Beloved Lord, I want to give You pleasure, to give You the full yield of all that You have planted within me for Your glory has flooded me with new life and energy beyond my comprehension, beyond my capacities to enjoy.

You bore such pain for me, agonies beyond description. Help me give You fitting recompense for such investment in this soul.

It begins with the viewing of My wounds. You asked Me how I was unfastened from the nails impaling Me upon the cross so those who took Me down could release My body from the tree, lowering it to the peacefulness of the ground to those who loved it, cradled it yet in death, anointing it with love and tears to wrap it for the tomb.

Kiss those wounds you see, My child, and clasp them to your heart ... to rest with Me awhile and ponder what has taken place.

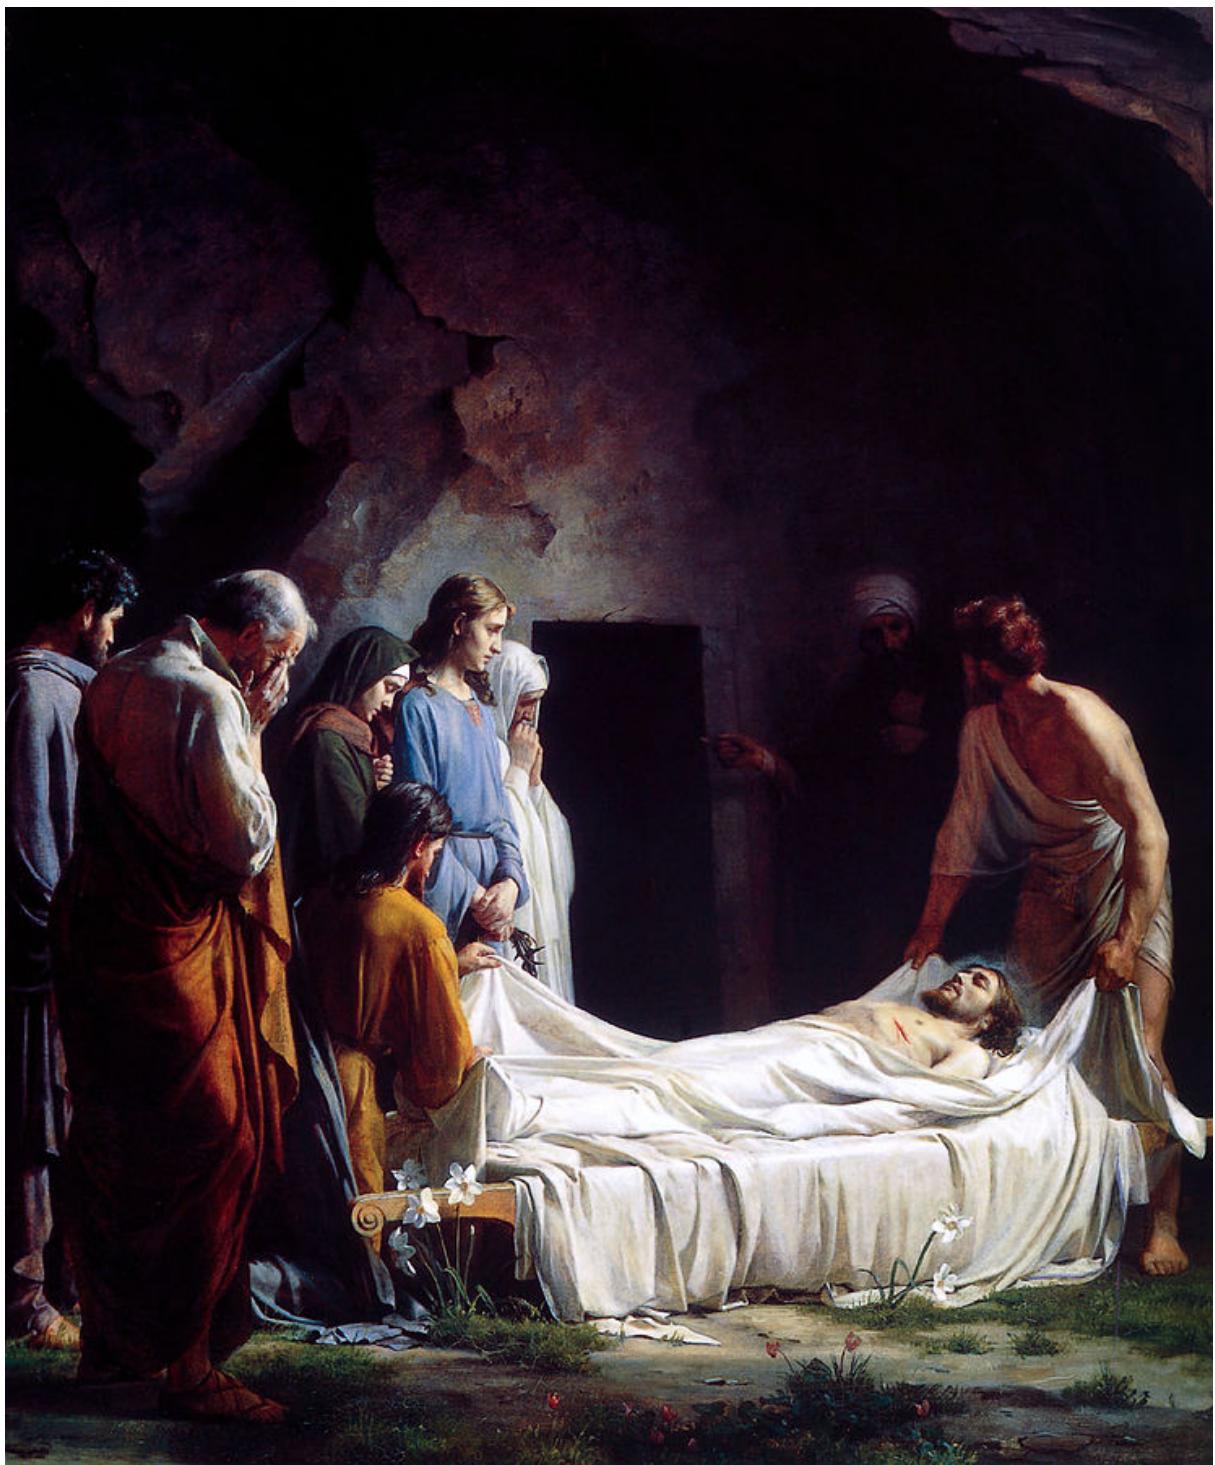

For you, My love. For you. It was all for you and I rejoiced to give My all. For you.

Stay with Me awhile until in time you feel the warmth return, calling you to rise and journey with Me along the way ahead of loving where I will show you yet again the secrets of My joy that you are giving unto Me day by day and night after night.

You are My delight forevermore.
