DISCIPLESHIP DIGEST with desi

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." (John 14:27)

These words have been stirring in my heart since our very first Avon Catholic Marriage Ministry Date Night this past Saturday at PINS in Ohio City. If you were there, you know — it was a little loud, a little chaotic... and somehow perfect. Couples filled the space with laughter, conversation, and the kind of joy that only grows when people choose to step into intentional community.

When one couple arrived, I thanked them for being there — for choosing to say "yes" to supporting marriage ministry. Without hesitation, they replied, "Of course! We want to support this. It's exciting, and we don't want it to stop." That moment stuck with me. Their eagerness echoed what I've been hearing more and more: people are excited to see how ministry is flowing in our Avon Catholic community. And yes, it's overwhelming, but in the most amazing way.

This Gospel reminds us that the peace Jesus gives isn't found in perfect conditions. It's not the quiet, polished, filtered peace the world tries to sell. It's deeper. It shows up in the real stuff of life — in the laughter of couples reconnecting over a shared drink, in the energy of a packed duckpin bowling alley, and even in the beautiful messiness of starting something new.

A huge thank you to Chris and Alex Kelley, who have stepped forward to lead this ministry with heart, vision, and faith. Their commitment to strengthening marriages within our community made Saturday night possible — and what a night it was! Our Marriage Ministry is just beginning, and already, we've seen how much fruit can come from giving couples a space to simply be together — to invest in their relationship and rediscover the joy of married life. We're already planning our next night (Shuffleboard, anyone?) and encouraging everyone who came to bring another couple along. Because the more we gather, the more we grow.

So, as we reflect on Jesus' words this week, may we trust that His peace can meet us right where we are — even in the loud, laughter-filled moments of life. May we keep saying "yes" to community, to marriage, and to the joy of growing together in faith.

LIFE TEEN

Begins Wednesday

The Grief Recovery Method – Grief Support Group, an action program for moving beyond death, divorce and other losses. The next program begins May 28

There are myths about grief:

-Time heals all wounds -Replace the loss -Grieve alone -Be strong for others -Bury your feelings

Your feelings are normal and natural. The problem is that we have been socialized to believe that these feelings are abnormal and unnatural.

Whether your loss is from: death, divorce or an end of a relationship, loss of career, loss of trust, faith, safety or health – Grief Recovery Method will help you.

The 8-week program will begin on Wed. May 28 from 6:30 – 8:00 p.m. For more information email tfrank@avoncc.org or call 440-937-5363 ext. 223.

May Crowning Mass Honors Mary and Celebrates Students

Our school community gathered for the annual May Crowning Mass, celebrating our 8th grade soon-to-be graduates and 2nd grade First Communicants. Each year, one 8th grade girl is chosen by her peers to crown Mary, reflecting her kindness, humility, and faith.

This year, Gabby Bowers was selected for this special honor and placed the floral crown on the statue of Mary during Mass. We are proud of all our students and grateful for this beautiful tradition honoring the Blessed Mother.
