

31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The scribe said to him, "Well said, teacher. You are right in saying, 'He is One and there is no other than he.'" And when Jesus saw that he answered with understanding, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." - Mk 12:32, 34ab

ELECTION DAY

For guidance with regards to the election this week, the following statement is from the Ohio Conference of Catholic Bishops website:

“In the Catholic Tradition, responsible citizenship is a virtue, and participation in political life is a moral obligation. The responsibility to make political choices rests with each person and his or her properly formed conscience.

Catholic voters are called to properly form their consciences in preparation for voting and for the continued advocacy for just laws and policies required after voting. This process should focus on moral principles, the defense of life, the needs of the weak, and the pursuit of the common good. It requires constant prayer, understanding of Church teaching, and discernment that goes beyond campaign rhetoric and partisan politics.”

If you would like to read more about what the Ohio Conference of Catholic Bishops has to say on the election, please visit this website:

<https://www.ohiocathconf.org/issues/category/election-issues>

A prayer before an election

“Lord God, as the election approaches, we seek to better understand the issues and concerns that confront our city, state, and country, and how the Gospel compels us to respond as faithful citizens in our community.

We ask for eyes that are free from blindness so that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, one and equal in dignity, especially those who are victims of abuse and violence, deceit and poverty.

We ask for ears that will hear the cries of children unborn and those abandoned, men and women oppressed because of race or creed, religion or gender.

We ask for minds and hearts that are open to hearing the voice of leaders who will bring us closer to your Kingdom.

We pray for discernment so that we may choose leaders who hear your Word, live your love, and keep in the ways of your truth as they follow in the steps of Jesus and his Apostles and guide us to your Kingdom of justice and peace.

We ask this in the name of your Son Jesus Christ and through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.”

We welcome the following newly Baptized:

Holy Trinity

Ann Kathleen Freeh

Brady Michael Wisniewski

May the Light of Christ, given in Baptism this weekend, shine on these little ones forever.

DISCIPLESHIP DIGEST

with desi

November 3, 2024

This past week, our Avon Catholic Community celebrated a milestone with Fr. Vincent Hawk's Installation Mass as the Pastor of St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception. Bishop Malesic presided over a beautiful celebration, reminding us of the unity we share as One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church. His words called us to recognize the beauty of our shared faith, a faith that binds us together across generations.

As we celebrated Fr. Vincent's new role, we also had just returned from a transformative 7th grade leadership retreat at Damascus with students from both Holy Trinity and St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception. This retreat was a powerful reminder of the importance of these formative years in the lives of our young people. As they encounter Christ in such a personal and profound way, they begin to see themselves and the world through a lens of faith. In just two weeks, all of our 8th graders (including PSR) will embark on their Confirmation retreat, another opportunity to deepen their relationship with God and strengthen their understanding of what it means to live as disciples. Damascus retreats are designed to awaken young hearts to God's love and presence, helping them form a Catholic worldview that will guide them throughout their lives.

To continue this spirit of encounter, we invite all junior high and high school students to join us for a special Friendsgiving followed by a community-wide Festival of Praise night on Wednesday, November 27th. It will be a chance to experience the joy of community, praise, and worship in a vibrant and energizing way, similar to the atmosphere of a Damascus retreat. This evening promises to be an opportunity to give thanks together, praise God with our whole hearts, and grow in love for one another. All are invited to join us for this special adoration at 7 P.M. at Holy Trinity on November 27th.

Finally, as we recently gathered to celebrate All Saints and All Souls day, we have been reminded of the communion of saints and the promise of eternal life. May our prayers for our departed loved ones bring them closer to the joy of heaven, and may the witness of the saints inspire us to live out the great commandments of love in our lives as Jesus shares with us in our Gospel today. Let us move forward in faith as one community, one body in Christ, and One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church.

Advent Retreat: Deepen Your Relationship with God

Come and prepare for Advent and Christmas. God is with us, and His greatest desire is for us to know, love, and serve Him. If you are looking to deepen your relationship with God as we celebrate Advent and Christmas, a wonderful opportunity awaits you!

- We will be offering a weekend retreat at the Jesuit Retreat Center this year in spiritual preparation for Advent and Christmas.
- You will be provided with time for rest, prayer, and contemplation amidst the beautiful grounds at the retreat center.
- We will explore our connections to God, His love and mercy for every one of us, how to find God in all things, personal prayer, and contemplating the ways God is speaking to and calling each of us personally!
- Retreatants may choose to stay at the retreat house for the weekend or commute back and forth each day. If planning to stay overnight, make sure you select the "additional item" within the registration.

Give yourself the gift of time to spend nourishing and nurturing the relationship you have with God!

Hosted by: Avon, Avon Lake, Bay Village, Huron, and Sandusky Catholic Communities
