SUNDAY

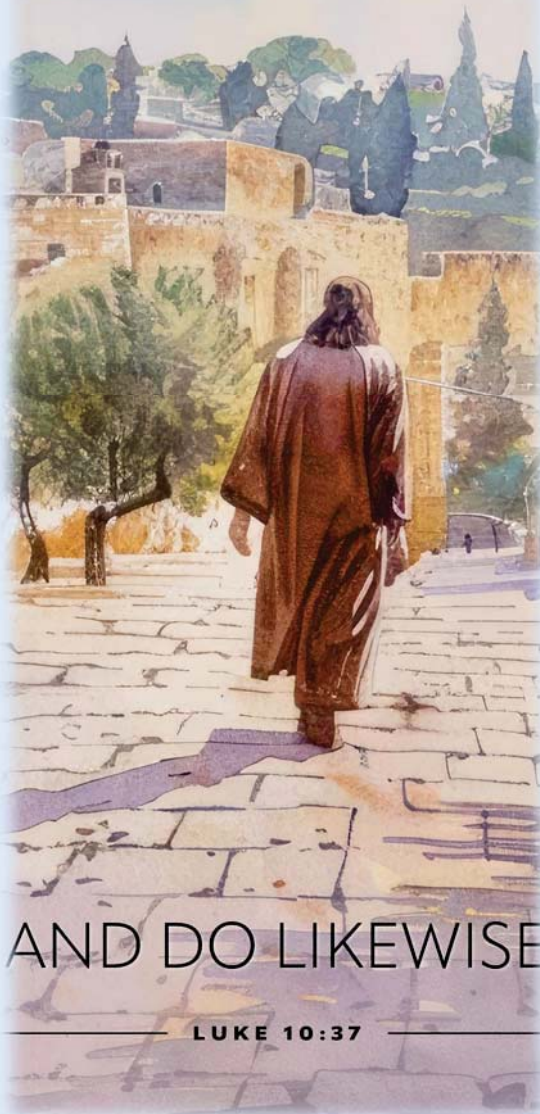

IN ORDINARY TIME

THE PARABLE OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise." Luke 10:36-37

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY

GO

AND DO LIKEWISE

LUKE 10:37

Dear Parishioners,

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the Good Samaritan—a story that would have shocked His original audience. For centuries, deep animosity had existed between Jews and Samaritans, dating back to the Assyrian invasion in 722 BC. The Samaritans, who developed their own form of worship centered on Mount Gerizim, were seen by Jews as heretical. Relations between the two groups were marked by suspicion and hostility. So when Jesus makes a Samaritan the hero of His story—depicting him as the one who shows compassion and mercy—it would have been nothing short of scandalous.

Jesus tells this parable in response to a scholar of the law who asks what he must do to inherit eternal life. Rather than answer directly, Jesus turns the question back to him: "What is written in the law?" The man replies with the familiar words of the Shema and Leviticus: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." Jesus affirms his answer: "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live." But then comes the deeper question: "And who is my neighbor?"

Through the story of the Samaritan, Jesus reveals that our neighbor is not just the one who lives nearby or shares our background, beliefs, or values. Our neighbor is anyone in need—anyone whom God places in our path. The Samaritan becomes a figure of Christ Himself: he sees, stops, helps, and loves without expecting anything in return. His mercy goes beyond all cultural, religious, and personal boundaries.

And in that, Jesus offers us a profound insight: we too are capable of loving as God loves. The Samaritan shows us what that love looks like—generous, sacrificial, freely given. The injured man does nothing to earn such love, and yet it is poured out upon him. That is how God loves us. Not because we are deserving, but because He is merciful.

When we choose to love generously, setting aside our own fears, prejudices, and self-interest, we mirror God's love to others. We become true disciples of Jesus, building up the Kingdom not with grand gestures, but with simple acts of mercy and compassion—seeing every person as a beloved child of God.

May we always be ready to stop for the one in need. May we love our neighbor not in word alone, but in action—and in doing so, may we make God's love known in our world.

In Christ,

~Father Chris

A Note of Thanks from the Sisters of Good News

The Sisters of Good News would like to express their heartfelt gratitude to the parishioners of St. Matthew the Evangelist Parish. Your generous support, kind donations, and warm welcome have meant so much to us as we settle into our new convent home. Thank you for being such a blessing to us. Please know that we are praying for all of you!

With love and gratitude,

~The Sisters of the Good News

A New Crucifix for Saint Theresa Church

We are excited to share that a new 10-foot crucifix will soon grace the front of Saint Theresa Church, taking the place of the Jubilee Year emblem that has faithfully adorned our church for the past 25 years. With the beginning of a new Jubilee Year in the Church, this is the perfect moment to lift high the Cross of Christ as a visible sign of our faith, hope, and love.

