

12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!"
The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them,
"Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" - Mk 4:39-40

~GOSPEL REFLECTION ~
Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Tomorrow, we will kick off the return of Vacation Bible School. I have never organized a VBS program, but let me tell you, it is a great deal of work. I would be remiss if I didn't thank all of our parishioners and families for donating, volunteering, and supporting this important ministry. A major shout out to the wildly talented Beth Gassman, who coordinated the efforts in transforming each part of the VBS program, regardless if it was a trip into the Holy Land, a submarine expedition, or a magical ocean excursion - It is truly remarkable! In my research surrounding VBS, it is an excellent tool for bringing families and communities together in fellowship. Just as this is my first year preparing such a program, I have already begun writing notes on how we can continue to engage and grow our program and connect our parishioners. It is an exciting time. Tomorrow, we will welcome 130 children and 70 volunteers to VBS. Many of our volunteers are junior high and high school students eager to share in the joy of the Lord. They have been practicing songs, decorating, sharing in faith, and having fun together. It is something that I have had the privilege to witness. I am in awe, much like the disciples in today's gospel. God works in profound ways, and for this, I give thanks! My mind has been wildly distracted by VBS. Even in today's gospel, I could not help but laugh as Jesus woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" As you may recall, this year's VBS theme is SCUBA: Diving into Friendship with God. It is all things ocean-related, and here you have Jesus telling it to be quiet and still. This is a powerful symbol of how he will prepare our hearts for him this week, inviting us to dive deeper into our friendship with Him. I am grateful that Jesus keeps me focused on our relationship amid each adventure. How I constantly find myself in awe of our amazing God.

"Hi everyone! My name is Cate Kessler, and I'm delighted to be interning in the parish office this summer as a Nonprofit Outreach and Programming Coordinator! My family belongs to St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception Parish. I am in my sophomore year at Mount Saint Joseph University in Cincinnati, Ohio, double majoring in Speech-Language Pathology and Computer Science. I'm the youngest of six kids, and I'm happy to be back with my family in Avon for the summer. You'll probably find me watching sunsets at Veteran's Park, making matcha lattes, or wherever Adoration is happening.

I live by Saint Catherine of Siena's saying, "Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire!" I'm excited to serve this wonderful parish community and I thank you for welcoming me so warmly! Please feel free to come say hi - I'd love to get to know you!"

My brothers and sisters in Christ,

This last June 2, 2024 marked the 40th Anniversary of being ordained by Bishop Anthony Pilla, as a deacon for service to the Diocese of Cleveland. For the last eight years I have had the honor of ministering to and with the wonderful people of the Avon Catholic Community, particularly at St. Mary's of the Immaculate Conception. I have been humbled by being able to celebrate new life, First Communions, Confirmations, Marriages and the journey to eternal life with you in this faith community. From the beginning the support you have shown to me and Toni has been a blessing (especially during Toni's battle with cancer, which through your prayers and support and God's grace, Toni has been cancer free for 5 years and counting). I thank you for all you have been to me and Toni, and look forward to many years of continued work together to build the Kingdom of God, here in Avon, Ohio.

May God continue to bless you and your families,

Deacon Dan
