

17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. - Jn 6:9, 11

POSITION AVAILABLE

The Avon Catholic Community is seeking an Administrative Assistant to the Director of Religious Education

This person will play a crucial role in ensuring efficient operations within the PSR program and Sacrament preparation for the Avon Catholic Community. This position involves providing essential support to the Director of Religious Education, maintaining and organizing files and records, playing a key role in planning First Reconciliation, First Communion, and Confirmation as well as assisting the PSR program on PSR evenings. This full time, hourly position can include some evenings and weekends when needed. The ideal candidate should be creative and possess excellent organizational skills, attention to detail, and strong communication abilities. If you would like to apply, or want more information, please visit the Parish website.

IN LOVING MEMORY

We pray for the repose of the soul of:

August DiVito
(Holy Trinity)

May he, and all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

~GOSPEL REFLECTION ~
Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 28, 2024

This week, I asked my daughter to help me write the reflection. After I read the Gospel to her, she said, "That was good." I laughed because she thought that was the reflection, and I said, no, that is the Gospel. John did a great job telling that story. She then said, "I am 10, a student. What do you expect." After a moment, she looked at me and said, "I think the focus of this gospel is not so much the miracle or how Jesus fed the crowd but the fact that the people knew who he was at the end." She noted that at the end of the gospel, we hear that they knew that this, indeed, was the one who had come into the world. It is funny how we can read the same gospel, but Jesus speaks the truth differently. When I read this, I was amazed by the lack of resources and trust that was required at that moment from the crowd and the disciples. Yet, Maria brings up a good point: they came to know him, and that was the goal after all. To understand who Jesus was and to prepare the way for Him. Sometimes, I get caught up in what I need to complete a task at home or work or what might be missing, yet Jesus always manages to provide what we need, what I need. There is some truth in trusting, not just that all will be well in the end, but that we will come to know Him. That seems more important, anyway. Did we come to know Jesus? The summer days seem to be winding down, the shelves are stocked with back-to-school supplies, and regardless of whether this makes us happy or sad, we move forward. We trust that God will provide, but most importantly, we trust that He will reveal himself to us and we will simply know who Jesus is.

Desi

Desi Gould,
Director of Evangelization

Jesus said, "Have the people recline." Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted." - Jn 6:10, 12

Pray for the sick

Please help us update our list

It is time to update our "Pray for the Sick" list. We have prayed many of our family members and friends back to health and we are grateful for the healing power of our parish prayers.

If you or a family member are ill and would like to be placed on our "Pray for the Sick" list for the first time or are in need of continued prayers, please call the Parish Office to submit your name.

If you place someone on our list, please remember to call us when their health improves.

Thank you for keeping these members of our parish community in your prayers on a daily and weekly basis.

The power of prayer can be life changing.

Pray for our Troops from Holy Trinity:

- Fresh Apples/Grapes    ▪ Dessert

Your meal items need to be cooked but do not need to be hot and we please, please request that you package for spill proof transportation (ziplock bags work well). Drop off your meal items Sunday, August 4th, between 3:00 and 3:30 pm in the church parking lot. More information and how to sign up is on our parish website.

Non Perishable Food Collection.... On the First Sunday of every month non-perishable food is collected in the back of the Church. Please drop your donations underneath the choir loft stairs when you come to Mass. Please no perishable items!

Non Perishable Items needed:

Canned Fruit   ▪   Shells & Cheese   ▪   Side Dishes
▪   Canned Pasta   ▪   Jelly

Help Needed with Church Linens

The Holy Trinity church cleaning crew is looking for a substitute launderer of the Mass linens. We have a wonderful volunteer, Jean Sexton, who has no difficulty handling this task. However, there may come an occasion when a sub is needed. The job entails washing and ironing the purificators, corporals and finger towels that we use at Mass. If this sounds like an apostolate for which you could offer service, please contact Jean. She'll provide quick personal training. Please call the Parish Office and we can get you in touch with Jean. Thank you for your consideration.