This beautiful crucifix is being custom-crafted from white oak, stained to match our church doors, and will feature a reverent corpus of Jesus. We are grateful to Barry Clifford and Clifford Construction for bringing their expertise and care to this sacred project.

We would like to invite individuals or families to consider making a donation toward the cost of the crucifix (approximately $10,000). A gift may be made in memory of a loved one, or simply as an offering of devotion. We welcome one sponsor or several, and we will consider a small commemorative plaque.

If you are interested in contributing, please contact the parish office at 978-663-8816.

May the Cross of Christ be our strength and our joy!

~ Fr. Chris

Join us for A Blessed Morning with the Legion of Mary

Members will also be available to answer questions and share about the many Spiritual Works of Mercy they joyfully carry out in our community.

In addition, you are warmly invited to their weekly recitation of the rosary held at St. Andrew Church EVERY Friday at 11:30am or to visit one of their meetings— every Tuesday at 2:30 PM in the Parish Offices at St. Theresa. 2025 Catholic Appeal THANK YOU SAINT MATTHEW FRIENDS! WE HAVE REACHED OUR 2025 GOAL!!

Thanks to the incredible generosity of our parish community, we have reached our Annual Appeal goal of $75,800! It has been several years (more than 6) since we have reached our goal. Because we met our goal, St. Matthew will receive a rebate back to support our parish ministries directly.

We are deeply grateful to the families who contributed. Your commitment to stewardship has been inspiring, with more parishioners giving (and giving more). Thank you! This success is not just a financial milestone—it's a reflection of your faith, generosity, and shared vision for our church, parish, and archdiocese. Thank you for your faithful support!

Donations Honoring our Loved Ones...

Every month, we will provide the opportunity to donate the Altar Bread ($80.00), wine ($50.00), candles ($75.00), and missals ($200.00) to be used in our parish that month. Jubilee Year 2025: Pilgrims of Hope How can I be the "sign of hope?"

Hope comes from knowing Jesus Christ's mercy and love for you personally. Before we can share hope, we must know the hope that is in Jesus. Here are a few ways you can share the hope you have:

- When another Christian is discouraged or despairing, remind them that our hope is in Jesus, who offers us the opportunity to go to heaven.
- Perform spiritual and corporal works of mercy.

Spiritual works of mercy include ~ pray for the living and the dead, bear wrongs patiently, forgive offences willingly and comfort the afflicted.

Corporal works of mercy include ~ visit the sick, feed the hungry, bury the dead, and give drink to the thirsty.

Share with others who may not have a relationship with Our Lord the reason for your hope in him (cf. 1 Peter 3:15).

You can learn more about the Jubilee and being signs of hope here: bit.ly/JubileeOfHope.

Homebound Ministry

Jesus lets it be known very clearly that we are called to visit the sick and homebound. We are His hands and feet, and it is up to us to bring the Eucharist to those who are unable to attend Mass. We are very blessed at St. Matthew Parish to have a volunteer ministry who carry out this work. If you know of someone who is in need of a visit with one of our ministers or a parish priest for the Sacrament of Reconciliation or the Anointing of the Sick, reach out to the parish office at 978-663-8816. If you would like to know more about this ministry and ways that you can help, please reach out to the parish office as well. Our list of homebound parishioners continues to grow especially during the winter months while our list of volunteer ministers does not. We thank you for your continued prayers for this very important ministry!

“THANK YOU” to the many volunteers — from our dedicated parishioners to the wonderful members of our Teen Ministry Program — who worked so hard to clean our two church locations. Your time, effort, and care have made our worship spaces clean, welcoming, and truly beautiful for all who come to pray and gather in faith. Your dedication brings new life to our parish community and reminds us of the blessing of serving together. ‘

“Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God’s grace in its various forms.”

— 1 Peter 4:10

Reflection Question of the Week ~ 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"... heed the voice of the LORD, your God, and keep his commandments and statutes ...," Moses reminds us that the commandments are readily accessible. The command, simply put is - Love God, love your neighbor. That commandment is made abundantly clear to us in the parable of the Good Samaritan that Jesus presents in today's gospel. Who is "my neighbor" that needs assistance today? We don't have to look very hard to see who that might be. As we heard in the first reading, we have the ability, it is "already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out." Jesus not only challenges us to be responsive, he also promises to give us the grace we need to carry out his command.

- The parable of the Good Samaritan challenges us to act with compassion, even when it is not easy.
- Who are the "neighbors" you find it hardest to love?
- How can Jesus help you let go of excuses and choose kindness?
- What small step can you take to be a better neighbor to those around you?
