GOSPEL REFLECTION

These past few weeks have been busy, yet we have so much ahead. Within the next month, we will have one hundred forty-six Confirmadi deepening their communion with the Church. In addition, we have 137 first communicants making First Reconciliation this weekend and next. I invite you to continue to pray for all of our young people as they encounter Jesus in these Sacraments. God is good!

As we journey through Lent, I invite you to look at the Stations of the Cross schedule. I am very excited to see the Living Stations hosted by Elyria Catholic on March 22. In addition, there is a soup dinner to begin our fellowship in prayer that evening in the Holy Trinity gym. Be sure to RSVP. I pray we all continue to find ways to embrace this beautiful Lenten season.

Recently, I was in a conversation with Andrew Herbst. He serves the Avon Catholic community in many ways with music and maintenance, and he is preparing to start at Borromeo Seminary in the fall. Please be sure to keep him in your prayers, too. We discussed our favorite liturgical seasons, and I shared how I love Advent and Lent. How we prepare our hearts for Christmas and Easter feels special to me as a mom.

However, Andrew said, I love the Triduum, the time from sundown on Holy Thursday to Easter Sunday. These days are often called the most solemn part of our liturgical year. Lent leads us to Holy Week; these special days ultimately change everything. I am a big fan of the Chosen, and one of my favorite lines in the show is when Mary says, "People Must Know!" This is how I felt when Andrew described the beauty of Lent and the Triduum - three days, but they are his favorite! This stuck with me, and I was reminded of the goodness in those days this week when Jesus says in the Gospel, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."

Friends, if you are feeling tired or unsure, let me remind you that a lot can happen in just three days! People must know what we are preparing for. Jesus, I trust in you!

Revival Starts Here,

Desi Gould, Director of Evangelization

CATHOLICS COMING HOME Do you know of someone who has left the Catholic Church? As baptized, practicing Catholics, we have a precious gift of faith from the Lord with the directive to share our faith with those who are not practicing. Many inactive Catholics are waiting for an invitation to return. For a variety of reasons, some mistakenly think they are excommunicated and are not welcome. The Avon Catholic Community is partnering with St. Raphael for their program called Catholics Coming Home, which helps non-practicing Catholics return to the Church in a welcoming, non-judgmental atmosphere. The six-week series takes place at St. Raphael and begins Sunday, April 7 at 5:00 p.m. Pick up a pamphlet after Mass and send it to someone who might be interested. Feel free to accompany someone to the program if it would make them feel more comfortable. To register or for questions, please call Deacon Larry Gregg at 440-360-7738

There will be a procession to the gym at the end of Mass where the Blessed Sacrament will remain for a prayer vigil until 9:50 p.m. At that time we will close with Night Prayer.
