

NOVEMBER 17TH, 2024—THIRTY-THIRD WEEK IN ORDINARY TIME

OUR MISSION: We are the temple of the living God, transformed by the Spirit into sacred vessels for the treasure of Christ. Like the monstrance, we present the love and light of Christ for all to see. Together, we become the dwelling place of God.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PASTOR'S CORNER

Timmy didn't want to put his money in the offering plate Sunday morning, so his mother decided to use some hurried creative reasoning with him.

"You don't want that money, honey," she whispered in his ear. "Quick! Drop it in the plate. It's tainted!"

Rev. Leonard Chuwa

Horrified, the little boy obeyed. After a few seconds he whispered, "But, mommy, why was the money tainted? Was it dirty?" "Oh, no dear," she replied. "It's not really dirty. It just 'taint yours, and it 'taint mine," she replied. "It's God's.

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Holy Time Warp!

This week is the last we will hear from the letter to the Hebrews. It makes the point that when Jesus allowed himself to be crucified he was actually being a priest, offering himself for the sins of the world. Jesus replaces the high priests of Israel, whose offerings had no power to forgive sins. After giving his life for us, he takes his place as God's equal. He is now the eternal Priest, so all clergy since the time of Jesus are visible signs of that priesthood.

When we celebrate the Eucharist, Jesus' sacrifice is there: The bread that is his Body is broken; the wine that is his Blood is poured out. We are present at his death and resurrection, without needing a flux capacitor or a time warp. Instead of taking us back in time, he brings his saving death and resurrection to us now. His sacrifice is an eternal one, redeeming all past and future sins. So if you have come back to church after being absent for years, you don't have to hide behind the hymnal. If you have sins weighing on your conscience, God has already offered you forgiveness. He knows all our weaknesses and lets us learn from our mistakes.

The Eucharist also reminds us that Jesus is present in glory, with us always, sharing his priesthood with all the baptized. We too are called to forgive, starting with ourselves. We can show God's mercy by forgiving each other. Since Jesus lives in us, we offer our lives as sacrifice for sins, as St. Paul said, "I fill up in my flesh what is still lacking in regard to Christ's afflictions." (Col 1:24) Does that mean we are supposed to seek ways to suffer? No, it means the suffering we cannot avoid can become our offering to God, a way to take up our cross as Jesus did, and a way to experience God's power in our weakness.

At the Eucharist, we pray with the priest, "that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God..." All the sacrifices we make, from accepting serious illness, to giving up something for Lent, are ways we take part in the priesthood of Christ.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

Conformity with Jesus’ words means that we hear the teachings of Jesus and live them out. We have to live now to create a future for ourselves that we want and that God wants for us. When we live in conformity to the Word, hearing Jesus’ words and living them out, the future holds no fear for us. Rather than fear, we anticipate our future with joyful expectation. On this second-to-last Sunday of the liturgical year, we realize that we have been faced with a choice throughout our journey during this past liturgical year: to be rooted in this world or in the words of Jesus. Our choices do make a difference. (Living Liturgy, p.246)

Is there a family or individual you know in our parish or in the 32204 or 32205 zip codes who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can help the suffering and poor, (904) 553-7644. All calls are confidential.

DIOCESAN MINISTRY FORMATION PROGRAM (MFP)
DISCERNMENT NIGHT 2024
— for those called to Lay Leadership —

The Ministry Formation Program (MFP), is for anyone who is seeking to grow more in their ability to share their faith with others and to be a recognized and commissioned lay leader within the diocese, on a parish level, diocesan level, or within our Catholic Schools. It is the minimum requirement for many roles within the diocese. Now in its 33rd year, this program helps lay people called to ministry to develop:

- Pastoral Leadership skills for leading others to Christ
- Increased knowledge of the Catholic Faith
- Deeper personal spirituality

To assist those who might be considering the MFP, the Office of Ministry Formation is hosting a discernment evening on:

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 2024 | 6:30 PM
The Catholic Center | 11625 Old St. Augustine Road | Jacksonville, FL 32258
Hurley Auditorium (park in the back of the building)

The evening will center around developing a deeper understanding of the Church's call to lay ecclesial ministry, as well as how the Ministry Formation Program helps the faithful respond to this call. During the evening, we will explore key elements of commissioned lay ecclesial ministry through 2 documents of the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops:

- Called and Gifted
- Co-Workers in the Vineyard of the Lord

It might be helpful for you to peruse these ahead of time.

RSVPs are greatly appreciated: Lauren at layministry@dosaf.com. Questions may also be sent to this email.
