Holy Trinity & St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception

The Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles

“You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the Kingdom of Heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in Heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in Heaven.”

Happy Independence Day!

As we reflect on the birth of our nation on July 4th, we give thanks to God for the many blessings we've received. We also honor and thank those who have served — and continue to serve — to protect the freedoms we celebrate today. Let us pray for our country, for its leaders, and for all who work to uphold justice, peace, and the common good!

DISCIPLESHIP DIGEST with Desi

“Who do you say that I am?”

Peter, probably sweating a little and hoping he studied the night before, blurts out the right answer: “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”

He nails it—and in that moment, Jesus hands him the keys to the Kingdom.

But let's not forget, Peter wasn't exactly the valedictorian of the apostles. He panicked in a storm, argued with Jesus, and denied Him three times before sunrise.

Honestly? That makes him incredibly relatable, especially for those of us juggling family, faith, and whatever mystery snack is currently stuck to the bottom of the car seat.

As I reflect on Peter's journey, I can't help but laugh—because, well, I've had my fair share of “Peter moments.” And yet—Jesus keeps handing me the keys too. Not to the Kingdom, but to rooms full of incredible kids, families, and volunteers. Just like He did with Peter, He sees through our flaws and calls us anyway. The truth is, ministry is often more Peter than Paul—a little clumsy, sometimes chaotic, always dependent on grace. Speaking of St. Paul—the guy who went from “I'm hunting Christians” to “I'm planting churches.” This guy writes half the New Testament, gets shipwrecked more than once, and still doesn't stop preaching. Together, Peter and Paul remind us that the Church was built not on perfection, but on transformation.

So what does that have to do with us?

Well, Jesus is still asking us that same question today: “Who do you say that I am?”

And we get to respond—not just in words, but in worship.

That's exactly what our new Revelation Nights are all about. Led by our amazing seminarian Jake (who has been such a gift to our community this summer), these evenings of adoration and worship are a chance to slow down, soak in God's presence, and maybe even receive that grace we all need.

Revelation Night Dates:

TONIGHT, June 29 at 7:00 p.m. – Holy Trinity

July 27 at 7:00 p.m. – Holy Trinity

August 17 at 3:00 p.m. – St. Mary's

We hope to see you there—flip-flops, fidgety kids, doubts, and all. Just bring your heart. Jesus will do the rest.

Saints Peter and Paul, pray for us.

Avon Catholic Community Vocation Ministry

Pray with us this week to help promote, encourage, and support vocations to the Priesthood and religious life. Through Mary's intercession, we pray for those contemplating the religious life in our ACC and for growth in our Vocation Ministry.

"Oh Mary, God's chosen one, mother and guardian of holy vocations, pray for us, and for all those called by God that they may discern their vocation through the help of the Holy Spirit. Amen" You can all be part of the Vocation Ministry by saying this prayer often. If you would like to serve in some way, join us at our next meeting Tuesday, July 15th at 7pm. This meeting will be held at the Avon Library.

Calling All Women!

The ACC Seven Sisters Apostolate is in need of 10 more women. Each of our priests, including our new Father Anthony, needs seven sisters, one for each day of the week who prays one hour for him and his needs on her chosen day. We also need more substitutes. Please call the parish office and ask to speak to Eileen Schlather for more information. The rewards are heavenly!

Birthright of Lorain County is in Need!

Birthright of Lorain County has a very great need right now for diapers in sizes 5, 6, and 7, as well as Enfamil formula (Infant and Gentlease).

Birthright is a charitable organization that relies on the dedication of volunteers and the generosity of donations to ensure that it can preserve and support pregnant women and new mothers. Your donations will mean so much to us!

There will be a basket at the front of St. Mary's on the side altar. If you would rather make a monetary gift, that would greatly be appreciated as well. Make your checks out to Birthright of Lorain County and you may put them in the collection basket on Sunday.

Thank you for your generosity, and God bless you.

Vacation Bible School!

Thanks for joining us for VBS this summer, themed, "True North." Through stations and worship, the kids learned about Jesus as their "True North," the One they must look to trustingly for direction, and Who is always there to receive their wonder.

St. Mary School has openings in our PreK, Kindergarten and grades 2 - 8

With a maximum class size of 14, our Pre-Kindergarten program is designed to ensure students have everything they need for kindergarten the following year and consists of a strong foundation in Religion, Language, Math Readiness, Gross Motor Skills and Fine Motor Skills. Our dynamic hands-on Kindergarten provides students the opportunity to grow socially, emotionally, and intellectually. Both the PreK and Kindergarten have a full-time teacher and aide giving students more individualized attention with smaller class sizes. Our school also has openings for students in 2nd – 8th grade. With an average class size of 18, students get a significantly enhanced learning experience with more personalized guidance and support. Building upon the strong educational foundation found in our younger grade levels, students continue their faith-filled journey following a pathway towards academic success and unique learning opportunities. We invite prospective families to talk with members of our school community or come tour the campus to meet an amazing team of educators.

Holy Trinity Spotlight

Holy Trinity School Welcomes Three New Educators

We are excited to welcome three new teachers to Holy Trinity School for the 2025–2026 school year. Each brings valuable experience, a heart for Catholic education, and a deep commitment to student growth and success.

Brigid McGoun – 3rd Grade Teacher

Brigid McGoun joins Holy Trinity as one of our 3rd Grade teachers. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Early Childhood Education from Bowling Green State University and brings a wealth of experience from her years as an in-home daycare owner, substitute teacher for grades

K–3, and long-time basketball coach at Magnificat High School. Brigid is known for her nurturing yet structured approach and building engaging classroom routines where students feel safe and motivated to learn. She is excited to bring her love of education and child development into the Holy Trinity community and looks forward to fostering strong relationships with her students and their families.

Emmeline Slaght – 4th & 5th Grade Science Teacher

Emmeline Slaght will be teaching 4th and 5th Grade Science at Holy Trinity. She is a graduate of the University of Dayton, where she earned a Bachelor of Science in Early Childhood Education and served as a student ambassador and campus tour guide. Emmeline's experience also includes serving as a lead preschool teacher at The Goddard School, a summer camp instructor, a private tutor and the founder of a children's entertainment company. Her creative, hands-on approach to science will encourage curiosity and active learning. She is thrilled to bring her energy, compassion, and dedication to our students this year.

Jasmin Román – Junior High Reading Teacher

Jasmin Román joins the junior high team as our new Reading teacher. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Middle Childhood Education from Baldwin Wallace University and has been part of the Holy Trinity community for nearly two years as a building substitute and student teacher. Jasmin's education experience also includes student teaching at Menlo Park Academy, St. Mary Queen of Peace, and Pinnacle Academy, with a focus on Math, English Language Arts, and History. She brings a warm, inclusive approach to the classroom and is passionate about helping students become thoughtful and confident readers. Jasmin is excited to continue growing alongside the students and staff at Holy Trinity.
