SOLEMNITY
of the Most Holy Body and Blood of CHRIST

For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until He comes. 1 Corinthians 11:26

Dear Parishioners,

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ—also known as Corpus Christi. This feast is a precious moment in the life of the Church when we set aside a Sunday to praise and give thanks for the gift of the Eucharist. It is also a time to refresh our understanding and renew our commitment to the Real Presence of Jesus Christ—Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity—in the Blessed Sacrament.

In his classic work The Church's Year of Grace, Pius Parsch writes: “Corpus Christi (Body and Blood of Christ) is a Eucharistic solemnity, or better, the solemn commemoration of the institution of that sacrament. It is, moreover, the Church's official act of homage and gratitude to Christ, who by instituting the Holy Eucharist gave to the Church her greatest treasure. Holy Thursday, assuredly, marks the anniversary of the institution, but the commemoration of the Lord's passion that very night suppresses the rejoicing proper to the occasion. Today's observance, therefore, accents the joyous aspect of Holy Thursday.”

The Mass for Corpus Christi was composed by St. Thomas Aquinas at the request of Pope Urban IV in the year 1264. St. Thomas had a profound devotion to the Eucharistic Lord. In addition to composing today's liturgical prayers, he also wrote the Office of Readings and several beloved Eucharistic hymns: “Adoro Te Devote,” “Pange Lingua,” “O Salutaris Hostia,” and “Tantum Ergo Sacramentum.” A man of immense intellect and theological depth, St. Thomas remains the Church's “go-to” guide for Catholic doctrine—especially through his masterwork, the Summa Theologica. But it is his deep love for the Eucharist that truly reveals the heart of his faith. He once wrote:

“Desirous that we be made partakers of His divinity, the only-begotten Son of God took to Himself our nature, so that having become man, He might make men gods. Whatever He assumed of our nature, He wrought unto our salvation. For on the altar of the Cross, He immolated to the Father His own Body as a victim for our reconciliation, and shed His Blood both for our ransom and our regeneration. Moreover, in order that a remembrance of so great benefits may always remain with us, He left us His Body as food and His Blood as drink under the appearances of bread and wine.”

In the hymn Adoro Te Devote, the sixth verse reads:

“O good and loving pelican, Jesus my Lord!
Unclean I am, but cleanse me in Thy Blood;
Of which a single drop, for sinners spilt,
Is ransom for a world's entire guilt.”

This poetic image of the pelican comes from an ancient legend, predating Christianity. It was believed that in times of famine, a mother pelican would wound herself, striking her breast with her beak to feed her young with her own blood. Another version tells of a mother pelican reviving her dying young at the cost of her own life. Early Christians adopted this powerful image to symbolize Christ, who gave His life to nourish and redeem His children through His Passion and Death. Thus, the pelican became a symbol of the Eucharist: Christ feeding us with His very life.

Although later observations revealed that pelicans do not actually wound themselves in this way, the symbolism remains powerful. One explanation notes that during breeding season, the pouch of the Dalmatian pelican turns red, and they often rest their beaks on their chests—giving rise to the myth that so deeply resonated with the early Church. As one author quipped, “What is not true of the pelican is true of our Lord.” Indeed, Jesus did suffer wounds for our sake—and “by His stripes we are healed” (Isaiah 53:5). Take time at Mass today to reflect and prepare yourself for the worthy reception of Jesus in the Eucharist. Listen closely to the priest's words as he echoes St. John the Baptist: “Behold the Lamb of God, behold Him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the Supper of the Lamb.” You are called to this great Eucharistic feast. Know whom you are receiving.

~Fr. Chris

A New Crucifix for Saint Theresa Church

We are excited to share that a new 10-foot crucifix will soon grace the front of Saint Theresa Church, taking the place of the Jubilee Year emblem that has faithfully adorned our church for the past 25 years. With the beginning of a new Jubilee Year in the Church, this is the perfect moment to lift high the Cross of Christ as a visible sign of our faith, hope, and love.

This beautiful crucifix is being custom-crafted from white oak, stained to match our church doors, and will feature a reverent corpus of Jesus. We are grateful to Barry Clifford and Clifford Construction for bringing their expertise and care to this sacred project.

We would like to invite individuals or families to consider making a donation toward the cost of the crucifix (approximately $10,000). A gift may be made in memory of a loved one, or simply as an offering of devotion. We welcome one sponsor or several, and we will consider a small commemorative plaque.

If you are interested in contributing, please contact the parish office at 978-663-8816.

