DISCIPLESHIP DIGEST

with desi

September 15, 2024

Last Sunday, we gathered for donuts to celebrate Mary's birthday; even the bees seemed to want to share in that celebration. Some ancient cultures believed bees symbolized a spiritual message, a call to royalty. What a beautiful way to honor our queen. Please contact the parish office or visit our parish website, for those still interested in donating to the Avon Catholic Mission Trip in honor of Mary's Birthday Wish Campaign. In addition, parents who are helping their children prepare for the sacraments of Reconciliation, First Communion, and Confirmation gathered together to pray and learn more about that preparation process. These sacraments are a crucial part of our spiritual journey, and these parents' dedication is truly a gift. May we all continue to pray for those making these sacraments this year. The youth group kick-off was also last Sunday, a beautiful display of our community's spiritual engagement. We will share more about this remarkable group next week. Also, this is the last chance to register for the first stop on our bus trip series, THE ROAD TO GLORY! Check the bulletin and website for details.

CALLING ALL YOUNG ADULTS! It is time to come together for fun and fellowship. A night out, some trivia, food, and fun. In recent weeks, my prayer has continued to lead me to a place of questioning: where are the young adults, and who are the young adults that make up this beautiful Avon Catholic Community? After many conversations with our Director of Youth and Campus Ministry, Clare Sherman, we decided it was time to gather our young adults. So, if you are a young adult or know a young adult, please invite them to join us for a night out on Thurs. Sept. 26th at 6pm at John Christ Winery, Avon Lake - food and trivia included, cash bar available.

Last but certainly not least, for couples looking for a date night, we are partnering with our cluster parishes to host "Recognizing the Gift," a night out featuring TOB CLE's Jen Ricard. We encourage all dating and married couples to join us for this special evening.

~ Diaconate from Deacon Mike ~

The Church's Ministry of the Word

“Receive the Gospel of Christ who’s herald you are. Believe what you read. Teach what you believe. Practice what you teach.” The Deacon is, “...they are dedicated to the People of God...in the service (diakonia) of the liturgy...”. Unpacking this statement, “The Deacon is called to proclaim the Scriptures, and instruct and exhort the people. This finds expression in the presentation of the Gospels, foreseen in the rite of ordination itself...” The Deacon is charged to be an evangelizer and teacher in the Church’s mission of spreading the Word of God. As an evangelizer, the Deacon proclaims the Gospel. Additionally, by virtue of ordination, he may preach in accordance with canon law requirements.

He is a teacher of the Word through participation in various ministries, catechetical instruction, religious formation (OCIA/RCIA), leadership in retreats, are examples of how the Deacon is involved in the teaching of the People of God.

The Deacon is called to live the Word explicitly in their second vocation, their professional life. Through his actions, which may include words, the Deacon can bring the Gospel message to life in his professional career.

As a servant, to his brothers and sisters in Christ he is to faithfully practice spiritual and corporal works of mercy. By example, he is to lead his brothers and sisters in the imitation of Christ in constant service to the People of God. The Deacon is an evangelizer and teacher of the Church’s ministry of the Word. He is also a Sanctifier.
