

11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants." - Mk 4:30-32b

How will we grow?

This week's gospel had me reflect on the people who have come into my life and how they have nourished my growth and faith. As the Chairperson for the Northcoast Teens Encounter Christ Retreat program, I found myself on great soil. I encountered people who were beacons of light and loved Jesus in a way that inspired me in my relationship with Him. I talk about TEC because it has tremendously impacted my life. It is a multi-generational retreat offering a community of great faith, a community I am proud to be a part of. I invite you to pray about attending a TEC retreat - no matter your age! They are taking applications for the summer retreat, it is in our backyard at the St. Leonard retreat center off Case Rd. Pray about it.

As an Avon Catholic Community, this week, we welcome our new Director of Youth and Campus Ministry, Clare Sherman. I met Clare when she was 16, walking into a TEC retreat weekend, and now I am blessed to be part of a new form of ministry with her. She has a heart on fire for the Lord. Clare, a graduate of Walsh University and a dedicated missionary of the Culture Project, found that God was speaking to her heart and asking her to take on a new opportunity. In that discernment, she was called to our beautiful community, where she will help foster the faith of our young people. Everywhere I look, our youth are searching for truth; they are confused. With all this on my mind and my heart, I was reminded that this is the month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. It is an excellent chance for us to consecrate ourselves and our families to His most Sacred heart, a heart that unites us all in our faith and love for Him. A heart that ensures our growth, even if we are unsure of the seeds that have been planted. Jesus, I trust in you!

Desi

Desi Gould, Director of Evangelization

Clare Sherman
Director of Youth and Campus Ministry
Avon Catholic Community

I was born and raised in North Olmsted, Ohio, and I come from a large family of 10 children. Before you ask, no, there are no twins or triplets. And yes, my mother is a living saint! I grew up with the faith and appreciated that foundation throughout my childhood years, but after college is really when my faith became my own. I graduated from Walsh University in 2019 with a Bachelor's in Sociology, Applied Family Studies along with a minor in Psychology. During these last 4 years, I served as a Catholic missionary with The Culture Project. In this ministry, I worked with middle and high school students, breaking down the lies of this culture and proclaiming the truth that they were created with such great worth and dignity as human persons. This ministry revealed to me the hunger in the hearts of our youth; they so desperately want to be seen, known and loved. They want the truth. I am here simply because the Lord has called me into mission, and the youth of Avon deserve to know the truth of who and whose they are.

It's an honor to receive this opportunity and I can't wait to get started!

Help Needed with Church Linens

The Holy Trinity church cleaning crew is looking for a substitute launderer of the Mass linens. We have a wonderful volunteer, Jean Sexton, who has no difficulty handling this task. However, there may come an occasion when a sub is needed. The job entails washing and ironing the purificators, corporals and finger towels that we use at Mass. If this sounds like an apostolate for which you could offer service, please contact Jean. She'll provide quick personal training. Please call the Parish Office and we can get you in touch with Jean.
Thank you for your consideration.