May the Cross of Christ be our strength and our joy! ~Fr. Chris

Saint Matthew the Evangelist Parish 2025 Christmas Fair

Do you love to knit, sew or crochet while relaxing on the beach or at your favorite lake? Do you enjoy spending the evenings after work or on the weekends creating beautiful pieces? The Saint Matthew the Evangelist Christmas Fair Committee is looking for you and would love to have your inspired designs available for purchase at the annual Christmas Fair on Saturday, December 6, 2025 at Father McCormick Hall on the Saint Theresa Church campus!!

Please reach out to Barbara Solomon at bsolomon70@verizon.net or 978-663-3653 if you have any questions or would like to chat with her further about the types of hand-made crafts that you would be interested in donating. Thank you very much in advance for your time and assistance in making this year's fair a tremendous success!!

St. Matthew Women's Club Update

On June 11th, the St. Matthew the Evangelist Women's Club marked the close of another successful and fun-filled year with a celebratory banquet at Kitty's Restaurant. Members and guests gathered to enjoy a delicious Italian buffet, decadent desserts, and the joy of fellowship.

The evening also served as a heartfelt occasion to recognize the dedication and service of several outstanding members. Paula Moriconi was honored as she concluded her tenure as the Club's treasurer, and Lillian Colby was recognized for her many years of devoted service on the Board. Karen Dillard received the prestigious Angel Award in acknowledgment of her extraordinary contributions and unwavering commitment to the Women's Club.

In addition, the Club is delighted to welcome Mary Reynolds as the newly appointed treasurer. We look forward to her leadership and energy in the year ahead!

To cap off a meaningful evening, the Women's Club proudly presented a $3,000 donation to the Parish to be used wherever it is most needed—a fitting conclusion to a year of generosity, service, and community spirit.

2025 Catholic Appeal

WE ONLY NEED $2,439 TO REACH OUR GOAL!

Thank you! We are almost there! Let's reach the goal of $75,800!

Every gift is important, no for how much it is – but what we become through the act of giving it. The Church is one of God's greatest gifts.

You've heard us mention the good the Catholic Appeal does – right here in Billerica. We are able to use many of the resources and departments at the Pastoral Center – at no charge to the parish. This have saved the parish many thousands of dollars. The Catholic Appeal funds the Central Ministries at the Pastoral Center making all of these resources available.

If you have not had a chance to do so, please consider making your gift to the Appeal today by picking up an envelope in your pew, at the back of the church or make an on-line donation at www.bostoncatholicappeal.org , or using the QR code provided.

Remember-if we reach our goal, a % of the funds are returned to the parish!

St. Matthew Prayer Chain

Would you like to have prayers said for a special intention? Please contact the St. Matthew Prayer Chain by calling Pat at 978-667-0869 or send an email to Charline at admin@billericacatholic.org. If you would like to become a member of the St. Matthew Prayer Chain Group, please leave your information with either Pat or Charline. Thank you for your prayers.

Supporting the Sisters of Good News

Many of you have asked how you can help the Sisters as they continue settling into their new convent home. After some prayerful discernment, the Sisters have shared a list of household needs. To support them, we invite parishioners to participate in a special collection effort.

Here's How You Can Help:

1. Choose a Category to Support:

- Kitchen Items (small & large)
- Linens
- Toiletries
- Household Items
- Cleaning Supplies
- Technology (Computer with Windows 11 & Printer)

2. Make a Monetary Contribution Please contribute financially toward the category you've selected. This will help avoid duplicate items and ensure all needs are met.

3. How to Donate:

- At Mass – Use the colored envelopes labeled “Sisters of Good News” available at the church doors. Be sure to note the category you are supporting.
- By Mail – Send your donation to the parish office with a note indicating it's for the Sisters of Good News and include the chosen category.
- Online Giving – Visit our parish website and select the donation option for the Sisters of Good News. Don't forget to specify the category in the memo/note section.

Transportation Help:

The Sisters do not yet drive and are preparing to take their learner's permit test. We are looking for parishioners who would be willing to drive them to and from The O'Connell House in Lowell, where they serve during the week. If you are available to help with rides:

- Please call the parish office.
- Provide your name, contact number, and any details about your availability.
- We will pass your information along to the Sisters so they can reach out directly.

Your generosity, prayers, and warm welcome are deeply appreciated as the Sisters continue their ministry among us and at the O'Connell House. Thank you for helping make their new home a place of peace and purpose!

FAITH FORMATION UPDATES regarding Class Registration

We are gearing up for registration to open shortly for the 2025-2026 Faith Formation year. Final touches are being put on information so we can get it out there to families.

