Be sure to sign up for Flocknote. This past week Avon Catholic has sent reminders about parish activities. Sign up via the text instructions to stay current with information.

DISCIPLESHIP DIGEST with Desi

Jesus tells the parable of the barren fig tree. The landowner is ready to cut it down, but the gardener pleads for more time: "Sir, leave it for this year also, and I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it; it may bear fruit in the future."

Sound familiar? God is patient with us! He doesn't give up when we struggle to grow. Instead, He gives us the time, nourishment, and grace we need to flourish. This is a beautiful reminder of God's patience with us. Lent is our season of cultivation—a time to open ourselves to God's work, allowing Him to prune what hinders our faith and strengthen what helps us flourish.

This same spirit of cultivation is alive in our mission team as they prepare to serve in the Dominican Republic. Through prayer, preparation, and generous support, they are tending the soil not only in their hearts but also in the communities they will serve. One of the many exciting elements of this trip is a special lesson led by George Vlosich of GV Art and Design. Etch A Sketch has generously donated a classroom set for the children the mission will be serving. Using Etch A Sketches—yes, those magical red screens of childhood frustration (because let's be honest, who actually mastered them? Oh wait, George). Seriously, these small but meaningful gifts will allow creativity and joy to take root long after the team returns home. They will add creativity to the learning experience, and with some fun crafts, music, and completing a building on-site, the mission team is eager to get started.

Like the fig tree, we're all works in progress. Whether it's in faith, service, or finally figuring out how to make a straight line on an Etch A Sketch, God gives us what we need to grow. May this season be a time of renewal, joyful patience, and maybe even a little artistic inspiration! May we bear lasting fruit in our faith, our families, and our community. Remember, God is patient with us.

Diocesan Children's Choir Festival

Student choir members from both St. Mary and Holy Trinity attended the Diocesan Children's Choir Festival in downtown Cleveland on Saturday, March 15. They joined singers from six other parishes in a full day of rehearsals with director Michael Olbash from Massachusetts. They toured the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist and sang together for Mass. Special thanks to our singers' parents and Ms. Herbst, Mr. Slatter, and Mrs. Nelson for supporting this day of friendship, collaboration, and beautiful music!
