~GOSPEL REFLECTION ~

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

June 30, 2024

The last three weeks have been filled with great energy for the young people of the Avon Catholic Community. As I read the gospel today, I could not help but feel I had witnessed a restored faith and life throughout our community. First, I can't help but share the excitement of the Summer PSR program. It was beautiful! Kevin Kaufhold with a team of extraordinary teachers, led a faith-filled two-week, high-intensity curriculum and engaging formation for our young people. They were excited to learn more about the Catholic Faith. Still, even more so, they were thrilled with the resources they could use to grow in a deeper relationship with God. Remarkable.

As a community, we welcomed Clare Sherman as Director of Youth and Campus Ministry, who has begun work forming a core team for EDGE ministry and has started forming relationships with the junior high students of our community. Many have expressed a desire for more retreats, programs, and new ways to be together in fellowship.

Lastly, celebrated our successful deep diving SCUBA adventure underwater with our Vacation Bible School program. Kids learned scripture, played games, sang songs, and shared in the love of God. Jesus is our friend! This weekend, we hear one of my favorite scriptures, a miracle that pierces my heart. Yet, Jesus tells those there not to share and then to feed the girl. My favorite coffee mug says, "Talitha kum," which we hear today, means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" This makes me laugh because it is, in fact, coffee and Jesus I need each morning, but it is also a truth spoken to us. Jesus says to arise then have food or an excellent coffee. Maybe we just need to be present in this beautiful moment and allow Jesus to do what He does. Thank you all for your continued support of these life-giving ministries, especially with our young people, who bring great life into the Church - "I say to you, arise!"
