GOSPEL REFLECTION

Here we are on our second Sunday of Lent. How is your Lent going? Where is your heart? We are just beginning our climb to the top of the mountain. Sacrifice and prayer often have many rewards but, without a doubt, bring challenges. Every strong relationship requires sacrifice.

Think about the way husbands and wives sacrifice for each other or their children. Just this past weekend, I had the opportunity to spend an evening with my daughter in a mall overnight lock-in. It was beautiful to see her excitement, but I indeed sacrificed sleep. Yet, I was blessed to meet other mothers and daughters who shared in both sacrifice and joy.

Last Wednesday, I witnessed Fr. Deo, who had little rest since returning home from a family funeral in Tanzania, preside over multiple Ash Wednesday masses, have a surprise preschool visit, and provide an orientation to a new priest in the diocese. He had to be so tired, yet he did all of this with a smile. A sacrifice he made to the Church.

When reading the scriptures for this weekend, my heart and mind instantly went to the words of the second reading, "Brothers and sisters: If God is for us, who can be against us?" Often, I think that is the interesting part of our Lenten journey. Who, like God, is supporting us, who is FOR US? We are in the desert, and we desire to be with Peter, John, and James at the top of the mountain. We yearn for that encounter. And with our sacrifice, giving, and prayer, we do what we can to stay focused on Jesus. And yet, sometimes we hear a discouraging word, a voice not supporting us in our relationship with Jesus. It is in these moments that we must remember who is FOR US - who is supporting, encouraging, and loving us on this road to holiness. May you continue to have a blessed Lent.

Revival Starts Here,
Desi Gould, Director of Evangelization

CATHOLICS COMING HOME Do you know of someone who has left the Catholic Church? As baptized, practicing Catholics, we have a precious gift of faith from the Lord with the directive to share our faith with those who are not practicing. Many inactive Catholics are waiting for an invitation to return. For a variety of reasons, some mistakenly think they are excommunicated and are not welcome. The Avon Catholic Community is partnering with St. Raphael for their program called Catholics Coming Home, which helps non-practicing Catholics return to the Church in a welcoming, non-judgmental atmosphere. The six-week series takes place at St. Raphael and begins Sunday, April 7 at 5:00 p.m. Pick up a pamphlet after Mass and send it to someone who might be interested. Feel free to accompany someone to the program if it would make them feel more comfortable. To register or for questions, please call Deacon Larry Gregg at 440-360-7738

Holy Trinity Compassion in Action

BEDDING DRIVE

This can be done by making a donation or helping with the build and delivery of the beds. As a nonprofit, donations are imperative!

Donations are being accepted 3/2 - 3/10. Place an envelope marked SIHP in the collection basket at mass or mail to the church. Make checks payable to Holy Trinity. Twin Size Sheets, Comforters, Pillows and Mattress Protectors can be dropped off in collection bins in the back of the church.

Saint of the week

Blessed Carlo Acutis was born in 1991 and is the first millennial to be beatified. Despite dying of leukemia at age 15, he developed a website that showcases Eucharistic Miracles around the world, demonstrating that holiness knows no age.

Prayer of Trust

Dear Lord,
Your ways confuse me sometimes. Often, I don't fully understand what You are doing. But I believe that You are working in a way that will one day make sense. Until then, keep me close to You, trusting blindly in the ways You lead me. Amen.

From the Office of Care & Consolation Minister, Tammie Frank (ext. 233)

The next Bereavement Gathering will take place on TODAY -Sunday, Feb. 25 from 1-2:30 p.m. in the parish office.

In this Apostolate, a parishioner prays one holy hour for one assigned priest each week. Now included in this ministry are Fr. Deogratias and Fr. Cleaton. By adding these members of clergy, the group is seeking seven sisters for each priest. If interested call the parish office and ask to be put into contact with Eileen Schlather.
