O'Connell House in Lowell, where they serve during the week. If you are available to help with rides:

- Please call the parish office.
- Provide your name, contact number, and any details about your availability.
- We will pass your information along to the Sisters so they can reach out directly.

Your generosity, prayers, and warm welcome are deeply appreciated as the Sisters continue their ministry among us and at the O'Connell House. Thank you for helping make their new home a place of peace and purpose!

The Sisters of Good News will be speaking at Masses Weekend of June 21st and June 22nd

Sister Vimala, Sister Sophie, Sister Savitha, and Sister Suneetha will be speaking at all of the Masses on the weekend June 21st and 22nd and taking up a collection at the doors of the church to support their mission. Checks can be made out to the O'Connell House. "The O'Connell House is a 13-room residence which provides comprehensive services to women who have been sex trafficked. These women may be pregnant and/or have a small child. It is a place where dignity will be restored and healing can occur." We are looking forward to the Sisters speaking at the Masses. For any questions, please reach out to Chris Kilburn at 978-663-8816.

Jubilee Year 2025: Pilgrims of Hope Why go to Confession during the Jubilee Year?

A Jubilee Year is a time for restoring and renewing damaged relationships. Sin is an act in which we turn away from God. It hurts our relationship with him. When the Lord sees our sorrow for our sins, a desire to avoid sinning, and our humility in confessing our sins, he runs to us with his mercy to restore our relationship with him.

Not only that, we receive the grace to resist the same sins we fall into! This year parishes and pilgrimage sites are offering extra hours for confession to give us the opportunity to receive all the graces God wants to give us.

2025 Catholic Appeal... Forward in Faith

WE ARE CLOSE! LET'S WORK TOGETHER TO REACH THE GOAL!
WE ARE AT 95% OF OUR GOAL! LET'S DO THIS!!

Thank you! We are almost there! Let's reach the goal of $75,800!

We are just $3,714.00 away from our goal from 2025!

We are blessed to have the support of parishioners such as yourself. We show our love and thanks to God by sharing our gifts. Every gift is important, not so much for how much it is, but because of what we become through the act of giving it. The Church itself is one of God's great gifts.

The Catholic Appeal supports many ministries at work here in at St. Matthew Parish. Some examples include the Pro-Life ministry; Faith Formation of Children; Parish Services (with assistance multiple times from various resources at the Pastoral Center – property management, legal, HR, and more); and Divine Worship (the OCIA program). Saint Matthew has relied on the resources at Central Ministries many times, with their knowledge and assistance being invaluable to our parish.

If you have not had a chance to do so, please consider making your gift to the Appeal today by picking up an envelope in your pew, at the back of the church or make an on-line donation at www.bostoncatholicappeal.org , or using the QR code to the right.

Remember-if we reach our goal, a % of the funds are returned to the parish!

HELP NEEDED! St. Paul's Soup Kitchen - May 16th

St. Paul's
soup kitchen

Our Parish continues to provide meals to the St. Paul's Soup Kitchen in Lowell. We are currently feeding approximately 120 individuals every third Friday of each month. If you would like to sign up to make a meal, dessert, or donate items, use this link: <https://www.perfectpotluck.com/SUJQ2825>. The link address does change each month, so please monitor the bulletin or request to be on our monthly email blast for the most current sign-up. Contributions may be dropped off at Father Wilson Hall at St. Andrew's on June 20th from 1-3. We appreciate your continued support of this worthy cause. Questions or comments may be directed to our new Soup Kitchen Coordinators Nicole at nicole.smay@gmail.com or Renee at renee.rogers@wbmason.com.

Welcome into the Church !

Congratulations and God's many blessings to the family of Makai Porter, Layla McDonald, Theodore James, Vincent John, Grace Elizabeth, Felix Ekholm, Desmond Joseph and Lorenzo William who we welcomed into our Faith Community through the waters of Baptism. We wish for them a lifetime of learning about God's great and merciful love. For more information about scheduling the sacrament of Baptism for your child, please contact the Parish Office at 978-663-8816.*

What a wonderful day celebrating Deb Fergus and her retirement!

