Our Mission

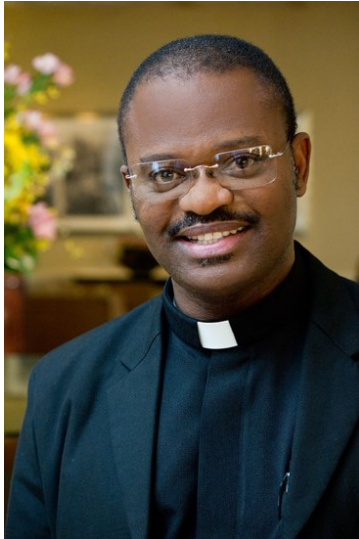

We are the temple of the living God, transformed by the Spirit into sacred vessels for the treasure of Christ. Like the monstrance, we present the love and light of Christ for all to see. Together, we become the dwelling place for God.

Parish Staff

Parish Administrator: Rev. Leonard Chuwa
Deacon: Rev. Mr. Mike Elison
Deacon: Rev. Mr. James Scott
Pastoral Associate: Will Strassberger
Seminararian: Diego Vazquez
Principal: Mrs. Kim Repper

FATHER LEONARD'S CORNER

Rev. Leonard Chuwa

“The Church is alive, as her Divine Founder is alive! The Church advances with the very virtue of life, as Jesus, after having submitted to the debt of mortal nature, proceeds victoriously beyond the stone barrier, which his enemies have placed to guard the tomb! Over the centuries, too, there have been other enemies for the Church, who have tried to close it as if in a sepulcher, celebrating its agony and death from time to time. But she, who has within her the invincible strength of her Founder, is always reborn with him, forgiving everyone and assuring serenity and peace to the humble, the poor, the suffering, to men of goodwill.”

—St. John XXIII, Pope (1959)

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

- The RAP Tour will feature St. Paul's Catholic Church next weekend. Several hundred tourists will be welcomed into our church during that time, so in order to protect the Blessed Sacrament, Solemn Adoration is cancelled on Saturday, April 15th.
- Our seminarian, Diego Vazquez, will be ordained to the diaconate at 11:00 a.m. on April 22nd, 2023 at St. Joan of Arch Catholic Church in Boca Raton. We will publish the livestream link as the date approaches. Congratulations, Diego!

"The Church and the world have a great need for Eucharistic worship. Jesus awaits us in this sacrament of love. Let our adoration never cease."

- St. Pope John Paul II

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Even on this most glorious of days, the gospel incorporates contradictions: Mary of Magdala arrives at an empty tomb, and sees that Jesus is gone and “we don’t know where they have put him” while the disciple whom Jesus loved enters the tomb and “saw and believed”; they “did not yet understand the Scripture.” Our own Alleluias and Easter joy are perhaps filled with some of the same contradictions. It seems as though we, too, peer into the empty tombs of the ups and downs of our everyday lives and are challenged to see and believe. But we are the disciples whom Jesus loves; and we surrender ourselves to the Easter mystery when we return love. All we need to do is hand ourselves over into God’s hands. Filled with God’s love, we are then able to love in return. Alleluia! The tomb is empty; by our love we see and believe, and we are filled with new life. Alleluia!

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can help the suffering and poor, (904) 553-7644. All calls are confidential.

CATHOLIC WRITERS GUILD

SATURDAY | APRIL 15, 2023

10:00 a.m. to Noon

Come join the Diocesan Catholic Writers Guild in the auditorium at St. Paul's for a talk from the local author Colleen Rooney entitled “Catholic Feasting through the Seasons.” During this beautiful liturgical season of Easter, learn about Catholic cultural and food traditions that are found in Easter celebrations and throughout the Christian year. Wondering how you might celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday in your home? Come and find out! Colleen will also talk about her writing journey in publishing her own book on the liturgical seasons. No admission—all are welcome. Contact Lori Zastrow at zastrana2@gmailcom with questions.

FROM THE OFFICE OF STEWARDSHIP PROMOTING STEWARDSHIP DURING HOLY WEEK

Very early in the morning after the Sabbath, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb to anoint Jesus' body with precious oils. The reward of this good and conscientious steward was to be among the first to know that Jesus had been raised from the dead!

Alleluia!
