

Saint Mary Parish ♦ Winchester, MA

St. Mary Parish is a Roman Catholic church called to love as a Eucharistic Community in order to fulfill each member's baptismal mission to evangelize the world as disciples of Jesus Christ.

3RD SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life."

John 4:13-14

“For in the celebration of the Mass, in which the Sacrifice of the Cross is perpetuated, Christ is really present in the very assembly gathered in his name, in the person of the minister, in his word, and indeed substantially and uninterruptedly under the Eucharistic species.”

General Instruction of the Roman Missal, no. 27

“For in the Mass is spread the table both of God’s Word and of the Body of Christ, and from it the faithful are to be instructed and refreshed.”

Reflection on Sacred Scripture for the Third Sunday of Lent

What was the Samaritan woman looking for in those six men? Pope Benedict XVI wrote that “she thirsts for life itself and that all the assuaging that she seeks and finds cannot slake this living, elemental thirst... There comes to light the real dilemma, the deep seated waywardness, of her existence: she is brought face to face with herself.” What brings this about is an encounter with Jesus. From our own deep thirst for love, for salvation, for meaning, we give ourselves to the One who in his thirst asks us for a drink, just as he will thirst – thirst for our souls – from the cross. We are certain that at last we will “have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.” Our “hope does not disappoint.” We will not die in our thirst. The Lord is in our midst. Finally satisfaction can happen; this is the Love we have been waiting for.

“When the Sacred Scriptures are read in the Church, God himself speaks to his people, and Christ, present in his own word, proclaims the Gospel.”

General instruction of the Roman Missal, no 29

Lenten Practices

Prayer

*Let all my world be silent in your presence, Lord
So that I may hear what you may say in my heart.
Your words are so softly spoken that no one can hear them, except in deep silence.*

*But to sit alone and listen in silence is to rise completely above our natural powers,
It is to rise above our selves.*

Guigo II

Whether prayer is expressed in words or gestures, it is the whole man who prays. But in naming the source of prayer, Scripture speaks sometimes of the soul or spirit, but most often of the heart (more than a thousand times). According to Scripture, it is the heart that prays. If our heart is far from God, the words of prayer are in vain...The heart is our hidden center, beyond the grasp of our reason and of others; only the Spirit of God can fathom the human heart and know it fully...It is the place of truth, where we choose life or death. It is the place of encounter, because as image of God we live in relation: it is the place of covenant.

Catechism of the Catholic Church 2562, 2563

"For me, prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy." ~ St. Therese of Lisieux (CCC 2558)

"Raise your heart frequently, but gently and with peace, to God."

~ Venerable Bruno Lanteri

"Prayer can have many expressions, personal and communal. But we must above all live its essence, listening to God who speaks to us, conversing with us as children in a "face to face" dialogue filled with trust and love."

~ Saint John Paul II

"Even more than a duty, prayer is an expression of our need to respond to God's love which always precedes and sustains us. Christians pray in the knowledge that, although unworthy, we are still loved."

~ Pope Francis

KEEPING THE FAITH

“One of the meanings of penitential fasting is to help us recover an interior life. The effort of moderation in food also extends to other things that are not necessary, and this is a great help to the spiritual life.

Moderation, recollection and prayer go hand in hand.”

Penitential Fasting is Therapy for the Soul, Sunday Angelus, 10 March 1996, Saint John Paul II

Lent: Fasting

“It (fasting) better disposes us for prayer... it reminds us of our frailty and helps us be more humble. Without humility, prayer, and then our experience of God, really can't be unlocked. Fasting helps make more room for God in our life.”

Monsignor Charles Pope, pastor, Holy Comforter/St. Cyprian Catholic Church, Washington D.C.

St. Mary's Weekly Wednesday Rosary Group

Please come join the weekly Rosary Group every Wednesday at 9:00 am in the Lower Church with coffee served after. It's "drop in" so come whenever you can - no pressure to commit to every week or rsvp. If you're new to The Rosary - no worries - we have booklets to follow along with and we will help you. We are a welcoming intergenerational group of Parishioners who love our Blessed Mother Mary and want to spend time in her loving peaceful presence. She is always bringing us closer to her son Jesus. What's better than that!! Please reach out to Vera Ossen (ossen@verizon.net) or Brenda Outwater Mandile (btmandile@comcast.net) with any questions.

There's Still Time! Join Our Choirs for Easter!

Festival Easter Children's Choir

The return of the Children's Choir at Christmas this year was a wonderful sign of our parish being reinvigorated after the two year hiatus due to the pandemic. It is now time to begin rehearsals for the Festival Easter Children's Choir. Children ages 7-13 are invited to join the choir with no prior singing experience necessary. The children will sing on Easter Sunday at the 11:00 a.m. Mass. The rehearsals will take place in the upper church from 6:00-6:55 the following Sunday evenings: March 12, March 19, March 26, and April 2. It is hoped that many young people will continue this parish tradition. May our hearts be ready to proclaim that Christ is truly risen from the grave and into our lives through the inspired voices of our youngest parishioners. For more information, please contact Jane O'Keefe at jokeefe@stmaryswinchester.org.

Adult Easter Choir

If you've considered joining the Sunday 11:00 choir but were afraid of the time commitment, you are welcome to add your voice to the choir for the Liturgies of Holy Week. The choir will rehearse from 7:00-9:00 on the following Sunday evenings: March 12, March 19, March 26, and April 2. The choir is a 25 member SATB group whose members range in age from the teens through 80 something. You do not need to be able to sight-read to become a member. All are welcome to join this wonderful group of singers. If you are looking to add a new dimension to your Lenten practice, there could be no better way than to give your time and talent to the choir. You will come to appreciate the church's most sacred rituals as a more tangible experience as you sing through Christ's Last Supper, walk the road to Calvary on Good Friday and proclaim Christ's resurrection at the Easter Vigil. For more information, contact Jane O'Keefe at jokeefe@stmaryswinchester.org.

Novena

Annunciation Novena: March 16-24;
Feast Day: March 25

Ever-blessed Virgin, Mother of God, Throne of Grace, Miracle of Almighty Power! I greet you, Sanctuary of the Most Holy Trinity and Queen of the Universe, Mother of Mercy and Refuge of Sinners! Most loving Mother, attracted by your beauty and sweetness, and by your tender compassion, I confidently turn to you, miserable as I am, and beg of you to obtain for me from your dear Son the favor I request in this novena: (mention our request). Obtain for me also, Queen of Heaven, the most lively contrition for my many sins and the grace to imitate closely those virtues, which you practiced so faithfully, especially humility, purity, and obedience. Above all, I beg you to be my Mother and Protectress, to receive me into the number of your devoted children, and to guide me from your high throne of glory. Do not reject my petitions, Mother of Mercy! Have pity on me, and do not abandon me during life or at the moment of my death. Amen. (Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be).

SEVERE FATIGUE? CHRONIC PAIN? TAKE YOUR LIFE BACK!

This is what it's like to suffer from Fibromyalgia.

Fibromyalgia symptoms make everyday life incredibly difficult and daily tasks nearly impossible. More often than not, these symptoms are made worse by practitioners that find it difficult to understand and even more troublesome to treat.