Surrounded by family, friends, and our faith community, we gathered in a beautiful setting filled with love, laughter, and gratitude. The delicious food and desserts were only matched by the heartfelt appreciation shared for Deb's years of faithful service. A truly special day for a truly special person!

Church Cleaning Help Needed

We are seeking volunteers to help clean our churches on Saturday, June 28, 2025, from 10:00 AM to 1:00 PM. Your assistance in keeping our worship spaces beautiful and welcoming is greatly appreciated. If you are able to help, please contact Heather Murphy at 978-663-8816. Thank you in advance for your generosity and support!

Parish Announcement: Welcome Ann Carroll!

We are very pleased to announce that Ann Carroll has joined St. Matthew the Evangelist Parish as our new Director of Religious Education and Faith Formation.

Ann comes to us with a deep love for her Catholic faith and a long-standing commitment to sharing that faith with others. A parishioner of Mary, Queen of Peace Parish in Medford, Ann has been involved in faith formation for many years—as a catechist, Confirmation teacher, LifeTeen youth ministry volunteer, and parish council member. She has also served as a VIRTUS® Facilitator for the Archdiocese of Boston, helping to ensure safe environments for our young people.

Professionally, Ann brings with her over two decades of experience in leadership, coordination, and communications, including a 20-year tenure at Janis Research Company and, more recently, her work in sales operations and customer success at Lake Shore Cryotronics. Her background in marketing, communications, and event planning is matched by her pastoral heart and joyful desire to help others grow in their relationship with Christ.

Ann holds certificates in Catholic Theology and Evangelization from the Institute for the New Evangelization and is continually enriching her understanding of the faith through ongoing formation with the Archdiocese of Boston.

Ann's personal motto seems to be a heartfelt "yes" to God's call—whether in her parish, in her community, or now in this new ministry at our parish. Welcome, Ann!

Pray the Rosary with the Legion of Mary at St. Theresa on June 22nd

All are invited to join members of the Legion of Mary Prayer Group as they lead us in the recitation of the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary NEXT Sunday, June 22nd at 9:00 am at St. Theresa Church. In addition, you can join the Legion in the recitation of the rosary every Friday at 11:30am at St. Andrew Church. Join them for the rosary, and if you are able, stay for the Daily Mass. "Parishioners who pray the rosary and receive the Eucharist together will unite and strengthen our Parish."

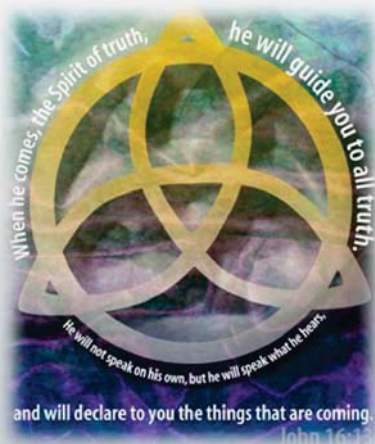

~Father Arthur from Our Lady of Wayside Church

Legion of Mary- Our Lady of Hope

Our members meet every Tuesday at 2:30pm in the Parish Offices at St. Theresa for prayer, planning and discussion in a group setting. In addition, our members go out to perform Spiritual Works of Mercy within our Parish and local community under the guidance of Father Chris.

Our Lady of Hope, pray for us!

Reflection Question of the Week ~ Holy Trinity Sunday

We proclaim the Most Holy Trinity as a mystery of our faith. It is central to our Christian faith and life. The doctrine of the Trinity includes the truth that there are three persons in One God - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. While we will never fully understand this mystery in our lifetime, the creed we profess at Mass is an invitation to an ever deeper understanding of who God is and desires to be for us. The Sign of the Cross and the doxology or "Glory be ..." are two prayers that are easy to say. Use those prayers this week, and as you do so, ask the Holy Spirit to increase your faith in the Trinity.

- Take a moment to reflect on the Glory Be prayer. This prayer recognizes the power and dignity of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
- What does the unity of the Holy Trinity teach us about working together?
- When reciting the creed, take a moment to think about the words as you recite them. Reflect on what they mean to you.

clergytrust
The support of the Clergy Trust means so much in terms of my present situation, and as I'm getting older and needing it more... and also to have the confidence that our elderly priests are treated with the dignity that they deserve.
So it means a lot to all of us.
