DISCIPLESHIP DIGEST

with Desi

I am delighted to share with you an opportunity to support one of our own, Miss Caterina "Cate" Kessler, a dedicated parishioner of St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception.

Cate has been an integral part of our community, offering her time and talents to Vacation Bible School, Summer PSR, Youth Ministry, and more. Her unwavering commitment and joyful spirit have been a true blessing to us all. You may know her as the famous "Intern Cate!"

This summer, Cate has been selected to participate in the Servant Leadership Program at Camp Wojtyla, a Catholic wilderness adventure camp in the Rocky Mountains. In this role, she will mentor middle and high school students, guiding them through outdoor challenges that foster both personal growth and a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church. Cate's passion for her faith and her dedication to evangelization make her an ideal candidate to inspire and lead these young individuals.

As part of her commitment, Cate is required to raise funds to support Camp Wojtyla's mission. These contributions will not only enable her participation but also provide scholarships for campers, ensuring that more young people can experience this transformative program.

I invite you to join me in supporting Cate on this missionary journey. Your prayers and financial contributions will empower her to touch the lives of many, spreading the love and teachings of Christ. Donations can be made electronically via the QR code provided, or by mailing a tax-deductible check payable to "Camp Wojtyla" with Cate's full name in the memo line.

Thank you for considering this opportunity to invest in Cate's mission and in the spiritual growth of the youth she will serve. May we continue to support and uplift one another in our shared faith journey.
