

25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me." - Mk 9:35b-37a

DISCIPLESHIP DIGEST with desi

September 22, 2024

As many of you know, the Avon Catholic Community has been working hard to launch our new Youth Ministry Program for grades 6-8. Well, the time is finally here! One of the things the Lord placed on my heart from the very beginning was: we need a name. A name that is unique and intentional for this community; a name that communicates the vision the Lord has for our youth in Avon! Very quickly, the Lord revealed to me that Avon Catholic Youth Group will be called, "The Jordan".

Mark 1:9-11 reads, "In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. And when he came up out of the water, immediately he saw the heavens opened and the Spirit descending upon him like a dove; and a voice came from heaven, you are my beloved Son, with you I am well pleased."

This scene, very intentionally, takes place before Jesus does any public ministry. As Christians, how many of us grow up with the mindset of, "the more I do, the more God loves and is pleased with me"? This means we become really good at doing things for God!

And while doing things for the Lord is good, He shows us through this passage that our mindset of "do more, earn more" is not from Him. Before Jesus does any public ministry for His Father, we see them interact. This interaction is nothing more than The Father affirming Jesus' identity and goodness. He doesn't ask Jesus to do anything, and Jesus just sits and receives.

This is our vision for The Jordan. We want to teach our youth how to simply sit and receive the Father's love, how to cultivate a relationship with God, how to talk to God and how to hear Him speak. Ultimately, we want to help our youth create a relationship with the Father and find security in their identity as a son or daughter of the King. We are saying goodbye to 'checking the boxes' of faith. In The Jordan, we want to reignite and feed the desire for more, and oh does He have more to gift us with. There is no doubt in my mind that God has great plans for The Jordan!

Guest Writer: Clare

Clare Sherman, Director of Youth & Campus Ministry

RCIA is now OCIA

For anyone interested in becoming Catholic, wishing to complete the sacraments or wanting to learn more about what the church teaches, the answer for decades was “join RCIA.”

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, the process by which the church brings in new converts and educates catechumens and candidates, has been a staple in the Catholic life and lingo for years.

In November 2021, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops changed the name of one of the best-known acronyms in the church, reorienting the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) to the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA).

Rites are still part of the order, but the new structure is meant to invite candidates and catechumens into a continuous process of spiritual formation as opposed to fixed checkpoints on the path to Baptism, First Communion and Confirmation.

These rites are not new to the church, but by making the entire process an “order,” the candidate or catechumen understands the rites received in church are just one part of the ongoing journey of discipleship. The sacraments of initiation, Baptism and Confirmation ~ usually received during the Easter Vigil, ~ are a part of the journey that will continue throughout their lives.

The OCIA process encourages candidates and catechumens to take charge of their faith education, ask questions of catechists, explore the answers and build a life-long relationship with Jesus Christ.

If you are interested in learning more about the OCIA process, please contact the Parish Office. One of our OCIA team members will be happy to reach out to you.

Classes starting soon. Please contact the Parish Office for information.
