Father

ROBINSON ORTIZ AND PARISH COMMUNITY

St. Augustine Parish

Archdiocese of Chicago

Please accept our prayers, in which we entrust your ministry to the Priestly Heart of Jesus, together with your parish community, so that your witness may continue to be “the light of the world and the salt of the earth,” under the maternal protection of Mary Most Holy.

We thank God and you, Father Robinson, for making it possible for our Congregation to live this wonderful experience of sharing our spirituality and charism in the Americas, directly in the Archdiocese of Chicago.

From the very beginning, you embraced our project as your own, opening doors, seeking the best direction so that everything would develop in the best possible way, practicing one of the great virtues of generosity, where you spared no time, resources, or details so that our consecrated life would have all the necessary resources and thus generate our maximum well-being.

By introducing us to the parish community through your testimony of life, highlighting the significance of the Servants in your vocational process, you ensured that each person and each family welcomed us with such overflowing love that we feel indebted to both you and the parish community.

The Congregation is deeply grateful for your testimony of life, your generosity, your thoughtful gestures, and your great capacity for sharing, echoing the ecclesial spirit of synodality: listening, communion, and participation.

The Congregation can only express its gratitude to you as leader and pastor of that part of the Church, as well as to each member of the parish community for welcoming us into your home and not only giving us your time but also sharing your goods with our community, dignifying the vulnerability of women in all stages of life.

Our experience fills us with hope, knowing that on this synodal journey we find open doors and hearts willing to listen to us and help us in this mission to dignify the lives of those women who have suffered the harshness of our society.

For the Congregation, knowing that many other entities, groups, and independent individuals have joined our mission to dignify female vulnerability is a great blessing.

Each of the girls, young women, and elderly women who benefit from your significant and wonderful contribution send you greetings filled with gratitude in the Lord for being part of this process of dignifying their lives. Each of them commits to praying for your lives and your mission so that the Lord will reward your generosity and love with health and well-being.

To you, Father Robinson, may Our Lady, the Virgin Mary, who carried the High and Eternal Priest in her womb, accompany and guide your life and ministry in the mission entrusted to you in that part of the Church.

You can always count on our fraternal affection and continuous prayer, and we await you here with a heart full of gratitude and the doors of our homes open to welcome you whenever you visit our beloved Colombia.

Warm greetings to you and to each member of your parish community.

Sincerely,

Sister Ana Inés Rincón Barbosa
