Gospel Reflection, Director of Evangelization

When I have an opportunity to present, I always remind my audience of their identity as sons and daughters of the King. In general, we are in an identity crisis. Many, simply do not know to whom they belong. When you know who you belong to, you have a greater purpose for why you do and believe what you believe. Over 250 women from the Avon Catholic community will gather this week to prepare our hearts for Advent at Advent by Candlelight. What are we preparing for? Chaos? Worldly things? Or, is it the joy of how a King, in the humblest way, comes to us as an infant.

Children love fairy tales. When I have the opportunity to speak to the youngest members of our church, the key to getting their attention is sharing with them that they are the princes and princesses of a King and have a royal identity. Faces light up! Children want to know to whom they belong; they need to know that they have a royal bloodline. And it is our responsibility, as those baptized as priest, prophet, and king, to share this beautiful identity with every member of the one, true body of Christ. When I explain why we genuflect, the kids instantly recognize that as an act of royalty. The heart of the explanation always comes down to understanding our identity. We genuflect to the King of the Universe, and this very thing is what we celebrate today: His identity and our identity.

Mr. Kaufhold's favorite adoration song is All Hail King Jesus, by Jeremy Riddle. I invite you to listen to this particular song on this special day. The chorus gets me every time, "All Hail King Jesus, All Hail the Lord of Heaven and Earth. All Hail the Savior of the World." May every knee bend today as we prepare our hearts for the King of Kings.

Jesus, I trust in You!

Holy Mary, Mother of God, Pray for us.

O' Most Holy Trinity, we adore You!

Desiree Gould, M.Ed

Director of Evangelization

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

As for you, my sheep, says the Lord GOD,
I will judge between one sheep and another,
between rams and goats. (Ez 34:17)

Psalm:

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
(Ps 23)

Second Reading:

When everything is subjected to him,
then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him, so that God may be all in all. (1 Cor 15:28)

Gospel:

"When the Son of Man comes in his glory,
and all the angels with him,
he will sit upon his glorious throne,
and all the nations will be assembled before him.
And he will separate them one from another,
as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats."
(Mt 25:31-32)