Similar to years past, we ask that when registration opens, you sign up in order for us to best serve your family. Again this year, we will be offering an early incentive discount for those who register early.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES for Faith Formation

Whether you are a student seeking service hours, a seasoned catechist, retiree, busy parent, first-time volunteer, or someone who is still on the fence about volunteering...EVERYONE IS WELCOME! Essential to the success of our Faith Formation ministry is having a dedicated group of adult and young adult volunteers willing to help and nurture our faith with our youth.

Anointing of the Sick

Just a reminder that the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is available the first FULL weekend of every month at both churches. Anointings will take place after all the Masses to any parishioner who needs this grace. Other dates are available by calling the Parish Office.

Legion of Mary- Our Lady of Hope

Our members meet every Tuesday at 2:30pm in the Parish Offices at St. Theresa for prayer, planning and discussion in a group setting. In addition, our members go out to perform Spiritual Works of Mercy within our Parish and local community under the guidance of Father Chris.

Parish Office Closed the Week of June 30th – July 4th

The Parish Office will be closed the week of June 30 – July 4 to allow our staff a well-deserved opportunity for rest and rejuvenation. We will reopen with our regular business hours on Monday, July 7. The clergy and staff wish you and your loved ones a safe, joyful, and festive Fourth of July holiday!

Update on Church in Father Jean's Village of Dobinga

Less than a year ago, our village of Dobinga in Cameroon received a tremendous blessing: the establishment of our very own parish. Since that moment, our faith community has blossomed in ways we never imagined.

Even without a physical church building—gathering instead under trees, exposed to both rain and sun—our hearts remain ablaze with love for the Gospel. The absence of walls has not dimmed our devotion; it has only deepened our unity and strengthened our commitment to Christ.

This year, we joyfully welcomed 90 new members into the Church through baptism—the very first fruits of our young parish. Their witness is a powerful testimony to God's grace and the deep thirst for Christ that runs through Dobinga and the surrounding communities. ~Father Jean

Prayer Shawls Available

Do you know a parishioner, friend or loved one who is sick, going through a difficult time, experiencing a pregnancy, facing surgery, has lost a loved one or is homebound? Our Prayer Shawl Ministry knits and crochets beautiful prayer shawls for those who could benefit from the warmth of the shawl, along with the comfort of the prayers that were said with each stitch! Shawls are blessed and available at the Parish Office.

Jubilee Year 2025: Pilgrims of Hope

What can I do to participate in the Jubilee Year?

A jubilee year is a time for forgiveness and renewal in our relationship with God. The theme of this year is about hope. Some ways you can participate are:

- Visit and pray at pilgrimage sites
- Join in events around the archdiocese
- Revisit the fundamentals of our faith to bolster your hope in Jesus (Who is Jesus? What did he do? And Why does it matter?)
- Practice works of mercy and be signs of hope to those you encounter
- Receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation more frequently throughout the year
- Share signs of hope on social media. Tag @BostonCatholic and use the hashtag #JubileeYear
- Talk to an acquaintance and get to know him/her better. If a friendship develops, share the reason for hope in Jesus with him or her.

Reflection Question of the Week ~ Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood

MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

This is my body that is for you.

Today, like every Sunday, we celebrate the mystery of our faith that forges our identity and strengthens us to be the very body of Christ that we receive. Celebrating the Body and Blood of Christ always calls us to do what he commanded: to share our lives as he did. The gift we receive and celebrate is the very center and heart of our church, the center and heart of our faith and our lives. So too, it must be the center and heart of our parish life. As we leave Mass today, having received Christ's body and blood, let us pray for our parish and ourselves be more and more Christ-like in all that we say and do.

- How can I express my gratitude for the gift of the Eucharist in my daily life?
- In what ways can I share God's blessings with those in need?
- How can I live out the love and service that the Eucharist calls me to?

A Help Button Should Go Where You Go!

To be truly independent, your personal emergency device needs to work on the go.

MobileHelp® allows you to summon emergency help 24 hours a day, 7 days a week by simply pressing your personal help button. Unlike traditional systems that only work inside your home, a MobileHelp medical alert system extends help beyond the home. Now you can participate in all your favorite activities such as gardening, taking walks, shopping and traveling all with the peace of mind of having a personal alert system with you. MobileHelp, the "on-the-go" help button, is powered by one of the nation's largest cellular networks, so there's virtually no limit to your help button's range.

No landline? No problem! While traditional alert systems require a landline, with the MobileHelp system, a landline is not necessary. Whether you are home or away from home, a simple press of your help button activates your system, providing the central station with your information and location. Our trained emergency operators will know who you are and where you are located. If you're one of the millions of people that have waited for an alert system because it didn't fit your lifestyle, or settled for a traditional system even though it only worked in the home, then we welcome you to try MobileHelp.
