GOSPEL REFLECTION

This week, we read how a leper who was made clean went and publicized what Jesus had done despite Jesus asking him to tell no one.

I can't blame the guy. Once we encounter Jesus, we want everyone to know. These past couple of weeks have been filled with beautiful moments in which the Avon Catholic community gathered together in various ways and shared Jesus. I find myself in a position to want to publicize and share that joyful and good news.

Catholic Schools week was full of excitement and energy for St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception and Holy Trinity. It was incredible watching as administrators and faculty provided opportunities to celebrate and share the good news of our faith each day; the Holy Spirit filled the halls with joy and laughter. Holy Trinity created a LipDub to finish the week, which has been shared on social media.

St. Mary's hosted a pancake breakfast, and Holy Trinity had a spaghetti dinner, again full of the faithful gathered together in community.

The week ended with a wonderful Theology of the Body Introduction course hosted by TOB CLE. The course was full of engaging speakers and provided a better understanding of the goodness of our creation - we had so many positive reviews. It is with excitement that I can say we look forward to this continued partnership.

The St. Mary's PTU hosted a lovely fundraiser, Winterfest, with a "Roaring 20s" theme filled with great joy on Saturday evening. What a fun night!

This past Tuesday, the parents of our Avon Catholic first communicants gathered together in prayer as they work to prepare their child to receive the Eucharist.

What a week! God is good! Each day, I encounter Jesus in this community, within the people, who in their way are publicizing what Jesus has done - and I absolutely love it!

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"As long as the sore is on him he shall declare himself unclean, since he is in fact unclean. He shall dwell apart, making his abode outside the camp." (Lv 13:8)

Psalm:

I turn to you, Lord, in time of trouble, and you fill me with the joy of salvation. (Ps 32)

Second Reading:

Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God. (1Cor 10:31)

Gospel:

Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, "I do will it. Be made clean." The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean. (Mk 1:41-42)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

It was pity that moved the heart of Jesus to heal the leper. He worked this miracle because the leper, in his faith, boldly asked him to. Have that same courage in approaching God with your needs. Have that same faith in His power to heal.
