DISCIPLESHIP DIGEST
with desi

September 8, 2024

About a month ago, in the parish office, I was sharing my excitement about the upcoming celebration of Mary's birthday. When someone asked, 'Who is Mary?' I couldn't help but share my joy, 'You know, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth.' The room filled with laughter as everyone realized what I was talking about. It was a moment that sparked a joy for celebrating Our Lady! What a joyous way to share the love and joy of our mother: Mass, donuts, and a party for Mary! Today, I invite you to join me in celebrating Mary in a way that fills your heart with joy; perhaps it's an extra rosary, a spiritual reading, or more prayer time. Let's all embrace this special day with Our Lady. One of my favorite trends is "Birthday Campaigns for a non-profit." After prayer, it seemed fitting that Mary's "Birthday Campaign" would be in service for her children, specifically those we are serving in the Dominican Republic. We invite you to consider a birthday gift for this special Avon Catholic ministry. The Avon Catholic Mission Team is eager to use our gifts and talents to serve. Each night, we pray the rosary together and offer our service in prayer for our community. Thank you for partnering with us as we seek to share the love of Christ with those in the Dominican Republic. Thank you for joining me in celebrating Mary. Envelopes will be available after Mass, and an online donation option will be available. "Let us run to Mary, and, as her little children, cast ourselves into her arms with a perfect confidence."
- St. Francis de Sales

Below the envelope, the text reads "BIRTHDAY WISH CAMPAIGN" in large pink letters, followed by "SEPTEMBER 8TH" in black. To the left is a yellow illustration of the Virgin Mary. To the right, it says "Support the Avon Catholic Mission Trip Team in honor of Mary's Birthday!" and "Envelopes will be available after Mass or you can scan the QR code" in a pink rounded rectangle.

Music Ministry at St. Mary's

As a new school year begins, singers and instrumentalists of all ages are needed to give glory to God and sanctify the faithful as members of our music ministry. Please contact Director of Music, Jolene Nelson, jnelson@avoncc.org, if you are interested in any of these opportunities or would like to learn more.

- Adult Choir is open to singers high school age and up. Adults traditionally sing for the 10 A.M. Mass on Sundays, and rehearse on Wednesday evenings at 7:00 P.M. in the Parish Center. All are welcome to these rehearsals, even if you can't commit to singing every Sunday, to learn more about the music we sing and its important in the liturgy!
- High School Students with choral experience, or those who simply enjoy singing, are the next generation of our parish choir! If you are unable to commit to weekly Adult Choir rehearsals, Mrs. Nelson would love to work with your schedule and find opportunities when teens can gather and make music together for a few Masses a year.
- The Funeral Choir consists of singers who attend funeral liturgies and sit with the congregation to help lead singing and responses, and support families as they grieve. No rehearsal needed! Interested singers will be added to an email list to be notified when a funeral is scheduled.
 - St. Mary's Choristers invites children in grades 3-8 to participate in a choir experience specifically for young voices. This program is evolving as we strive to accommodate the schedules and needs of busy families! Students will often sing the 12 noon Mass on Sundays.
 - Instrumentalists are often needed to enhance our liturgies during festive seasons and for special liturgies. Strings, keyboard, and brass are most needed, but anyone is welcome to reach out!

~ Diaconate from Deacon Mike ~

Hello Avon Catholic Community,

Since I moved into the area and began my assignment to Holy Trinity Parish by Bishop Malesic, I have had people ask; what is and what does a Deacon do in the Church? So, I approached Father Vincent about writing short articles for the bulletin specific to the Permanent Diaconate. With the penning of this first article, you can surmise that he supported my idea. My intent is not to provide historical context of the ministry, but to share insights into the Permanent Diaconate. Deacon Dan and I are ordained Permanent Deacons. There are also Transitional Deacons. Priest Seminarians are ordained a Deacon and are called Transitional Deacons. Their diaconate ministry is transitional until they are ordained a Priest.

Most Deacons are married, were or are still employed in secular society. This makes the Permanent Diaconate unique, because the Deacon has three vocations. The first of these vocations is their marriage and family. The second is their professional career. The third vocation is the Diaconate. Notice the order in which each vocation is listed. The Deacon's primary vocation is his marriage and family. God first called him to the vocation of marriage which is a sacramental covenant he and his spouse made with God. The second vocation is his professional career, necessary to provide the financial means to support their families and themselves. The Diaconate is their third vocation, which is not lesser but is to be lived through the first two. There is a common thread in each of these vocations, service.

The root word of deacon is the Greek word "diakonos" which means servant. Acts of the Apostles 6, 1-6 is referred to as the founding of the diaconate where seven men were chosen to serve the needs of the community. Through time the Diaconate ministry waned but was restored during the Second Vatican Council. The Fathers of Second Vatican Council wrote the ministry is threefold, "strengthened by sacramental grace, they are dedicated to the People of God...in the service (diakonia) of the liturgy, of the Gospel and of works of charity." Though the ministry had disappeared from the Church, the Fathers, led by the Holy Spirit saw the need for the Diaconate in the renewal of the Church. Using the words of the Fathers of Second Vatican Council, we will expand on the Ministry of the Deacon.
