DISCIPLESHIP DIGEST
with desi

One of the things about scripture is that even the smallest word and shortest phrase may be critical to the overall message. When you have quiet time with our readings, you may find a mundane word or sentence that will gain your attention and pull you into a deeper understanding of a truth you might not have considered.

Most often, we are like those from our first reading in the book of Nehemiah, standing before the Water Gate "listening attentively." This might be at Mass or in the car listening to the daily reflection on your Hallow app. Our ears hear the scripture or read the word but miss the true meaning. This begs the question, "are we clocking in?"

Scripture is the spirit for our life and the seed of stewardship. This week, I humbly come to you asking that you read the words of this letter and accept an invitation to attend the Ministry Fair on Thursday, February 27 from 6 – 8 p.m. at Tom's Country Place.

Below is a listing of the various ministries that will have tables. Each of these are listed under suggested talents and skills a parishioner may have and feel called to lend the Avon Catholic Community. As you read these, I ask you to think of the actions that you may take to participate and lend your talents to a ministry that not only grounds you in God's word but gives true meaning to your calling in life.

What to expect at the Avon Catholic Ministry Fair on Thursday, February 27 from 6—8 p.m. at Tom's Country Place:

-Smiling faces will greet you at the door and provide a booklet of ministry opportunities to explore. The booklet will have contact names of ministry leaders and a brief description of offerings and activities.

-Complimentary beverages and appetizers will be available throughout the evening. A coat room to store winter coats or other personal items will be open.

-Many ministry groups will have raffle items at their table. Each week prize opportunities will be announced in the bulletin leading up to the event.

-Much like a college fair, job fair, health expo or more, the evening is designed to allow parishioners to flow through the event space, table by table to discover the variety of ministries to learn what might be a compatible fit to contribute personal time, talents, and faith.

-This is a family-friendly event, children are welcome.
