As we start 2024, what is “your word,” for the New Year?

Father Hawk: Community.

“Our God is a community. Avon is a community. Our parish is a community.”

Seminarian Sean: Patience.

“When I try to do things on my timeline instead of God’s timeline, it does not end well. I want to be more patient with others and myself this year.”

Karen Boehm, Operations/Executive Assistant: Hope.

“I eagerly anticipate 2024 and all of the exciting opportunities for our parish communities to grow together spiritually, prayerfully and socially. My hope is that each receives the good fortune to make lasting memories with family and friends.”

Michael Modzeleski, Co-Principal Holy Trinity: Joy.

“This coming year I hope to spread joy as Jesus did to all those he encountered. I also am going to challenge myself to find the joy in those moments that it might not be as clear. Any situation is what we make of it and that is my outlook in 2024.”

Helen Herbst, Music Minister: Moment.

“Live in the moment. God is not in the past with its regrets. God is not in the future of doubts and fears and plans we cannot see. God is in the timeless now, in this moment. This is where He waits for us to find Him.”

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I remember the first time my older sister asked me if I wanted to hold her newborn son. Terrified, I told her I didn't think it was a good idea. My résumé had nothing to suggest I would be a qualified baby holder. But she warmly told me, "I'll help you hold him." It struck me that she is baby's mother. She is the one who decides who is qualified to hold him. I took him in my arms and soon I began to feel comfortable with that tiny little warm cooing creature in my arms, and soon I no longer feared holding him. Now, twenty-seven nieces and nephews later, holding a newborn child is one of the great joys of my life.

Do we sometimes think that Jesus is given only to the highly qualified, special religious people? In the Gospel of Luke today we hear about the presentation of the Lord in the temple. The newborn son of God is passed around like a baton in a relay race, not guarded like a precious jewel or a breakable china dish. We can see him going from the arms of Mary to Joseph, then to the priest performing the ceremony, then to Simeon the old man, then to Anna the old widow. Each one receiving him and then handing him to the next. A tidal wave of joy and thanksgiving follows wherever he is placed.

Believe me, you are qualified to hold Jesus in your arms. How can I say that with such confidence? Because the mother decides who is qualified. The Blessed Virgin, embodied in the Church, holds him out to you and me. She rejoices to place him in our arms to hold, and to hand him on, too.

— Father John Muir

The Sword and the Family

In the first few weeks of parenthood, the tears flowed fast and freely, and with very little provocation.

Sometimes I wept because it was getting dark out, and sometimes because the sun was coming up. Sometimes I wept because the days were so unbearably long. Sometimes I wept because they were so cruelly short and slipped past so quickly, bearing away with them forever these inaugural moments of my daughter's life — moments I knew I would long for on my deathbed.

So, the inclusion of the Presentation of Christ in the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary has always struck me. The Blessed Mother, just a few weeks after giving birth, standing at the holy temple: Is she tired? Is she emotional? Is she frightened? Is she happy? We cannot know for sure, but if she is anything like most of the postpartum women I know, she is all four. But she stands there dutifully, offering her baby to the Lord, and this is what she is told, "A sword shall pierce your heart."

Joyful? I would have snatched the baby back, called the police and sobbed for a week.

But Mary knows that Simeon speaks the truth, and she cannot receive God's will with anything less than joy, even if it means a pierced heart.

Family means love, but love means — what, exactly? Pleasure, fulfillment, contentment? Yes, but so much more, too. Love means you have much to lose.

How full is family life with these beautiful moments which, on the surface, look and feel painful — but hold within them the opportunity to be like Mary, to bow our heads and once again say "Yes, Lord."

"Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another..." — Colossians 3:12

Dear Holy Trinity Parish Families,

Last year, Angel Scholarship Fund (ASF) donations amounted to $130,000 which was used to help reduce the tuition for 92 students at Holy Trinity School (HTS). The ASF allows you to direct a portion of your Ohio state income taxes towards supporting HTS.

It's crucial to highlight that this isn't just a deduction – it's a tax credit. When you donate to this fund, every dollar you give serves as a credit on your taxes up to $750 per single filer or $1,500 per married couple filing jointly.

Timing is of the essence with respect to this initiative. While contributions made by April 15, 2024 will apply to the 2023 tax year, only donations made by January 31, 2024 can be used for the upcoming 2024/2025 school year. Donations after January 31, 2024 will apply to the 2025/2026 school year.

It is essential to recognize the significance of the ASF even in light of the existence of Ed Choice funding. While Ed Choice provides substantial assistance, certain families may not qualify for significant support. The ASF serves as a crucial supplemental resource, particularly for those families facing financial constraints in the context of escalating educational costs.

In the past year, we proudly ranked among the top five parishes with the highest amount of donations. With your continued support this will lighten the parish subsidy toward the school and grow the offerings for our parish community. In essence it is a win-win-win. We thank you for your continued support toward Catholic education.

To donate to the ASF visit www.catholiccommunity.org/angel and select Holy Trinity - Avon - #54.

Thank you in advance for your consideration to support this important initiative!

For more information about ASF, please consult with your tax advisor, contact Colleen Stalla, CPA for Holy Trinity Parish at 440-937-6420 or finance@htsavon.org. You can also visit www.catholiccommunity.org/angel or call 216-902-1312.

Be an angel today,

Your Taxes. Their Tuition. OUR FUTURE

The Angel Scholarship Program allows you to keep Ohio State Income Taxes at Holy Trinity.

Last year we raised over $100,000 to provide tuition assistance for our community.

ANGEL SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Turning taxes into tuition

YOU WILL RECEIVE A 100% OHIO INCOME TAX CREDIT OF UP TO
$750 ($1500 JOINT FILING)
AGAINST YOUR 2023 STATE TAX LIABILITY. IN OTHER WORDS. THE
ANGEL SCHOLARSHIP FUND IS A WIN-WIN-WIN FOR TAXPAYER
DONORS, SCHOLARSHIP
RECIPIENTS, AND HOLY TRINITY.

This year we were able to award money to everyone who applied making
Catholic Education more affordable.
Pastor Vince Hawk

It is a blessing to have the opportunity to send my tax dollars to Holy Trinity School to benefit my children and all of our school and parish families.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"Your own issue shall be your heir."
The Lord took Abram outside and said,
"Look up at the sky and count the stars, if you can.
Just so," he added, "shall your descendants be."
(Gn 3:4-5)

Psalm:

The Lord remembers his covenant for ever. (Ps 105)

Second Reading:

By faith he received power to generate,
even though he was past the normal age
—and Sarah herself was sterile. (Heb 11:11)

Gospel:

The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom;
and the favor of God was upon him. (Lk 2:40)
