Welcome to:

Holy Trinity
Callie Ann Christian

May the Light of Christ, given in Baptism this weekend, shine on this little one forever.

After much prayer and reflection, I found Jesus calling many of us just as he did Nathaniel. He lets us know that he has seen us under the fig tree. Do you find yourself in the same place? He invites us to journey with him, to come and see, not to be bystanders of our faith but to serve as active members in our relationship with the Lord. How do we respond to the invitation to come and see?

Over the past weekend, our Compassion in Action team spearheaded the Avon Catholic Service Day. This year, we were blessed to have 142 parishioners join us. The impact of their service was profound. They volunteered at various sites, including Avon Place, The Woods on French Creek, Birthright, Blessing House, Friendship APL, Genesis House, Neighborhood Alliance, St. Augustine Community Cupboard and Closet, St. Francis Cabrini Food Distribution, and Catholic Charities Elyria office. Many dedicated their time to our hospitality and adoration teams. The day began with prayer and breakfast, followed by community service from 9:30 to 12:30. Upon Their return, they enjoyed a lunch provided by our hospitality team while watching a slideshow of their fellow parishioners in action. This day was a testament to the life-giving nature of serving one another.

Another beautiful aspect of my weekend was that I could share the joy of our Avon Catholic teacher retreat to start the year. Teachers began the day with Mass and Breakfast at St. Mary's, where Fr. Vince reminded everyone of the beauty of the vocation they are called to as educators and a reminder to take time for renewal. Then, teachers went on different adventures, including crafting, golfing, playing pickleball, a trip to Edgewater, the art museum, an escape room, and axe throwing. The teachers finished the day at Holy Trinity with lunch and prayer. It was a beautiful day of fellowship and rejuvenation as everyone prepared for an exciting school year.

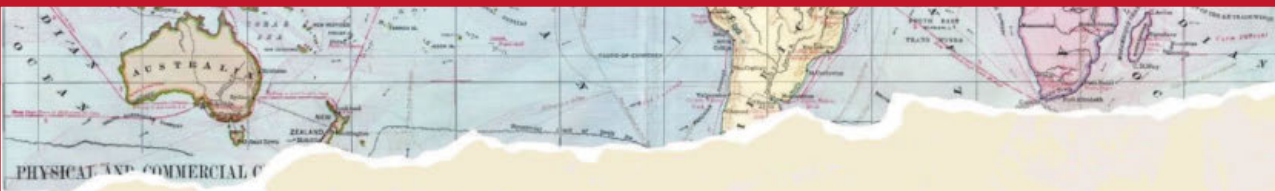

On Monday, Clare Sherman led another amazing junior high youth group bonfire night, full of faith and fun. It has certainly been exciting to see the energy of our ministry programs fill our community, igniting a sense of enthusiasm and engagement.
