From the Desk of Father Hawk

Our faith calls us to acknowledge the goodness in others. Saint Paul wrote to the Thessalonians, “Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.” (1 Thes. 5:16 – 18)

In this season of Lent, I joyously reflect on God’s gratefulness and acknowledge the kindness of others over the past several months. From being formally installed as pastor of St. Mary by Bishop Malesic in October, to reading all of the lovely Christmas cards sent, and most recently welcoming our space of the renovated rectory and unboxing housewarming gifts – I am truly in awe of the generosity of this community. Each of these moments has created a beautiful memory for me personally, and I want you to know I am thankful.

We are blessed to have parishioner support in many ways. The rectory and parish offices are filled with exciting activity. All of the fellowship opportunities leading into Lent flourished with parishioner engagement. I especially loved time spent at the Ministry Fair held at Tom’s Country Place. If you volunteered as a ministry leader or attended the event as a participant, I sincerely appreciate you taking the time to join us. As I looked around the Ministry Fair I saw fruitful interactions, laughter from our youth and eyes opening to new possibilities. Coordinating the Ministry Fair took many meetings and planning months. What a great way to set us off into the season of Lent and visibly see God working in our lives.

How do we continue building as a community this Lent? By going on the journey together. In order to be fully immersed in Lent there are three pillars of practice: prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Each week within the bulletin, on social media, through our school or PSR emails there are weekly opportunities outlined to activate prayer, fasting and almsgiving. I encourage you to engage in these offerings and open up to this season of repentance and reflection.

We are not called to only do one, but all three to prepare our hearts for Christ this Easter. Prayer, fasting and almsgiving help us to remember the merciful love and compassion that God shows all people. We do not make this journey alone. The whole Church prepares for the celebration together, along with those who are preparing to enter the Church at the Easter Vigil. Stations of the Cross, Lenten retreats or Bible Study, fellowship over soup or the St. Mary fish fry, know that gathering together is an act of love, sacrifice and prayer – which are a tangible witness of God’s love to those around us.

As Father Deo and I celebrate one month living in the new rectory and flowing in and out of our parish spaces, I hope to see you at either Holy Trinity or St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception during one of our scheduled Lenten activities.

Sincerely in Christ,

Father Hawk

DISCIPLESHIP DIGEST with desi

Jesus willingly steps into the wilderness, fasting for 40 days, fully human in his hunger and struggle, yet remaining steadfast in his trust in the Father. His resistance to temptation: choosing dependence on God over worldly comfort, power, and security. Let this set the model for our own Lenten journey.

This Lent, as your family discerns what to offer up, I encourage you to make it a conversation, a prayer, and something intentional. Matt is deep into Exodus, probably already feeling the effects of cold showers and no sweets. Maria and Joey are being challenged to think about what their offering should be—maybe giving up screens or dessert (GASP!). And then there's Leo, who at three years old might just be called to give up exactly nothing because, let's face it, he is already living in a sacrificial state by virtue of being three. Or maybe his Lenten offering is simply letting me drink a cup of coffee in peace—now that would be a sacrifice.

But Lent isn't just about giving something up; it's about making room. What are we filling that space with? Spiritual reading sounds like a great focus—something that pulls you deeper into the Passion and keeps you centered when the inevitable mid-Lent slump hits. Maybe one extra Mass a week, time in adoration, and of course, Stations and confession. As I write this, I am still uncertain of what Jesus is asking of me this Lent; hopefully, he will reveal this soon.

At the end of the day, it's about asking: Where are we meeting Jesus in our wilderness? Whether it's through fasting, prayer, or just surviving a family trip to confession, this season is a reminder that He isn't asking for perfect offerings—just open hearts. May you know my prayers for all of you this Lent!

Holy Trinity School Fifth-Grade Student Retreat: Embracing Identity as Sons and Daughters of Christ

This year's fifth-grade retreat was a powerful and faith-filled experience, focusing on identity, worth, and the mission to go forth as disciples of Christ.

The boys' retreat, "Sons of the Creator," took place at the seminary, where Mr. Mo, Kevin Kaufhold, and Seminarian Sean led the young men in discovering their God-given identity. A highlight of the day was receiving heartfelt letters from their fathers or a male figure in their lives, affirming their worth as beloved sons of God. The boys also had the unique opportunity to work on projects with seminarians, hear an inspiring talk from Fr. Eric Garris, and tour the seminary, giving them a glimpse into the journey of priestly formation.

Meanwhile, the girls gathered at St. Leonard Retreat Center for "Daughters of the King," led by Clare Sherman and Rachel Frankhart. Showered with love and encouragement, the girls received letters from their mothers or a female figure in their lives, reminding them of their dignity and beauty in Christ. They enjoyed a special lunch fit for royalty, engaging talks, creative crafts, and joyful dancing, all reinforcing their worth as daughters of the King.

Throughout the day, Catholic identity was at the heart of every moment, immersing the students in faith, community, and the love of Christ. As they returned home, the fifth graders carried with them a renewed understanding of their identity in God and the call to live boldly as His beloved children.
