Avon Catholic Community Holy Week Schedule

Holy Thursday: 7:00 p.m. Mass of the Lord's Supper (location: Holy Trinity)*

Good Friday: 3:00 p.m. The Passion of the Lord (Holy Trinity) -and- 7:00 p.m. (St. Mary) **

Holy Saturday: 11:00 a.m. Easter basket and food blessing (Holy Trinity & St. Mary)

Easter Vigil: 9:00 p.m. Each parish will hold an Easter Vigil Mass at this time.

Easter Sunday: Each parish will follow their traditional Sunday Mass schedule.

*The Holy Thursday Mass of the Lord's Supper will have ministries shared between both parishes including lector, Eucharistic ministers, altar servers and choir. All parishioners are welcome to participate in the washing of feet. Those wishing to have their feet washed should bring a towel from home. You will be called forward at the appropriate time for foot washing. Upon reaching the provided chair, parishioners should remove one shoe and sock only. Females are asked to kindly wear pants.

There will be a procession to the gym at the end of Mass where the Blessed Sacrament will remain for a prayer until 9:50 p.m. At that time we will close with Night Prayer.

The Divine Mercy Novena will be prayed at 11 a.m. prior to the basket/food blessing at Holy Trinity.

Food Blessings at Easter are an anticipation of the great feast after 40 days of fasting. Foods that will be eaten for the first meal on Easter are brought to church in decorated baskets to be blessed. This custom originated at a time when Easter Vigil Mass was celebrated on the morning of Holy Saturday, so many may remember bringing fully prepared meals to church, and going home to eat them on Saturday afternoon. When the Holy Week liturgies were reformed in the 1950s, the Church clarified that Holy Saturday should be a day of great silence, and festivities that had become meaningful to the community should be more subdued or postponed until Easter Sunday. For our food blessings, all are welcome to bring either ingredients or prepared foods in their baskets to carry on the tradition, but as we continue to wait with Jesus in the tomb, the churches will not be decorated, and the new holy water not yet blessed.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

I have a two-year-old, and he has two older siblings who love to mess with him. I love Palm Sunday Mass, but honestly, a part of my motherhood instantly goes to a place of prayer that my children do not hit or annoy anyone around us with their palms. Matt and I are easily in a zone defense in the pew during Palm Sunday Mass. These precious children will certainly drive each other crazy, despite the speech in the car that my husband and I will give about the beauty of Holy Week and the behavior we expect, especially at this Mass (as it may be a bit longer). I apologize in advance to those around us.

Joking aside, Palm Sunday is one of my favorite Mass experiences. It is a beautiful Mass and always prepares me for the gifts of Holy Week, from the energy of the families, the procession, and the engaging and interactive Gospel reading. Palm Sunday has my heart. I ask each of you to take time to look at the liturgies of the week and embrace each opportunity to grow closer to Christ crucified. Leave everything at the foot of the cross. So much happens this week, and our good and loving God forever changes the world.

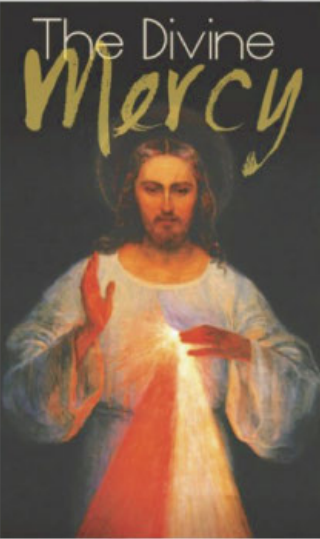

Beyond our typical preparations and participation in the holiest week of the year, we as a family are also preparing to join others from the Avon Catholic community on our first Mission Trip. Please pray for all of us traveling and those we will serve in the Dominican Republic. We are eager to serve and celebrate the joy of the resurrection in this special way.

I look forward to sharing our experiences and the future mission opportunities available to our community. I can't wait to see you throughout this most Holy Week. Embody the beauty, my friends. "When the centurion who stood facing him saw how he breathed his last, he said, "Truly this man was the Son of God!"

Revival Starts Here,

Desi Gould, Director of Evangelization

With the academic year coming to a close, Seminarian Sean's assignment here at the Avon Catholic Community will conclude. During his time here, Sean has supported many ministries in countless ways.

From training new altar servers, prepping our junior high students for confirmation, planning prayer services and even helping out at a school dance, Sean's guiding words were met with excitement and desire to seek more of our faith amongst the day school and PSR students.

Sean dove right in helping out at the annual community service day, he spent early mornings praying and gathering with men of both parishes at Exodus, and his Gospel reflections have made us laugh all while striving to be in communion with Jesus.

With two more years of seminary left, we can only imagine all the joy he will bring to the next parish he is assigned. Join us as we say thank you and farewell to Seminarian Sean Neville.

Whether your loss is from death, divorce, end of a relationship, loss of a career, loss of trust, or loss of faith—all are welcome to this grief recovery session.

People say you have to let go and move on in life, but they do not tell you what you need to do to accomplish that. The Grief Recovery Method Outreach Program not only makes that possible, but provides partnerships and guidance to ensure it happens.

RSVP to Tammie Frank in the parish office by dialing ext. 223.

Grandparents @ Prayer will meet April 9 from 9:30—10:30 a.m. in the parish office.

Senior Saints will meet April 12 from 9:30—10:30 a.m. in the parish office.

The Seven Sisters prayer group is looking for Holy Trinity and St. Mary parishioners to join in daily prayer for all priests of the Avon Catholic Community. In this Apostolate, a parishioner prays one holy hour for one assigned priest each week. Now included in this ministry are Fr. Deogratias and Fr. Cleaton. By adding these members of clergy, the group is seeking seven sisters for each priest. If interested call the parish office and ask to be put into contact with Eileen Schlather.

The Knights of Columbus Father Ragan Council of Avon/Avon Lake is interested in talking to the men of the parish regarding joining the Knights of Columbus. The Knights of Columbus is an International organization that is dedicated to doing works of charity in support of the Catholic Church, the youth, family, community and the sanctity of human life. More information is available at kofc.org. If interested in the Father Ragan Council please contact PGK John Pabin at (440) 725-7369 or email john.pabin@gmail.com for Holy Trinity parishioners –and– for parishioners of St. Mary please contact Bill Greaney at (440) 309-3704 or email misencikf@yahoo.com

CATHOLICS COMING HOME Do you know of someone who has left the Catholic Church? As baptized, practicing Catholics, we have a precious gift of faith from the Lord with the directive to share our faith with those who are not practicing. Many inactive Catholics are waiting for an invitation to return. For a variety of reasons, some mistakenly think they are excommunicated and are not welcome. The Avon Catholic Community is partnering with St. Raphael for their program called Catholics Coming Home, which helps non-practicing Catholics return to the Church in a welcoming, non-judgmental atmosphere. The six-week series takes place at St. Raphael and begins Sunday, April 7 at 5 p.m. Pick up a pamphlet after Mass and sent it to someone who might be interested. Feel free to accompany someone interested. Register/questions: Deacon Larry Gregg (440) 360-7738.
