GOSPEL REFLECTION

Here it is, my favorite scripture.

“Amen, amen, I say to you,
unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and
dies,
it remains just a grain of wheat;
but if it dies, it produces much fruit.”

To understand why this scripture is important, you need to know that this is the key scripture for Northcoast Spirit Teens Encounter Christ (TEC). Have you ever considered making a TEC weekend? It is an incredible retreat, and despite the name, it is multi-generational. I was blessed to serve as this community's chairperson for eight years. The retreat is centered around the Paschal Mystery. As a matter of fact, Fr. Pat Anderson currently serves as the spiritual director for this retreat community. Fr. Pat would love to answer any questions you might have about this special retreat.

As a young adult, I attended a TEC retreat, which changed my life. I encountered Christ in a new and profound way. I discovered a deep love for service, the type of service that requires us to die to our own desires and needs in order to best love the people around us. TEC finds ways to remind us of the goodness of community and the beauty of being a member of the Church—the way we all care and love each other. It is when we die to self, taking on the sacrificial love of Christ crucified, that we can bear much fruit like that grain of wheat. We are a church fully alive! One of the greatest gifts I have received from the TEC community has been friendships centered on faith. Christ has shown himself through the beautiful people I have met throughout the diocese on a TEC retreat. I invite you to pray about making a future TEC weekend; visit www.northcoastspirittec.com for more information.

Revival Starts Here,
Desi Gould, Director of Evangelization

CATHOLICS COMING HOME Do you know of someone who has left the Catholic Church? As baptized, practicing Catholics, we have a precious gift of faith from the Lord with the directive to share our faith with those who are not practicing. Many inactive Catholics are waiting for an invitation to return. For a variety of reasons, some mistakenly think they are excommunicated and are not welcome. The Avon Catholic Community is partnering with St. Raphael for their program called Catholics Coming Home, which helps non-practicing Catholics return to the Church in a welcoming, non-judgmental atmosphere. The six-week series takes place at St. Raphael and begins Sunday, April 7 at 5 p.m. Pick up a pamphlet after Mass and send it to someone who might be interested. Feel free to accompany someone interested. Register/questions: Deacon Larry Gregg (440) 360-7738.

This Lenten Season please keep our Catechumens and Candidates in your prayers as they deepen and renew their journey in Faith.

Catechumens: Grayson Armbruster and Kristen Roemer
Candidates: Linda Schubert, Leanne Lebsla and Elizabeth Vamospercsi

Avon Catholic Community Holy Week Schedule

Holy Thursday: 7:00 p.m. Mass of the Lord's Supper (location: Holy Trinity)*

Good Friday: 3:00 p.m. The Passion of the Lord (Holy Trinity) -and- 7:00 p.m. (St. Mary) **

Holy Saturday: 11:00 a.m. Easter basket and food blessing (Holy Trinity & St. Mary)

Easter Vigil: 9:00 p.m. Each parish will hold an Easter Vigil Mass at this time.

Easter Sunday: Each parish will follow their traditional Sunday Mass schedule.

*The Holy Thursday Mass of the Lord's Supper will have ministries shared between both parishes including lector, Eucharistic ministers, altar servers and choir. All parishioners are welcome to participate in the washing of feet. Those wishing to have their feet washed should bring a towel from home. You will be called forward at the appropriate time for foot washing. Upon reaching the provided chair, parishioners should remove one shoe and sock only. Females are asked to kindly wear pants.

There will be a procession to the gym at the end of Mass where the Blessed Sacrament will remain for a prayer until 9:50 p.m. At that time we will close with Night Prayer.

**The Divine Mercy Novena will be prayed at 11 a.m. prior to the basket/food blessing at Holy Trinity.

Food Blessings at Easter are an anticipation of the great feast after 40 days of fasting. Foods that will be eaten for the first meal on Easter are brought to church in decorated baskets to be blessed. This custom originated at a time when Easter Vigil Mass was celebrated on the morning of Holy Saturday, so many may remember bringing fully prepared meals to church, and going home to eat them on Saturday afternoon. When the Holy Week liturgies were reformed in the 1950s, the Church clarified that Holy Saturday should be a day of great silence, and festivities that had become meaningful to the community should be more subdued or postponed until Easter Sunday. For our food blessings, all are welcome to bring either ingredients or prepared foods in their baskets to carry on the tradition, but as we continue to wait with Jesus in the tomb, the churches will not be decorated, and the new holy water not yet blessed.

With the academic year coming to a close, Seminarian Sean's assignment here at the Avon Catholic Community will conclude. During his time here, Sean has supported many ministries in countless ways.

From training new altar servers, prepping our junior high students for confirmation, planning prayer services and even helping out at a school dance, Sean's guiding words were met with excitement and desire to seek more of our faith amongst the day school and PSR students.

Sean dove right in helping out at the annual community service day, he spent early mornings praying and gathering with men of both parishes at Exodus, and his Gospel reflections have made us laugh all while striving to be in communion with Jesus.

With two more years of seminary left, we can only imagine all the joy he will bring to the next parish he is assigned. Join us as we say thank you and farewell to Seminarian Sean Neville.
