Welcome Deacon Mike

Deacon Michael Puhalla has been assigned to Holy Trinity Parish in Avon by the Most Reverend Edward Malesic, Bishop of Cleveland, effective May 15, 2024.

The Deacon and his wife, Colleen, along with their pets, reside in North Ridgeville. The couple has two grown children. Their daughter, Katie, and her husband, Dan, reside in the Cleveland area and their son, Michael, resides in Northern Virginia. Deacon Mike grew up in the Youngstown, Ohio area where he attended public schools and is the oldest of six children. Prior to coming to Holy Trinity, he served within the Diocese of Youngstown and his previous assignments included Holy Family Parish in Poland and St. Columba Cathedral in Youngstown. His ministries included working with youth and young adults and servings as an adult leader and mentor for various ministry programs. He was a member of the Diaconate Formation Team for the Diocese and also served as a Master of Ceremonies for Bishop David Bonnar. Deacon Michael was ordained on August 31, 2019 in Youngstown.

We will get a chance to Meet Deacon Mike in the weeks ahead. Please extend a warm Avon welcome to the Deacon and his wife!

~GOSPEL REFLECTION~
Pentecost Sunday

May 19, 2024

Veni, Sancte Spiritus

Come, Holy Spirit! One of my favorite traditions in recent years has been the Pentecost party that one of my best friends hosts. Everyone wears red or orange. We have a bonfire and make smores. We gather together in fellowship and prayer. Many young families attend, and you see children running around, playing games, and having the time of their lives. Who doesn't love a good-themed party? In truth, it is a beautiful gathering; we all speak the same language of God's love, rejoicing in our Lord with hearts on fire. It is an event that brings together the faithful. As we celebrate, we often discuss what it must have been like at that first Pentecost—the complete wonder and awe. Maybe there was some fear in the overwhelming nature of what was happening, but I like to think that it was overshadowed by the joy of witnessing the glory of God. You know that feeling when you witness God perform a miracle, the gift of life when a child is born, the rejoicing in the recovery of illness, watching a friend be ordained a priest, the list goes on and on. The Wonder and Awe moments strike us in a way that makes us want to share with the world what good has happened. I often like to start our prayers with the words, Come Holy Spirit, because where the spirit is, so is the Father and Son. I know that what happens next can be pure and true. I want to be in constant awe of the Lord, for I have seen what He does for me and all of us! May we all find a way to celebrate with our community the fire that the Lord has placed in each of us to proclaim His goodness. Make a bonfire, have a smore, maybe light some candles, and declare your faith in the name of the Lord. Veni, Sancte Spiritus!

Hello! My name is Luke Brown and I am a Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor. I pursued a degree in mental health after a few years in the seminary formation studying philosophy and theology. While I discerned that God was not calling me to love others as a priest, I learned that he was calling me to another important path of helping others find healing and peace as a counselor. In 2021, I started my own practice, Sacred Heart Counseling, where people can find mental health counseling that is able to incorporate their faith as part of the healing journey. As part of my ministry, I write a weekly reflection column in the hopes of bringing our faith and mental health together to provide practical steps and insights towards healing and peace. I regularly discuss topics such as anxiety, depression, bereavement, relationship conflicts, communication, and boundaries, to name a few. One of my goals is to destigmatize the mental health world within our Catholic faith. Too often I hear people say that counseling is for "crazy" people or that it is essentially "rent-a-buddy". Neither of these things are true. Counseling is for anyone who finds themselves or their relationships in a difficult place and needs some help to find a path forward. Frankly, I thought these same things about counseling until a priest told me that I should pursue counseling and, when I did, a whole new world opened up before me. Now, I am a counselor - life is funny that way. I hope these reflections are helpful for you and give you food for thought! If you ever have any questions about my reflections or concerns, please feel free to reach out to me at 440-305-6192 or at lukebrown@sacredheartcleveland.com.

You will be in my prayers!
